First to Tour to Europe by Air, Decorated by Portugal

Six Members Elected at Joint Session of Council and School Committee—Commissioner George E. Marchand To Serve as Member Ex-Officio—Sixteen Candidates Were Voted Upon

Dr. Joseph E. Lamoureux, Timothy F. O'Sullivan, Arthur T. Safford, John J. Mullane and Dr. John H. Lambert were elected, in the order named, by the municipal council and the school committee in joint session at city hall this morning to serve as members of a commission to build Lowell's new high school. In addition, Commissioner George E. Marchand of the public property department, will serve as a member ex-officio, in accordance with the terms of the legislative act which provides for such a commission. He will have a vote in the body.

None of the members was chosen unanimously, although Dr. Lamoureux and Dr. Lambert each received nine out of 10 possible votes. Mr. O'Sullivan received eight votes, Mr. Safford six, and Mr. Mullane six.

The election took only three-quarters of an hour and 13 votes were taken. In all 16 candidates were voted upon.

In addition to the five men chosen, the following received votes at one time or another during the session: Joseph H. Guillet, James O'Sullivan, William H. Wilson, Peter W. Reilly, Francis A. Warnock, John J. Carroll, Daniel S. O'Brien, John A. Stevens, Frank J. Warren, Samuel Scott and John C. Leggat.

The commission was elected in accordance with chapter 178 of the special acts of 1919 of the state legislature. In 1917 a similar commission was elected consisting of Dr. Lamoureux, Frederic A. Fisher, Daniel S. O'Brien, Arthur T. Safford and Peter W. Reilly. Later this was declared illegal and this spring another act was passed by the legislature which provided for the election of a new commission. The original legislative act gave the city the right to borrow $300,000 for the project and of this $300,000 has already been borrowed. The new commission will have the remaining $400,000 to spend, together with a balance of the $300,000 amounting to $27,774.33, or a total of $427,774.33.

The members of the commission are all well known in Lowell. Dr. Lamoureux is a member of the city board of health.

YANKS FIRST TO CROSS SEA BY AIR

American Seaplane NC-4 Reaches Portugal After Fast Flight From Azores

Actual Flying Time in Crossing Atlantic, 26 Hours and 41 Minutes

WASHINGTON, May 28.—No word had reached the navy department this morning as to whether the NC-4 had left Lisbon on the last leg of the flight from Rockaway Beach, N. J., to Plymouth, England.

Crew Decorated.
LONDON, May 28.—The crew of the American seaplane NC-4, which made the first transatlantic aerial passage, landing in Lisbon last evening from the Azores, has been decorated with the Grand Cross of the Order of the Tower and Sword, says a message to the wireless press from Lisbon. The decoration was presented by the Portuguese foreign minister.

The Order of the Tower and Sword awarded members of the NC-4 by Portugal was founded in 1808 in Brazil by the regent, who afterwards became King John VI of Portugal, as a revival of the Order of the Sword, founded by Alfonso V in 1453. It was again remodelled in 1832. It is a general order of military and civil merit and has five classes.

The badge is a five-pointed star in white on the center of which is imposed a sword surrounded by laurel wreath and words signifying merit, valor and loyalty. A laurel wreath connects the points of the star and at the top is a tower in gold. The ribbon is blue.

ALLIES NOT TO PARLEY LONG

All Set For Advance if Germans Fail To Sign—Time Up Tomorrow

Germans Expected To Present Counter Proposals Today

Although there has been no official announcement, it is expected that the German peace delegation will present its counter-proposals to terms of peace at Versailles today. The time fixed for the reply expires tomorrow noon.

Despatches indicate that the Germans will base their proposals on the claim that they accepted the offer of the allies to conclude peace on the basis of President Wilson's 14 points and other assertions by allied representatives that the peace would not be one of violence.

Allies Not to Parley Long

There are reports which seem to reflect a disposition on the part of the allies not to parley long if the Germans refuse to sign. It is reported that the Belgian frontier has been closed, that all Belgian soldiers have been recalled from leave, and that general mobilization of the Belgian army will be ordered as soon as it is definitely known that the Germans will not sign. Allied commanders along the Rhine, where the British, American and French armies hold strategic bridgeheads, are reported to have held conferences.

BELGIAN SOLDIERS RECALLED FROM LEAVE

AMSTERDAM, Tuesday, May 27.—A despatch received here from Eindhoven states that the Belgian frontiers have been closed and that all Belgian soldiers have been recalled from leave. It is reported that general mobilization will be ordered at the termination of the period given the Germans to sign the treaty of peace.

FEARS OF GERMAN ATTACK ON POLAND

PARIS, May 28.—Fears of a German attack upon Poland were expressed to-day.

MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

Big Turn Out Expected—Formation on South Common—Route of Parade

The time set for the Memorial day parade next Friday is 4 p. m. The formation of the parade will be on the South common and the route covered will be Thorndike to Middlesex, to Central, to Merrimack as far as Monument square, where services will be held; Moody street to Alken, to Merrimack as far as Button street, where the parade will be dismissed. The parade will be reviewed at city hall by the members of the municipal council.

It was learned this morning that all the members of the police department will be on duty, while there will also be a large delegation from the fire department. The Community Service club, composed of some 200 young women, will participate in the parade as will also the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, State Guard, Sons of Veterans, Spanish War Veterans, High School regiment, and the German War Veterans. Several local semi-military organizations have also replied favorably to the invitation to take part in the parade and it is believed that this year's event will be one of the best in a long time. The Salvation Army will have a special feature in the turnout.

Another feature with the parade will be that Miss Smith, a resident of the Highlands, who is the only living Civil War nurse in this city, will be a guest of the G.A.R. and will ride in a carriage. Chief Marshal D. L. Page and Chief of Staff W. C. MacBrayne are now busy on the roster and final general orders and it is expected they will be ready for publication tomorrow.

MINISTER TO IRELAND

Cong. Mason Would Have State Dept. Pay Salaries of Consuls to Ireland

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Representative Mason, republican, of Illinois, has introduced a bill directing the expenditure of $14,000 annually of state department funds "for salaries for a minister and consuls to the republic of Ireland."

ALLIES HAVE FOOD FOR PETROGRAD

PARIS, May 28.—The allied council of food supply now has eight ships loaded with pork products and flour at Helsingfors, Hangö, Danzig and other Baltic ports and these cargoes could be delivered in Petrograd within seven days. Their delivery, however, will have to await joint orders from the allied powers and these are not as yet forthcoming, pending the outcome of events in Russia.

COMPROMISE ON ITALIAN CASE

Council of Four Makes Determined Effort To Settle Question Today

Formula, Following Lines Proposed by Col. House, Framed Overnight

PARIS, May 28.—The Council of Four made a determined effort to settle the Italian question today. Andre Tardieu of the French delegation, after consultations with the Italian representatives, framed a formula overnight which is understood to follow generally the lines of a compromise proposed by Col. House and considered last week.

Col. House, Captain Tardieu and Premier Orlando were present at the council meeting this forenoon and there was said to be a fair chance that an adjustment might be reached during the afternoon.

SEALING CLINICAL THERMOMETERS

Warren P. Riordan, scaler of weights and measures, had a conference with a number of local druggists this morning at the board of trade rooms concerning the new law which provides that all clinical thermometers shall be sealed before being sold or used. It is understood that very few of the druggists who deal in this article in Lowell have the thermometers sealed, and Mr. Riordan advised them to write to the state commissioner of standards at once and ask that their goods be sealed. By so doing they will protect themselves and avoid a $50 fine.

The office of the state commissioner is capable of sealing from 200 to 300 thermometers daily. In writing to this department druggists should enclose an inventory of their supply on hand. Doctors or institutions which use these thermometers are also required to make sure that they are sealed.

DECISION STANDS ON NEWS PRINT PRICES

OTTAWA, Ont., May 28.—In a judgment issued today R. A. Pringle, controller of news print, confirmed the order he made in September last fixing prices for news print. An appeal was taken and the government created a special tribunal of judges to hear it. This body ordered new evidence to be taken on certain points. After hearing further evidence as to costs, Mr. Pringle says in the judgment that he sees no reason to alter the original decision.

It is expected that argument on the merits of the judgment will be resumed before the appeal tribunal on June 1. That body has the power to confirm, lower or increase the price fixed by the controller.

LAST CHANCE TO HELP SALVATION ARMY

Have you subscribed to the "Sallie" fund yet? If not, today is your last chance to show whether you believe the angel lassies are worthy of your support.

Lowell needs over $2000 to place the city in the ranks of the communities who remembered the doughnut girl with a full quota. The drive comes to a close at the final meeting in Memorial hall this evening.

Every member of the local police force has pledged an additional dollar for the "Sallies." Don't wait for the solicitor to come and get you. Send or bring in your donation to the headquarters committee, 119 Merrimack st., and see to it that the Spindle City, which has never yet failed to go over the top in all the campaigns of the past, does not fall down when called upon to do its bit for this great organization which stood behind the boys from Yankee land while they upheld Old Glory on the battlefields "over there."

MARRIED OR PROMISED TO MARRY 12 WOMEN

PARIS, May 28.—(Havas.) Henri Landru, who was arrested in April in connection with the disappearance of 12 women whom he had either married or promised to marry, was given a preliminary hearing yesterday. He said he knew nothing about their disappearance.

The judge told him that experts had concluded that the bones found in his villa at Gambais were human bones. He protested against the authorities searching his villa in his absence.

CARS ARE STILL TIED UP IN LAWRENCE

LAWRENCE, May 28.—Lawrence, Andover and North Andover were again without street car service today as a result of the strike of Bay State Street Railway Co. employees, which began yesterday. The men demand the reinstatement of a motorman recently discharged and the company officials refuse to comply. Transportation in Methuen is also affected, but a portion of that city is served by the Massachusetts Northeastern.

Young Women of St. Michael's Guild Present Brilliant Spectacle

Associate Hall Taxed With Admirers of Dancers in Patriotic Numbers

Associate hall was a chameleon of colors for about an hour last evening when the young women of St. Michael's parish under the auspices of St. Michael's guild held a pageant of nations party whose novelty and brilliancy combined to form an evening of exceptionally enjoyable entertainment for the several thousand people, young and old, who taxed the capacity of the hall. The affair was staged under the direction of Miss Mary C. Joyce of the high school faculty, who was ably assisted in her efforts by Miss Helen E. Hickey and Miss Agnes Dudley. Not only was St. Michael's parish fully represented but every section of the city sent its quota of admirers to witness the dancing of the young women whose careful tutelage under Miss Joyce made them letter-perfect in their difficult efforts. The program consisted of a series of group dances by companies of young women in the costumes representing eight of the allied nations. Interspersed with these numbers were several solo dances by exceptionally capable performers. The setting of the evening's entertainment was all that could be desired. The stage background of white was broken here and there with the national colors. On the side was the flag of Ireland and on the other the emblem of the new Irish republic. Banners of the various allied nations were also conspicuous and Frederick's orchestra was partially concealed by lattice work in the foreground. To accentuate the beauty of the dancing, light and shadow arrangements had been made and the synchronization of the illumination with the spirits of the various numbers proved one of the evening's most enjoyable features. The program opened with a group dance in the center of the hall by a dozen young women in Japanese costume who stealthily danced out into the bedimmed hall, hiding their faces beneath the folds of Japanese parasols. Gradually they became less exclusive and their number developed into very pretty dancing effects. Following their exit there came a series of thumps and a group of Holland ladies pounded their way to the front in typical Dutch costumes and with all the mannerisms of the people of the land of dikes and windmills. Their dance was well received, although necessarily less graceful in its nature than that of their predecessors. Scotland was next to command attention when a dozen tartan-clad lassies Harry lauded forth to the stirring strains of a bonny Scotch pipe.

number. And the wee things got a big hand before their part of the entertainment had been concluded. Miss Mary Gallagher and Miss Marlon Dowd, clad in the vibrant colors of Corsican peasants, appeared in a duet executed in perfect rhythm and harmony. They, too, received much applause. But 'twas when the blooming-cheeked colleens of Erin meandered into the spotlight via the intricacies of an Irish jig and with the entourage of a variety of Irish costumes that the house began vibrating with enthusiasm and applause. Dainty little capes did some of the misses wear and others had other costumes of as bewitching a character. And couldn't they dance! It was hard for them to return to the ante-rooms so great was their reception. Then came the heroine of the evening—little Miss Helena Connors, no

Good Health---A Supreme Law Good Teeth Mean Good Health

Everybody knows that neglect of the mouth inevitably results in a series of evils of which TOOTHACHE is only one—others are decayed teeth, loose teeth, sore, ulcerated pus-discharging gums, the loss of a few teeth and finally—worst of all—loss of all the teeth.

Recent investigations have proven that unclean mouths, with diseased, or missing teeth, exercise an alarming influence on the general health; physicians and dental specialists all agree that clean mouths and sound teeth are essential to GOOD HEALTH.

I have a specialist for every branch of work. I claim that I can give you better dentistry without pain, for less money than any other Lowell dentist.

Come in. I will examine your teeth free and give you hundreds of references as to the character of my work and if you are then convinced of my staff's integrity and skill we shall be pleased to serve you.

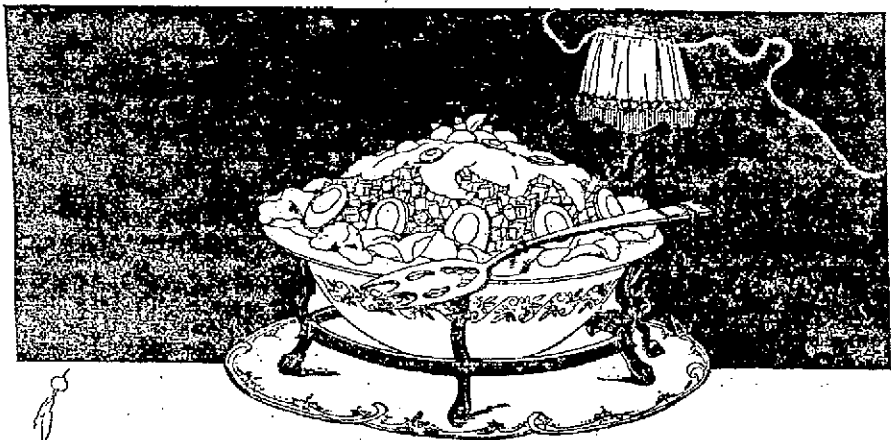

Could one possibly be fairer?

A "Wake-Up" flavor for Salads

Of course your palate can't taste the wholesome nourishment in COVO. But we doubt if there exists a single sleepy appetite which won't say, when introduced to the delightful flavor of this new salad oil,—"Hello, here's something new and mighty good." One New York hostess says Covo chicken salad is always "the life of the party."

Try it on your guests. Here's the recipe:

COVO WITH CHICKEN

Cut chicken into half-inch cubes. Add an equal amount of tender white celery cut into small pieces. Mix thoroughly together with a little finely chopped onion. Moisten with French dressing. Line salad bowl with lettuce. Pile salad in mound. Mask with Mayonnaise a la Covo, and decorate with sliced hard boiled eggs or delicately cut red beets. Olives, too, may be used for a garnish. Use this recipe for cold veal.

MOST of your cooking recipes call for shortening. Try Covo in cakes, cookies, in fact, wherever a fine shortening is needed. When you taste the results, you'll understand why the managing chef of the Waldorf, the McAlpin and the Claridge recommends Covo.

At grocers' in tins of pint, quart, half-gallon and gallon sizes more than four or five years old, one would say to look at her. Cutely clad in the costume of an Irish maiden she gracefully tripped out into the foreground and immediately danced her way into the hearts of those in the hall. Her every step was precise and perfect, her confidence supreme and her dainty grace most admirable. And she had the honor of responding to the first encore of the evening. Swarthy daughters of Italy we might call the next group that made their appearance, but somehow or other it doesn't seem accurate to call the young ladies who represented

Italy by that term, for they were exceedingly fair to behold. Their costumes had the brilliant snap of the southland of Europe and their tambourines, whirling in the air under the nimble manipulation of their fingers, kept the spectators decidedly interested every minute they were in the limelight. Their folk dance gradually devolved into a solo dance by Miss Agnes Dudley, a young woman who promises many good things in the dancing art. Her work last evening was admirable.

England's daughters were clad in smart red military jackets surmounted by just as smart red military hats, and their skirts were of the "blazer" black and white variety. Very soldierly was their bearing and warlike their dancing. And every bit of it was good.

Glorious France was represented by 13 alert and erect young women, whose military bearing was even more soldieresque than that of their British predecessors. The dark military uniform... Continued to Page 4

Plans for the establishment of a reserve officers' training corps in the local high school were informally discussed yesterday by Capt. Charles W. Fairfax, a regular army officer and instructor of the R.O.T.C. at the New Bedford high school, and headmaster Herbert D. Sixty of the local school.

Miss Jessie S. Smith of Bathurst, N. B., and a graduate of the Lowell General hospital in 1911, has returned to her home after nearly four years' overseas service.

It has been learned that the woman who found the $195 lost by a Massachusetts mill operative on Monday is Miss Margaret Dolan of 149 East Merrimack street, employed at the D. L. Fago Co. At the time the story was obtained by The Sun Monday afternoon, the finder's name could not be learned, but it is with pleasure that it may now be recorded.

Mrs. Bridget Coakley of 194 Suffolk street has received word that her son, Daniel Coakley, arrived in Boston yesterday from overseas. Priv. Coakley saw service with old Co. M on the Mexican border and went across with the 26th Division and was passed. After leaving the hospital he was transferred to the general headquarters train with which he saw duty, until his return. His brother, John Coakley, was discharged from the service about two months ago.

Eugene Beaulieu, a former resident of this city and a former officer of the C.M.A.C. who is now residing in Montreal, Que., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Thomas Beaulieu of Draught Centre. Mr. Beaulieu holds a responsible position in Montreal, that of clerk of the criminal court known as the king's bench, a position he was appointed to a couple of years ago by Sir Lomer Gouin. Prior to the appointment he was a professor at the Jesuit college in Montreal. Mr. Beaulieu paid a brief visit to Clerk Edward W. Trull of the police court this morning.

NEWS OF THE DAY

IN POLICE COURT

Selling a phonograph he had bought on the installment plan to an acquaintance before the machine was half paid for was the cause of George Katsides' appearance in police court today on a charge of larceny of $39 from Solomon Nicholas. He drew down a month in jail and appealed.

According to Solomon's story, he had bought the machine from George last January for $39, George having assured him that it was fully paid for and that he had a right to dispose of it as he saw fit. Shortly afterwards Solomon was visited by the P. D. Nelson Co. and informed that George had only paid $25 on the phonograph, which was valued at $51.

So Solomon agreed to pay the balance of $69 and keep the machine. In the meantime he looked around for George, but as the latter had left town he was unable to find any trace of him. He heard of George's return a short time ago, and decided that he would make an attempt to get his $39 back.

George didn't put up a very strong alibi. He stated that he was broke at the time, and he didn't want to steal any money so he decided to make the phonograph. He intended to make it all right with Solomon, he said, but had been very short of funds lately.

Morin Liquor Case

The continued case of Ovilla Morin, a local liquor dealer, charged with illegal keeping of liquor, was finally settled at today's session and Morin was ordered to pay a fine of $50. In making the decision Judge Fisher stated that he did not find Morin guilty of illegal keeping with intent to make illegal sales, and the liquor, said to be valued at $1000, were accordingly ordered returned to the defendant. The liquors were found in a barn on Moody street during the latter part of April by Lieut. Petrie and other members of the vice squad.

Other Offenders

Arthur Dumont was found guilty of assault and battery on Ovilla Morin, tailie and also on a drunkenness charge and paid a fine of $10.

Alice J. Downess, whose behavior has not been such as to meet with the approval of the police, was sentenced to the woman's reformatory at Sherborn. "I won't go," said Alice—but she went just the same.

SPEAK IN INTEREST

OF RECRUITING

Private Edward H. James of the regular U. S. army will speak in the interest of recruiting at four local theatres this evening. Keith's, the Merrimack square, the Strand and the Owl. Private James comes to Lowell from the adjutant general's office and has but recently returned from Germany where he was held a prisoner for more than 40 months. At the outbreak of the war Private James was living in Paris, a private citizen, where he was publishing and preaching on the topic of democracy. He continued his work in Berlin, but here his ideas were not in accord with those of the German government and he was put in prison.

WITH THE LEGISLATORS ON BEACON HILL

(Special to The Sun.)
STATE HOUSE, Boston, May 28.—After deliberating over the matter for four hours yesterday afternoon, the ways and means committee of the house decided to follow the line of least resistance, and reported the service bounty bill back to the house with a provision that the yeomen shall participate in the distribution of the state's bounty, and another provision that every man who was actually inducted into service, even though for only a day, shall receive the full $100 contemplated by the bill.

While the purpose of the committee was undoubtedly to avoid debate in the house, the result of its action will be quite the opposite, for members declare they will move to include the Cross nurses within the bounty, on the ground that they volunteered for service at the front, while the yeomen carefully kept away from the fighting lines. Still another amendment to be offered will include every farmer who raised food products for the boys, it being contended that they were fully as patriotic as those who were drafted three days before the armistice was signed.

Sunday Sports Bill
The question of permitting amateur sports Sunday afternoons again occupied the attention of the house for a long time yesterday. The long debate resulting in a second defeat for the measure, but by the narrow margin of 13 votes, the vote being 97 to 110. Several days ago the same measure was defeated 101 to 128, but when the adverse report accepted by the house went to the senate for concurrence, the upper branch substituted the bill, and it was for that reason it came before the house a second time today. Following today's defeat, the measure can be revived again only through reconsideration by the house.

Most of the speakers in yesterday's debate dwelt upon the alleged inconsistency of permitting autoing, the playing of golf and other similar diversions on the Lord's Day and at the same time barring the one great outdoor sport which appeals more than any other to the American people.

Anti-Anarchy Bill

The opposition to the so-called anti-anarchy bill carried its fight to the last ditch yesterday, when it made an effort to prevent the adoption of a resolution declaring the measure to be an emergency one, which should become law immediately. It was able, however, to muster only four votes in opposition, while 153 members recorded their belief that the operation of the law is urgently needed at once. This probably marks the end of the fight against the measure, and it should receive the approval of Governor Coolidge by the end of the present week.

Other Measures

By a vote of 47 to 32, the house ordered to a third reading a bill requiring the use of a reflector on every motor truck, and regulating the use of spotlights on all motor vehicles.

The senate, by a vote of 11 to 25, killed the bill extending to pupils of private schools the law which now requires the vaccination of pupils in public schools. During the debate it was charged that the bill is part of a scheme fostered by manufacturers of vaccine, to bring about general vaccination, and this argument, together with the assertion that the passage of the bill would compel senators to be vaccinated if they should seek to improve their education by attending a private school, led to the defeat of the bill.

Speaker Warner directed the attention of the house to the fact that on the corresponding day of last year's session only eight matters remained unreported from the committees, and as a result prorogation was reached on June 5. This year, he said, several hundred matters remain in the committees, but by proper attention to business he thought the legislature might complete its labors before the end of June.

FORTY ALLIED SOLDIERS KILLED, SAYS BERLIN

LONDON, May 28.—A building used as a barracks by the occupation troops at Ludwigshafen has been destroyed by fire. Forty soldiers perished and 100 were injured, according to a Central News despatch from Berlin via Copenhagen.

Ludwigshafen is in Rhenish Bavaria, on the Rhine, opposite Mannheim, 40 miles south of Mainz. The army of occupation is stationed much farther north with the central point at Coblenz.

The Luncheon That Proved a Success

"Mary," exclaimed Mrs. Gordon to her new maid, in dismay, "what in the world are we going to do! Mrs. Redfern has come for lunch. You might be sure she'd hit upon the very day we had planned on just a pick-up lunch. We might manage, but there isn't a thing we can have for dessert at this short notice."

"I can manage, Mrs. Gordon," replied Mary, confidently. "Just you leave it to me."

Luncheon time arrived, and Mary brought in a delicious, smooth mould of rich chocolate blanc mange. She had saved the day!

"How in the world did you do it?" said Mrs. Gordon. "Your dessert was delicious."

"Why," replied her maid, "I made it with Pudding."

"Pudding?" questioned Mrs. Gordon. "Do tell me about it."

"It's a dessert that always turns out right, and isn't a bit of trouble to make. All you have to do is to add milk, either fresh or condensed, and sugar, and boil for three minutes, and then when it is cool, you have a rich, creamy mould of dessert."

"Does it come in more than one flavor?" asked Mrs. Gordon.

"Oh, yes, indeed—chocolate, rose, vanilla, orange, lemon and in several flavors. And it only costs 15c for a box which will serve 15 people."

"Well," said Mrs. Gordon, "it certainly is delicious."

"I use it for cake and pie fillings, too," said Mary, "and it makes ice cream smooth and rich."

"Well," exclaimed Mrs. Gordon, emphatically, "there is one thing sure. In the future, we will never be without Pudding!"

sent America clad in the national colors, with here and there a young woman adorned in drapery representing the field of blue in the flag. "Yankee Doodle" the orchestra played, and the American maids were surely sweet to behold. Then America and France united in a group dance, and finally the entire personnel of the pageant appeared in the grand finale consisting of a series of intricate passages and interweavings which ended in the young women forming eight lines facing each other and in unison with the spectators singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

It was a fitting and enthusiastic climax and was generously appreciated by those present.

The pianist of the evening was Miss Mary Hunt and her excellent work aided greatly in the success of the evening. Credit must also be given Rev. Francis J. Mullin, who was actively interested in the pageant from its very inception and who aided those in charge last evening very materially.

Following the pageant, general dancing was enjoyed from 9:30 until well after midnight.

The young ladies who represented the various nations in the group dancing were the following:

Japan—Catherine Burns, Ruth Keenan, Mary Carney, Agnes Casey, Margaret Casey, Katherine Nerney, Marcelle Shea, Lillian Shea, Catherine Callery, Ethel Meyers, Helen McCann, Beatrice McDonald, Alice McPadden.

Holland—Loretta Ready, Agnes Sullivan, Della Cox, Josephine Murphy, Clare Farrar, Margaret Hart, Sadie McKenna, Gertrude Ready, Louise Eagan, Catherine Hackett, Mary McCarthy, Madeline Muldoon, Catherine Dowd.

Ireland—Mary Degan, Mary Riopelle, Elsie Ford, Catherine Cunningham, Gladys McKenney, Agnes Dugan, Loretta Farley, Madeline Nerney, Lena Shea, Mary McShea, Catherine McCann, Mary McNeerney, Annabel Neer.

Italy—Cecilia McGarry, Florence Kelley, Olive Kelley, Anna Callery, Martha Shaw, Catherine Lamb, Helen Quinn, Beatrice Quinn, Helen Bradley, Jessie Fralick, Rose McKelison.

England—Mary Grouke, Mary Nerney, Catherine Donnelly, Mary Walsh, Helen Canning, Lillian Canning, Ella Conley, Mabel Quinn, Mary Tarpey, Catherine Tarpey, Catherine McSorley, Mary Burns, Anna Eagan.

France—Marion Nevin, Mary Moran, Mary Heath, Mary Cunningham, Margaret Farrell, Helena Mawn, Theresa Dowling, Catherine McDonald, Helen McDonald, Mary Dowd, Agnes Farrell, Lillian Burns, Eva Lalagne.

America—Margaret Tobin, Marion Tobin, Mary E. Riley, Winnie Coleman, Winnie Hart, Alice Ganley, Dora Dubois, Alice Mawn, Alice Tweed, Nora Carroll, Rose Carroll, Alice Carney, Rose Heath, Bridget Kiernan, Winifred Fleming, Helen Sullivan, Agnes Mahoney.

The officers in charge of the affair were: General manager, Miss Margaret McChesney; assistants, Miss Sarah Smith and Miss Annie Duffy; floor director, Hugh Donnelly; assistant floor director, Miss Mary Reed; chief aid, Patrick Nevin; aids, William H. Gallia-gher, James Mullin, James Duddy, William Farling, Herbert Kenyon, James Rice, John Flannery, Joseph Riley and Frank Ready.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

THE STRAND

"Common Clay" is to run the entire week.

This announcement came yesterday after the management at The Strand got into communication with the owners of the picture and secured the services of this really remarkable picture story for the last three days of the week. This move was made as a result of the popular request made by hundreds who were unable to see this film offering during the first three days of the week. To those who have not had the pleasure of seeing "Common Clay" as yet, it might be well to know that this is the noted Harvard prize play of a few seasons back, which created such a stir in theatrical circles during its original run. The story of a girl who was looked upon as "common clay" but who, despite her many trials and tribulations, proved to be pure gold. The blunt, courageous manner in which the author treated a subject well known to the world, is one of the features of the production. And for all its bluntness, it is not in any way objectionable. Just the bold, barefaced unadorned picture form. You can't help liking it and the wonderful characterization given the principal character by Pauline Ward.

The remainder of the bill for today includes "Harry H. Morey in 'Heating the Odds' and a good comedy and Weekly.

Tom Mix in "The House of Scandal" will be shown for the first time starting tomorrow. It's one of those live-

PLAN TO FLOOD MARKET AGAINST THE BAY STATE

Immense Quantities of German Products in Warehouses at Chiasso

MILAN, Tuesday, May 27.—Immense quantities of German products are stored in warehouses at Chiasso, on the frontier between Italy and Switzerland, and it is supposed by Germany to renew immediately her commercial relations with Italy, according to Ulysse Bywater, of the chamber of commerce of the United States of America. "There are thousands of bicycles of German manufacture at Chiasso, ready to flood the market," Mr. Bywater told the Associated Press today. "There are also carloads of chemicals and dye-stuffs which have already been offered to Italian merchants at extremely low prices. The high rate of American exchange makes Italian trade with Americans most difficult, while the German mark is at its lowest ebb. This makes the price when translated into lire, most attractive. The dollar exchange costs the Italians three times as much as the mark exchange. Naturally, the prices of German goods in lire are very low. There is a sure American market here, but the monetary situation is very hard and will be solved only by another American loan or by the payment of a large war indemnity to Italy."

$28,618 Claim For Expenses Incurred in Sending Troops to Border Disallowed

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Decision of the war department auditor in disallowing a claim of $28,618 by Massachusetts for expenses incurred in the mobilization of the national guard for Mexican border service in 1916, has been affirmed by Comptroller of the Treasury Warwick. Captain Horace P. Parker, paymaster of the national guard, appealed from the auditor's decision when the state refused to credit him for his vouchers representing these expenses.

A PRISONER OF LOWELL

There is no greater prisoner than the man or lady who is chained to their chairs in their own home by rheumatism.

Don't remain a volunteer sufferer! Hundreds in Lowell have found freedom and have tried to show you the way. Mr. Pierre Messier, 94 Carolyn Street, Lowell, says:

"For six or seven years I suffered the tortures of rheumatism, and I don't believe there is anything worse. The pain seemed to begin at my hips and run down to my knees. My ankles were swollen and felt as though they were held in a vice. I was virtually a prisoner in my own home for I could hardly do anything at all. My hands felt numb and dead. My back ached and I had to get up three or four times a night on account of my kidneys. My head ached and there were times I was very dizzy.

"I felt that I would give anything in the world if I could walk with the same ease and freedom that other men did, but I couldn't do it. "One day a friend came to me and asked me to try Goldine. I laughed at him at first, but finally took his advice and today I am a free man. The lameness in my knees is gone, the swelling has left my ankles and I feel like a new man."

IT DID MORE THAN THAT

"It stopped my getting up nights and my headaches. I am eating better and feel stronger in every way."

"This may not seem important to those who haven't had rheumatism or kidney trouble, but I tell you it was worth a lot to me to get rid of it. I wish I could tell just how much better I feel so others would not hesitate to try that medicine. I am an elevator man at the Lawrence Mfg. Co. of Lowell, and if you will send people to me I will try to tell them about Goldine so they will understand what it will really do for rheumatism.

"Pierre Messier."

Mr. Messier had his picture taken and signed this statement that you will know what Goldine had done for a Lowell man. We can add nothing to such an evidence.

Remember it is GOLDINE that Lowell people are taking and praising and sending their friends after not a few, but by the hundreds.

You don't need to come down town for GOLDINE; go to your nearest drugstore for it, or call at Lowell Drug Co., 122 Merrimack Street, Red Cross Pharmacy, 461 Moody Street, or Frye & Crawford, 474 Merrimack Street.

The Goldine man is still at Carter & Sherburne's Drug Store in the Waiting Room and will be glad to talk with you about your health problems and—

Memorial Day

This year takes on a different meaning, for added to the list of those to whom we consecrate this day, are hundreds more who fought that the world might be safe for democracy. We are none the less grateful to those dear ones remaining since the civil strife—rather we feel a heartier respect, a more sincere gratitude since our experience has taught us what they suffered for right. Let us all join together in paying this day fitting tribute to those who are still among us as well as those, who for Liberty, have passed beyond.

ACCEPTS CALL AS ASSISTANT PASTOR

Rev. C. G. Zierk has accepted a call to become assistant pastor of the First Congregational church and will take up his duties early in September. Rev. Mr. Zierk is a graduate of a western college, and completes his course in the School of Theology of Boston university next month. He will give special attention to the religious education of the young people of the church.

The senior class of the Knightstown, Ind. high school, wishing to preserve the graduating exercises permanently, employed motion picture operators to film the event. The pictures will be reproduced shortly for the benefit of the high school.

"BOLSHEVISM PLAGUE WILL DIE," SAYS WIENER

BOSTON, May 28.—"Bolshevism is a plague, a pestilence, which is bound to die out, and only when this occurs will Germany be safely held in check," declared Prof. Leo Wiener of Harvard university last evening during a talk before the Harvard club of Boston.

In Prof. Wiener's opinion there is little difference between the highway robber and the men at the head of the Bolshevist government in Russia.

"The Bolshevists," he said, "have done nothing constructive for the peasants, but hold their place by main force. They are increasing all the time. They can secure any number of mercenaries. I have read all their literature, all their proclamations, but I have yet to find anything constructive which they have accomplished.

"These men," continued Prof. Wiener, "are often intellectually magnificent. But under them no stable government is possible, for those who are at the head of it would be carried off their feet by the first skirt they saw. The Bolshevist leaders are now imitating the Turks with their har-ems."

"The people of Russia lack the quality of steadfastness. They are weak morally, though brilliant intellectually. Under the old government there one could live only by bribes—now only by more bribes.

"Russians have no notion of business or of doing anything in a business-like manner. They have no sense of obligation or of responsibility. They do not keep their word, not because they deliberately wish not to keep it, but because it is so much easier to break it."

Prof. Wiener deplored the worship of the Bolshevists by so many "parlor socialists" in this country. He insisted that there are far more Bolshevist sympathizers in this country than is commonly supposed, most of whom, in his opinion, have no real conception of what Bolshevism means and what a curse it is.

"The Bolshevists," he declared, "represent organized burglary. But there will come a time when there is nothing more to divide. They say that no one has a right to live who does not work—they talk instead. Bolshevism is bound to die out, as any pestilence does, and a new government will come in.

"Never listen to the voice of Bolshevism. Understand that it is not a political party, but a mere abstract philosophy, based upon the inability of the men at its head to put anything constructive into execution. Bolshevism is full of beautiful intentions. Acts are needed, but we get no constructive ones from the Bolshevists. Any one can write proclamations.

"The salvation of Russia is bound to come," declared Prof. Wiener in conclusion, "and I hope that it is only a short time before she is regenerated, for then, and then only, will Germany be definitely held in check."

GETTING WHAT THE PRICE DEMANDS

Every year we spend a large proportion of money earned and largely the proportion has been increasing by leaps and bounds. This money spent may include purchases for clothing, shoes, food, furniture, garden seeds, seasonable wants—any number of things in short.

Money comes so hard and goes so quickly that these two things should be well considered. Know beforehand what you want to buy. Decide what you can afford to buy. Decide what you ought to pay for it. Form an opinion before the shops are visited.

What aids all this? Nothing better than newspaper advertising. Newspaper advertising saves time, trouble and annoyance for the reader who is to buy. Newspaper ads furnish the means of comparing prices and quality.

Just one more thing. No one has time to read newspapers in the morning in an industrial city. The time to read papers is in the evening, say one workers. That is why the evening paper is the paper par excellence for the advertiser. In this city that means

SENATORIAL PERVERSITY

The irate senators who are wasting valuable time at Washington in an effort to promote the interests of the republican party, may well heed the demonstration of discontent that took place in London on Monday afternoon, when soldiers and sailors armed with missiles of various kinds, marched upon the house of parliament and were restrained only by a large body of police. The great crowd then directed its steps towards Buckingham palace and again was stopped in its progress only by military force. Is such a thing possible in this country? Yea, even probable if the senators much longer indulge in this empty talk.

The men who are conducting a campaign against the League of Nations for political capital are in dangerous business. They do not seem to realize the temper of the people at the present hour. They will find that the soldiers and sailors alone will be sufficient to force a ratification of the League of Nations, whether the republican senators like it or not.

Senator Lodge in his debate with President Lowell on the League of Nations, made the statement that if the people wanted the League of Nations they would certainly get it. It appears, however, that certain senators, chiefly republicans, with one or two democrats like Reed, are, for some reason or other, determined to obstruct and oppose every step towards ratification of the league. With the republicans, the movement seems to be political. Originally, those who suggested amendments allowed that the covenant would be acceptable if so amended. The amendments offered by Senator Knox and former Senator Root have practically been adopted, and yet the howl against the League of Nations is as boisterous as ever.

Certain senators have expressed indignation that the treaty of which the covenant is a part has not been submitted to them. Senator Lodge and others who are prominent in the debate know full well that the treaty is not completed, inasmuch as up to the last minute, before its being signed by the German delegation, it will be subject to change. In a similar case, Mr. Lodge made this statement in the senate:

"We have no possible right to break suddenly into the middle of a negotiation and demand from the president what instructions he has given to his representative. That part of the treaty making is no concern of ours."

In the present situation, the senate has no right to demand a copy of the tentative treaty, even if it be in Washington. Yet, the fact that the treaty is not before the senate seems to be one of the main causes of the outbreak in the senate on Monday.

It is now apparent that President Wilson understood what would happen if the republicans should secure control of congress while the treaty of peace was being considered. He knew that he could not rely upon congress for any loyal support with republicans in control. His appeal for a democratic congress was unusual, but in the light of recent events, it appears that the president foresaw just what is happening now at Washington.

The obstruction offered by certain senators is paralleled only by that which was offered against the Union in the troublous days of secession. The republican senators at the present time are fighting against a movement to prevent war, to overthrow militarism and to preserve peace and harmony among the nations of the earth. Furthermore, they are doing so in the name of liberty. Secession was advocated similarly in the name of "Liberty and Independence." It seems that if the obstruction to the League of Nations goes much further, it may be necessary to seek the verdict of the people. We surmise that even the soldiers and sailors would be practically a unit in supporting the league covenant, and as for the laboring masses, they can be relied upon to vote against a continuance of the old state of affairs in which the United States would be liable at any time to be drawn into a devastating war. The republican threats and predictions of the evils that would result from the ratification of the League of Nations are not more serious than those that were hurled at the present constitution of the United States when patriotic men sought its adoption. Now as then, however, we believe the patriotism of the country can be relied upon to overcome those who, in the name of liberty, would give militarism a new lease of life and subject this nation to dangers similar to those that embroiled us in the world war just concluded.

TRANSATLANTIC FLIGHT

The NC-4 is the first airplane to cross the Atlantic and Capt. Read wins the honor of being the first aviator to accomplish that wonderful feat. It is true that the task was made less dangerous by the manner in which the navy department arranged its warships 50 miles apart along the route, first from Newfoundland to the Azores and then similarly on the second leg of the voyage to Lisbon. Nevertheless, the achievement is one that will mark the beginning of a new era in aviation. The next event to be looked for will be a non-stop flight across the Atlantic. This, too, will doubtless be made in the near future. British aviators are ambitious to win in this contest and although Hawker and Grieve made a gallant attempt and failed, their effort proved that under more favorable conditions and with a better machine, it is entirely practicable to cross the Atlantic in one continuous flight.

So many strange things are done nowadays that the people have ceased to wonder at achievements that in other days would be regarded as miraculous.

The socialist paper, Appeal to Reason, now comes out and solemnly nominates Eugene V. Debs for president, and must do so knowing that Gene is incarcerated for quite some time in the federal prison at Moundsville, W. Va. That poor old Appeal to Reason must be having a hard time with its printers and they are getting the joke stuff set in over where the news would ordinarily be found.

They must be going and coming awfully in that dear old New York. A while back it was reported wholesale evictions were in order, but the latest news is to the effect that New York now has 21,000 vacant tenements—"undesirable tenements," the report adds. Undesirable from the New York point of view or undesirable from the average person's point of view?

Lawrence for the second time has had to battle with agitators who tried to make it the centre of a social revolution. The second attempt was less successful than the first. Should a third be made in the future, the leaders should be run out of town on a rail "a la vigilante."

The British say India may be given home rule by "degrees." The Irish, of course, wonder if they are not as worthy by virtue of their civilization and loyalty, to have home rule too, as are the Hindus.

Is Boston the effete and esthetic city she is reputed to be? We read an account of the big circus which is exhibiting there this week, and in describing the parade the Boston newspaper became real personal about the hippopotamus and alluded to it as a "blood sweating beast." Why not have been as refined as Boston usually thinks she is and said "the hippo perspired blood!"

One of the curiosities of the family of nations it took the war and its aftermath to uncover, is the state of Liechtenstein, third smallest state in Europe. Liechtenstein's peace delegate has just started for the peace conference as a belated representative and says he hopes the peace conference can help the troubles of his country which he affirms has been in a state of war with Germany for 53 years.

The Germans called themselves supermen. That is, they did for a time. Judging from the peace terms given them, they are now very much in the soup. But for erstwhile supermen, they show a lamentable lack of knowledge of how to swim out.

The demonstration by the soldiers and sailors in London, and their menacing attitude to the law-making authorities, bears an important suggestion to the political bushwhackers at Washington.

The Salices being perforce occurred. If the woman suffrage question were settled, what would the militant feminist take up as a medium for keeping her in the limelight? Possibly the cruelty of holding men in prison for offences less grave than uxoricide.

Paragraphers the world over will welcome the possibilities involved in the name of Sidney Pickles, the latest announced contestant for transatlantic flight honors. Let us hope this aerial pickle will not fall into the brine!

What may be the most unpleasant journey ever undertaken by mortal man may be that of the ex-kaiser on the way from Holland to Geneva, passing through France, on his way to be tried for wholesale murder.

Greeks who landed at Smyrna had to kill off a few hundred Turks who had radical notions about self-determination. This is the "only kind of persuasion that appeals to the followers of Mahomet.

Investigations by this congress will be for two purposes: to find proof of blunders or worse, and to find campaign thunder for use in 1920.

We wept with Italy over her lost children, but she must give us a little time to understand the righteousness of her claim to Greek and Slav children.

It is well to remember that anything a Hun statesman says about the peace terms is said for home consumption, and has nothing to do with the affixing of signatures.

The league constitution could have been more immediately useful if it had provided for the compulsory arbitration of quarrels between capital and labor.

Poland gets only one-eighth of the Hun's territory, but the arrangement occasions about nine-tenths of his howling.

The value of the Hun's signature to the peace treaty depends wholly upon the size of the force kept on the job by the allies.

Heinie practiced 40 years for his dance. It is only fair that he should devote the next 40 to paying the fiddler.

Doubtless you have noticed that "liberty-loving" nations manage to stifle their yearning to liberate their own subjects.

The allies have definitely decided to keep food supplies out of Russia and let Lenin work out his own damnation.

The boys in northern Russia would swap any amount of glory for a view of Archangel from the rear end of an out-bound steamer.

Any community where everybody is related to everybody else and quarreling about it affords a miniature of the European problem.

No doubt you have noticed that the man who talks much about his rights does very little talking about his duty.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT WALK

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her to Health.

Perth Amboy, N.J.—"For three years I suffered with a severe female trouble, was nervous, had backache and a pain in my side most of the time. I had dizzy spells and was often so faint I could not walk across the floor. The doctor said I would have to have an operation. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in my newspaper, and tried it. Now I am better, feel strong have no pains, backache or dizzy spells. Every one tells me how well I look, and I tell them to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—that is what makes me feel well and look well. I recommended it to my sister and she is using it now. You can use this letter if you wish, for it is certainly a grand remedy for a woman's ills."—Mrs. MARTHA STANISLAWSKI, 524 Penn St., Perth Amboy, N.J.

For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been overcoming such serious conditions as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, dizziness, and nervous prostration of women, and is now considered the standard remedy for such ailments.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

Something connected with the water supply is generally of interest to the citizens of a city and when the municipal chemist and sanitary engineer, Clifton Rice told me the other day that the hygienic purity of Lowell water was 98.5 and the hygienic purity of Boston water was only about 70, it seemed a rather surprising fact. Most people think of the water supply of greater Boston coming as it does from the Metropolitan basin at Clinton, as being the purest water in the state. But according to Mr. Rice, it does not so work out. Of course in this city there has often been severe criticism of the cost of maintaining a filtration plant but, lacking any other supply of water for the present except our useful Merrimack river, apparently nothing remains to purify our water except the filtration process. At that we may not be in a position to criticize the filtration process to any great degree for Mr. Rice says that the demands on Clinton reservoir are becoming so great that it is only a matter of a short time when a costly and elaborate filtration plant for Clinton water will have to be installed. This of course will make the cost of water for Greater Boston people higher.

There is no doubt but that this trolley sprinkler system is one of the best things we have ever had in Lowell and when you see one sprinkler trolley passing through Merrimack square right behind one that has already gone along—both of 'em industriously sprinkling the street, one gets the idea that it must be true that two trolley sprinklers are twice as efficient as one, even if they do work procession style. But I have a suggestion to offer in regard to street sprinkling that may be worthy of the street commissioner's notice. When these cars throw their cleansing sprays of water along the street, there is usually a considerable stream of water courses along the space close to the sidewalk curbing. It would be my idea to have a sweeper follow the sprinklers on smooth paved streets to wash the gutters. That is especially necessary where a large number of men stand on the sidewalks as on Merrimack square.

One of the local theatre managers is of the opinion that the moving picture theatres not only in Lowell but all over the country will soon have to get away from the "double feature program" idea that has been the vogue for the past several years and instead the movie houses will follow the New York trend and concentrate on one big motion picture at each performance.

The manager in question tells me it is only a matter of time when this will come to pass because the producers are confining their energies to getting out better and fewer productions monthly. For some time past everything has been keyed at top speed with the aim in mind of getting quantity. Very often the quality of the productions has suffered. One doesn't expect two or three performances when he goes to a legitimate theatre to enjoy a stage play and the movie men are coming around to the idea that the silent drama is fast assuming all the earmarks and idiosyncracies of the legitimate.

and the hen took the count for 10. The autoist went back to the farmer and said, "How much do you want for the hen?" "Five dollars," replied the indignant farmer. The Lowell man balked at this price and said he'd be blown if he'd pay it. "There's my number," he said to the farmer. "Take it and do what you want to about it," and he drove off. A few yards down the road he met a friend autoist from Lowell and related the story of the hen that was, warning him to dodge poultry in the road. "I'll fix that for you," said the friend and he drove up to the road after telling the autoist to wait a few moments for him. Presently he drove back and presented the dead hen to the waiting Lowellite. Then he told of his interview with Friend Farmer. He had gone up to him and asked him for how much he could buy a hen. "Seventy-five cents," said the farmer. "And here's one a blamed automobile just killed. You can take that one." He took it.

SEEN AND HEARD

It's a pleasure to do work which produces instantaneous results—cutting lawns, for instance.

If you don't happen to know—that is a five-bar Liberty loan flag stretched across the square.

We happened in Lawrence last evening and immediately noticed something strange and unusual about the city. What in the world can be the matter here—we soliloquized. The streets are filled with people and automobiles are thicker than flies in haying time. But there's a something familiar missing. What is that something we miss? And thus we were musing when a newsy hollered "all about the carmen's strike," and then we knew that the thing we missed was the street car. Nary a one was running.

Listen, young fellow. If you're thinking of filing those marriage intentions, don't be afraid of the young women in the city clerk's office. It's all in the day's work for them, and they're quite accustomed to meeting young fellows who feel just as foolish about it as you feel. Funny, isn't it? A guy would fight his weight in wildcats any day if anybody said anything about his girl, but when it comes to going to the city clerk's office and declaring himself to a young damsel, when you might say, it's none of her business, he'd rather take a licking. But, we repeat, those young women are really busy young women and while your declaration, to you, is a matter of the most delicate consideration and surcharged with significance, to them it is no more than the order for Sunday's dinner which the grocer jets down in his little book. So, cheer up, young fellow, and bear in mind it was Congressman Mann who introduced the woman's vote amendment.

Mary's Little Lamb

To Miss Bertha Brown: We know very little about farm life. However, if you are going "down on the farm," we would respectfully call your attention to the following lines: "Mary had a little lamb, With her it would frolic. One day it kissed her on the cheek, and died of painter's colic."—From the Arkansas Thomas Cat.

By O. B. Joyful

Where do they get that stuff about English having no sense of humor? Sir John Foster Fraser, who spent a year of the war in the United States, says when he was in an Indiana town, on his speechmaking tour, a little boy slid up to the chairman of the meeting and asked:

"Who is this that's going to talk?" "Oh," said the chairman, "he's an English knight."

The chairman explained that a man knelt before a king, the king put his sword on his shoulder, and so the man became a knight.

"Gee," said the boy, "that's nothing. There was an Indian chief put a hat-tie on my grandfather's head and made him an angel."

The Tennis Fiberts

All the zoos are changing the monkeys to the outdoor summer cages. So the tennis season is formally opened. Tennis the jazz of sports. To begin with, you have to be halmly to take it up, and faster than a cricket's stutler to play it. Same principle as playing a xylophone. If it were given serious thought, barefoot dancing might be traced back to tennis. When the sun works the pop valve on the thermometer, and all other sports hop to the waves, you'll find a flock of tennis cuckoos hopping all over the broiling sun stants on a clay gridiron. What makes 'em get that way? It's a long wait with the squirts for the autumn nut harvest, but they content themselves during the hake months watching the tennis fiberts!

Little Miss Morning Comes with a warning. Comes like a huckle call! "O, the moon is dead. Since you went to bed And the sky is about to fall! The star-headed angels Have melted like wax. And there's nothing to hold it at all!"

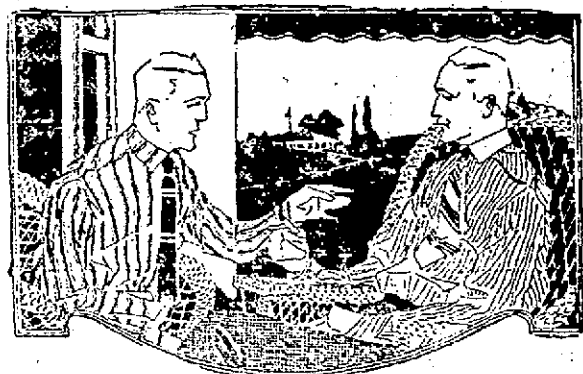

Little Miss Morning Comes with a warning. Comes like a huckle call!

In terror and dread I leap out of bed. But the day is as bright as June. And held overhead By the sun's golden thread Is the sky, as of turquoise hewn. "Now where is that wight? I frightened him out of tune!" But little Miss Morning, Smilingly scoring, Flits over the face of Noon.

JOBS FOR SAILORS AND SOLDIERS

WASHINGTON, May. — Doubling their re-employment forces throughout this country, leaders of the National Catholic War council today began an intensive drive for jobs for soldiers, sailors and marines, that is to be continued in full force until an opening has been found for every fighter from France. As director-general for the United States, P. J. Hanley, an employment expert from Portland, Ore., has just been appointed to command the two hundred field agents who will within a week be covering the country to put into most effective action every agency in every one of the eleven thousand Catholic parishes in the United States.

Radiating from sixty divisional headquarters, located in every large city on the continent, the redoubled efforts of the National Catholic War council are already yielding results showing six hundred service men placed each day, according to reports recently turned in by the twenty thousand men and women who are enlisted in this re-employment service. From headquarters in this city, scores of expert agents are now being hurried to every industrial centre in the nation.

to speed this record job hunt, until it opens a thousand places a day to idle men in uniform.

State directors, to push every effort to land work for discharged soldiers and sailors throughout their territory are being established in headquarters all over the country. William J. Carey, whose employment accomplishments for returned soldiers at Rochester have been marked, has been made the director for New York state, and Peter J. Rigney, an expert from the U. S. employment service, has been placed in charge of an unusually active campaign that will be pushed by the National Catholic War council about the port of New York.

HIT BY AUTOMOBILE

Sophia Polaski, aged 4 years and residing at 25 Chestnut street, was struck and knocked down by an automobile truck of the Lowell Electric Light Corp. in Fayette street yesterday afternoon and received a compound fracture of the left leg. The little girl was taken to St. John's hospital by the driver of the truck, Joseph Watts, of 249 Princeton street.

The New High School Commission Elected This Morning

DR. JOSEPH LAMOUREUX

TIMOTHY F. O'SULLIVAN

ARTHUR T. SAFFORD

JOHN J. MULLANEY

DR. JOHN H. LAMBERT

COM. GEORGE E. MARCHAND

Lamoureux is a successful practicing physician. Timothy F. O'Sullivan is president of the Broadway Social and Athletic club and prominently identified with the shoe business. Arthur T. Safford is chief engineer of the locks and canals. John J. Mullane is a well known plumber. Dr. John H. Lambert is a practicing physician, a veteran of the world war and a former chairman of the school committee.

How They Were Chosen

Mayor Perry D. Thompson called the joint meeting of the council and school committee to order in the auditorium chamber at 10:15. All members of both branches were present. The mayor said that in accordance with chapter 175 of the special acts of 1919 of the state legislature it was the duty of the two bodies to elect a commission to build a new high school in joint session. The first business, he said, was the election of a chairman for the session. Richard Brubrook Walsh, chairman of the school committee, moved that the mayor be chosen the chairman. Commissioner James B. Donnelly seconded the motion and the mayor was unanimously chosen.

Stephen Flynn, city clerk, was then unanimously chosen clerk for the meeting on motion of Commissioner Marchand, seconded by Commissioner Morse.

Mr. Walsh then moved that the meeting proceed to the election of a high school commission in accordance with the terms of the legislative act. The motion was carried unanimously.

In instructing the city clerk to put the motion Mayor Thompson used the term "ballot" instead of "vote," and the clerk used that term when formally putting the motion. Exception was taken to the term and the motion once more put with the word "vote" substituted for "ballot."

In all, 13 votes were taken. The results of each were as follows:

First vote: School Committee: Crowley, Joseph H. Guillet; Commissioner Donnelly, School Committee: Keyes, Commissioner Marchand; Commissioner Morse, Commissioner Murphy. School Committee: Pearson, School Committee: Thompson, Mayor Thompson and School Committee: Walsh, all for Dr. Joseph B. Lamoureux. Mr. Guillet received one vote and Dr. Lamoureux nine. The latter was declared elected.

Second vote: Mr. Crowley, Timothy

F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Donnelly, James O'Sullivan; Mr. Keyes, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Marchand, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Morse, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Murphy, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Pearson, Arthur E. Safford; Dr. Thompson, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mayor Thompson, James O'Sullivan; Mr. Walsh, Arthur T. Safford. Timothy O'Sullivan received five votes, Arthur T. Safford three, and James O'Sullivan two. No choice.

Third vote: Mr. Crowley, John J. Mullane; Mr. Donnelly, Timothy O'Sullivan; Mr. Keyes, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Marchand, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Morse, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Murphy, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Pearson, Arthur T. Safford; Dr. Thompson, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mayor Thompson, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Walsh, Arthur T. Safford. Timothy F. O'Sullivan received four votes, Arthur T. Safford four, John J. Mullane one, and William H. Wilson one. No choice.

Fourth vote: Mr. Crowley, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Donnelly, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Keyes, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Marchand, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Morse, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Murphy, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Pearson, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Dr. Thompson, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mayor Thompson, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Walsh, Arthur T. Safford. Timothy F. O'Sullivan received eight votes and was declared elected.

Fifth vote: Mr. Crowley, John J. Mullane; Mr. Donnelly, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Keyes, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Marchand, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Morse, John J. Mullane; Mr. Murphy, John J. BIG PLANES PLAN RACE
ACROSS THE ATLANTIC

ST. JOHN'S N. F., May 28.—Vice Admiral Mark Kerr, with his big Handley-Page plane, and Capt. John A. Alcock, with his Vinny bomber, expect to get away on their transatlantic flights from the same field at Harbor Grace at the same time. It was announced here last night. Both aircraft, respectively the largest and second largest now making ready for the "big hop," will have their first trial flights about June 1.

Work of assembling the two planes has progressed rapidly. The Handley-Page, erected in the open at Harbor Grace, is ready for installation of its four engines, with its great 126-foot wings already "sprouting."

Capt. Alcock himself is ripping open packing cases in the high-speed uncrating and assembling of his Vinny bomber. He said yesterday that he would fly "light" to Harbor Grace after his craft is assembled.

The Vinny plane has five 140-gallon tanks in its body, with another barrel forming its nose. The top center section is also a fuel receptacle and an additional 70-gallon tank designed to be emptied first in fuel consumption when the motors are started is fitted for quick release and subsequent use as a life raft.

First To Cross Sea in Air
Continued

Associated Press.)—The Atlantic ocean has been crossed in an aerial passage, the American navy winning the honor. The American seaplane, NC-4, accomplished the feat by winning its way to Lisbon yesterday from the Azores, where it had already flown from the shores of Newfoundland.

The arrival of the NC-4 at Lisbon marks the completion of the first transatlantic air flight in history, with the coveted honors won by an aircraft built and manned by Americans.

Commander Wortman at Ponta Delgada has received a radio message relayed from the plane, saying:

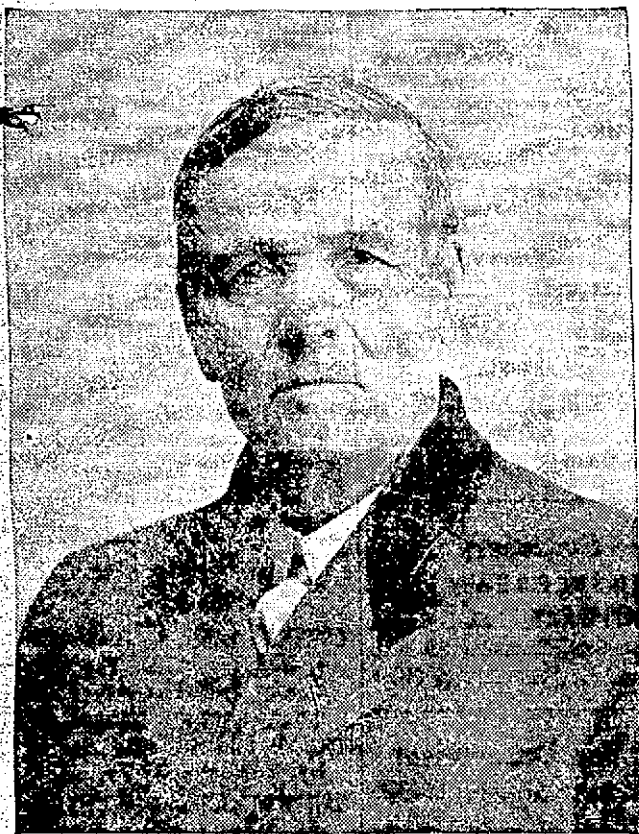

"We are safely on the other side of the pond."

Great Crowds Welcome Crew

Later messages reported the crew all well, and gave brief details of the arrival in Portugal. The engines worked splendidly, and apparently

OF RHEUMATISM OF JOINTS

Back on Job in Two Weeks After Taking New Remedy—Weldona

"You can say for me that this Weldona is truly a Wonder Worker for Rheumatism," said James Duane of 21 Florence street, Lawrence, Mass.

"I have suffered all the agonies of rheumatism a man can endure, and I guess I know what rheumatism is for I have had it for eight years. My shoulders, hips and knees were stiff and sore, the pain was terrible, unable to get my hand to my head, and at times I was unable to use my hands in any way."

"When I started to take Weldona I was in pretty bad shape, unable to work, and just able to stand up under the terrible torture. In two weeks after taking Weldona, which was recommended to me, I was back on the job at the Pacific mill and am gaining every day. My friends are surprised how quickly this medicine helped me for I can now use my hands in any way, the pain in my shoulder and arm has gone and I feel like a new man."

"I think this is wonderful after taking so much medicine from doctors as well as remedies recommended, and Weldona helped me from the first dose."

Weldona is daily helping hundreds of Lowell people who know what relief from rheumatism means. Are you letting Weldona help you? Why continue to suffer needlessly when Weldona is ready to help you the very first day you start to take it?

Weldona is a compound of herbs, roots and medicinal ingredients which does not harm the heart, the stomach or any other organ, but it certainly knocks rheumatism from the system, and puts life and vigor in the joints and muscles.

The Weldona man will continue to meet the public at Dows, the Druggist's, Merrimack St., every day to explain more about this preparation and to give out the free booklets, "Germs of Rheumatism—How They Live—How They Die."—Adv.

there was no untoward incident of any kind.

The NC-4 was greeted by the cheers of great crowds on the waterfront, the shrieking of whistles and the ringing of bells. The plane covered the distance at a speed of more than 80 miles an hour.

As soon as the news was received here, Admiral Jackson ordered all the warcraft in the harbor to blow their whistles and sirens. This was kept up for five minutes, the sailors and officers, meanwhile, cheering the great American triumph.

Crossed Ocean in 26 Hours

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The American naval seaplane NC-4 arrived at Lisbon, Portugal, at 4:01 p.m. Washington time, completing the first transatlantic flight. The ship made the distance from Ponta Delgada to Lisbon in nine hours and 44 minutes, making her actual flying time in crossing the Atlantic from Newfoundland, 26 hours and 41 minutes.

LISBON WELCOMES
NAVAL SEAPLANE

LISBON, May 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—The achievement of the first transatlantic air flight with Lisbon as the first European stopping place has aroused the enthusiasm of Portuguese as no event has stirred them for many years. When the American seaplane NC-4 came over the Tagus river last evening, the populace, crowding all places of vantage, gave full expression to their enthusiasm by cheers of welcome, the booming of guns and the ringing of bells. For days the people of Lisbon had been awaiting the completion of this momentous voyage over the Atlantic, and though disappointed from day to day because of the inability of Commander Read's craft to continue its flight from the Azores because of unfavorable weather conditions, yet each day they looked hopefully towards the west, for the coming of the Americans. Now they are able to say that they never doubted that the NC-4 would wing its way safely across the intervening 800 miles of water.

Early in the day word was flashed that the NC-4 had started, and at intervals there were bulletins of the progress made. The whole city was on feet, and during the latter hours of the day virtually all business was abandoned by those who crowded everywhere to witness the arrival.

Guided by skillful hands the American plane, which had covered the distance between the protecting destroyers along the route with clock-like regularity, swept in over Lisbon and settled down gracefully near the cruiser Rochester.

It was not forgotten by many of those who witnessed the triumph of the American commander that another man, equally stout hearted, the Australian Hawker, was being welcomed in England on his return from a wonderful transatlantic flight, more spectacular but not so successful in its ending, and there was praise for both.

MRS. REED VERY
HAPPY OVER NEWS

WASHINGTON, May 28.—That is perfectly grand; I expected him to succeed, but how happy it makes me to feel that he has landed safely. These were the joyful words of Mrs. Ross Burdine Read, wife of Lieut. Commander Albert C. Read, commander of the NC-4, when told yesterday that her husband had successfully crossed the Atlantic.

Making success out of an apparent failure is a characteristic of her husband, says Mrs. Read. She and her 6-months-old son Albert are making their home in Washington with Mrs. Albert S. Barker, widow of Rear Admiral Barker, who was an uncle of Commander Read.

"Mr. Read's letters from Chatham, Mass., after he had been forced to descend on the first leg of the flight, breathed no word of discouragement," Mrs. Read said. "They were all eagerness to be up and going with the two other planes. I knew he would succeed if determination could carry him through. I had letters from Chatham, Halifax and Trepasser, and all of them expressed confidence in his success."

"Of course I was uneasy during the night he spent on the water off Chatham. I could not understand then why the ships didn't go right out and pick him up. I talked with an officer at the navy department next morning and expressed that view to him. He told me that the Atlantic Ocean was a mighty big place.

"Then it was I felt for the first that there must be great danger to him before the flight was finished. Mr. Read had told me, though, of the minute preparations for safeguarding the whole route, and I felt that no harm could come to him."

"When did you first learn of his safe arrival at the Azores?" Mrs. Read was asked.

"O, that was wonderful," was the reply. "They phoned me from the navy department late at night that they had started. Then about midnight they told me he had passed a station ship far out at sea. I retired then and slept with one ear open, expecting to hear some more at any time. At 8 o'clock Saturday morning I called the department and they told me they were having trouble keeping direct communication with the fliers. Then I had visions of sitting by the telephone for a long time waiting for some definite news."

"It was only a little while then before they called me again and told me he was in sight of Horta. It was a great relief and I can't begin to tell you what joy it was to me. They had told me shortly before that the planes had got separated from each other and that was not the most encouraging news at all. So, naturally, I was surprised at learning so quickly that he had landed safely at Horta."

LOWELL'S WATER SUPPLY

Quality of Water Here Second to None—More New Wells at Boulevard

Is the water supply of Lowell hygienically pure at the present time? "97.3 so," answers the municipal chemist and sanitary engineer, Clifton Rice.

So now we know where we stand. "Our water supply here in Lowell," says Engineer Rice, "may be said to be second to none. The city of Springfield is credited with having the purest and best water in the state. She gets her water supply from a sheet of water whose watershed is uninhabited, in the Berkshire mountains. It cost her several million dollars to perfect her water supply but even on top of this she filters her water. Although Springfield is thus credited with having the best water in the state, I claim that Lowell water does not need to be second to Springfield water. Ours is as good water as here."

A story on the Lowell water supply may be said to be rather timely now as the time approaches at which, in every other year for a number of years past, it has always been the habit of Lowell citizens to draw long faces, complain of the city's summer water and to go about audibly wondering if the water supply will be such as to make business good for the undertakers.

What Mr. Rice says therefore, may be of a reassuring nature. Lowell does not drink Merrimack river water very indirectly. Persons going to the pumping station on the boulevard or passing it on trains the other side of the river, generally think of the pumping station as pumping the water for municipal use directly from the river itself. This is not so. The Lowell water supply is pumped out by this plant from 525 wells.

It is an undeniable fact that the water supply of these wells is the water which seeps through the earth from them from the river but this of itself is nature's manner of filtering water and of course the water as taken out of the wells is much purer and colder than river water. Counting the natural filtration process, the water we turn into the bath tub or to the teakettle, had undergone two other filtration processes besides being aerated. One filtration process through sand and one is through ke.

This filtration business is not so much to remove organic matter as it is to remove two mineral elements, iron and manganese. The water that is pumped out of the wells has hardly any organic matter in it but it is full of mineral matter to which the filtration plant owes its existence and the sanitary engineer his job.

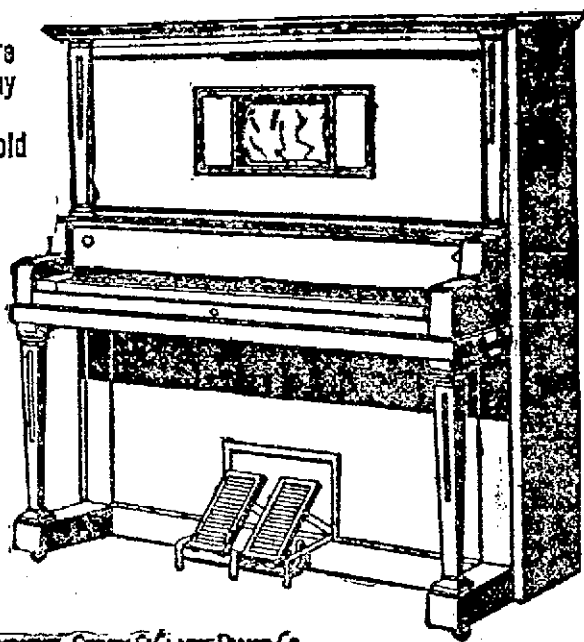

Analyses Are Analyzed
Suspicious citizens often ask what good there is against the city receiving impure water. There are two. Every month four samples of water are sent to the chemist of the state board of health. One is a tube of water taken direct from the river. The second is taken direct from the wells. The third is of sand filtered water and the fourth of coke filtered water. Of course Mr. Rice is required to make frequent tests of the water and has a chance to compare his analyses with those furnished him by the state board of health.

The state board of health makes that might be termed a therapeutic test of the water, i. e., test for disease germs, only once a year. In answer to the observation made by The Sun man that if this were known it might cause some concern in the community, Mr. Rice answered by saying that the water left the filtration plant in such a pure state as to certify beyond doubt that it positively did not contain any disease germs. One safeguard for the water is, that it does not get to the air but once between the time it is pumped into the filtration plant and when it comes out of the faucet in the home. This is when it is aerated in the plant's famous "water gardens" as they are called—the high walled compartments surrounding the plant of which there are 12, each one of which is studded with beautiful quid sprays of water which flare out like a flower.

over the fact that the staff of chemists at the filtration plant does not get time to make the extreme test of the water hunting for disease germs. Mr. Rice says that the present scale of its purity, 97.3, is so high as to preclude possibility of disease germs being in the water and farther, as a matter of fact, in all the time since he has been filtration chief, coming here in 1913, there has never been any disease epidemic traced to bad water and no disease germs found in the water.

As compared with Boston water, the story is one to please Lowell people very much. With Lowell's water purity registered at 97.3, Mr. Rice says Boston's water registers a purity of only 70. Boston and all the metropolitan district in fact, has a water which comes from the big artificial reservoir at Clinton, Lake Wachusett. This water, according to Mr. Rice, is inferior to Lowell water in point of palatability, turpidity, color and temperature. To be sure, Boston water is not dangerous and may be said to be hygienically pure but it lacks the little fancy frills of well flavored water, such as taste, color, turbidity and bouquet, that make for a liquid that the true white ribbon will smack his lips over.

Extending Well Field

Mr. Rice has campaigned for a long time for the well field at the filtration plant to be extended. Last year the Merrill property near the plant, 10 acres, and a large supply of pipework purchased by the city. The department could go no farther as money and labor were lacking. This year Mr.

Rice says Commissioner Morse has evinced a very great interest in the filtration part of the water system and already 25 new wells have been driven and 60 wells replaced. Twenty-five more wells will be driven before the season is over and then the total number of additional new wells will be 110, making a grand total of about 600 wells.

Of the wells already driven and replaced this season the additional supply of water made available now amounts to a million and a half gallons per day. When Mr. Rice came to the plant in 1913 the demand on the pumping and filtration plants was 5,800,000 gallons per day and now the demand has grown so that it is over 6,500,000 gallons per day. If it were a supply of 7,500,000 gallons is now available and with the addition of new wells Commissioner Morse hopes to be able to increase this amount to 10,000,000 gallons. In connection with this, Mr. Rice points out to persons who would be inclined to object to the recent increase in the water rate of 10 per cent, that in the last four years the cost of labor alone at the filtration plant where the average number of workers employed nine months of the year is 12, has increased more than 100 per cent.

BRAVES BLANKED AGAIN

Cubs Hit Hard Behind Fine Pitching of Hendrix—Score, 5 to 0

CHICAGO, May 28.—Chicago batted hard yesterday and defeated Boston, 5 to 0. Hendrix completely baffled the Boston batters, holding them to six scattered hits. Leslie Mann was put out of the game in the 8th inning by a double play. The Boston club announced the sale of Outfielder Al Wickland to St. Paul and Outfielder Joe Kelly to Toledo, both of the American Association. The score:

Batteries: Hendrix and Daly; Flinglin, Keating, Demaree and Truesdell.

PHILADELPHIA 4, CINCINNATI 1
Philadelphia drove over the right field wall in the 5th inning with two men on bases. Cincinnati's second game of the series with Cincinnati yesterday, 4 to 1. Both teams played fast and sharp ball, but the pitchers were too effective to offer any chances out of the ordinary. Score:

NEW YORK 10, PITTSBURGH 2
NEW YORK, May 28.—New York defeated Pittsburgh in the second game of their series here yesterday, 10 to 2. It was an even game up to the 7th inning when New York scored six runs on a three-base hit by Davis with the bases full and a home run by Kauff with one man on base and a single by Burns. The hitting of Young featured. Score:

Batteries: Barnes and Gonzales; Miller, Evans and Sweeney.

ST. LOUIS 4, BROOKLYN 1
BROOKLYN, May 28.—St. Louis knocked Maxau out of the box in the 5th inning of his game with Brooklyn here yesterday and won, 4 to 1. Three hits and an error, a sacrifice and a steal accounted for the three runs off Maxau. Maxau pitched the last two innings and yielded an earned run in the 4th. Maxau held Brooklyn to four hits. What's triple and Myers out saving them from a shut out. Brooklyn yesterday released Pitcher Miltus to Toledo. Score:

St. Louis..... 4 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—4

Batteries: Deak and Snyder; Maxau, Marquard, Cheney and Granger.

Cleveland Makes Clean Sweep of Series—Dutch Leonard Wins For Detroit

CLEVELAND, May 28.—Starting his first game for Cleveland Tom Phillips, New Orleans recruit, assisted in making it three straight from Boston yesterday with three singles. The score was 6 to 1. Boston had 15 men left on bases. Ruth's triple to center field was the longest hit ever made on the local field. The score:

Batteries: Phillips and O'Neill; Jones, James and Walters.

DETROIT 3, PHILADELPHIA 1
DETROIT, May 28.—Leonard pitched his first game of the season, allowed Philadelphia only five scattered hits and Detroit won the final game of the series yesterday, 3 to 1. After the second inning the visitors got only two men as far as second base. The score:

Batteries: Leonard and Ainsmith; Johnson, Geary and Perkins.

CHICAGO 4, WASHINGTON 2
CHICAGO, May 28.—The series yesterday when Chicago, playing an up-hill game, came from behind and defeated Washington, 4 to 2, in the final contest. It gave the local club a clean sweep of the series and was the sixth consecutive game which Washington had lost by one run. Score:

ONLY ONE HIT OFF JONES

Fitchburg Pitcher Holds Local Batters Helpless—Lawrence Loses to Portland

Jones, Fitchburg pitcher, allowed Lowell but one hit yesterday afternoon and had no trouble setting down the locals, 9 to 1. A high fly to centerfield by Clark in the second inning, which Hilton momentarily misjudged, was the only blow registered against him, and for the last seven innings only one man reached first. He got nine of the Lowell batters on strikes, Gaboriault fanning three times.

Lowell played miserable ball in the third inning, with the pitcher charged against them, three were on easy fly balls, and as such were absolutely uncatchable. The error of omission was frequent. Cline in right field came in a few feet from Gaboriault's fly in the sixth and then let it drop at his feet, and only a force-out at second saved Devon an error after he had dropped Schmidt's easy pop in the same inning.

Clark at first for Lowell pulled the feature play of the game in the first inning. Lyons drove a hard hit to Clark's right that looked safe beyond question, but the tall boy topped over and although he buried his head in the sand to come up with the ball, he clutched in his bare hand. He then stepped over to the bag and doubled Lyons who had come around second, thinking the drive safe.

Score:

Batteries: Fitchburg and Lyons; Gaboriault, Clark and Schmitt.

PORTLAND 5, LAWRENCE 4
PORTLAND, May 28.—A home run over the left field fence by Corcoran, third baseman, and a double by Corcoran in the fourth inning were the main factors in Portland's victory over Lawrence here today, 5 to 4. The score:

Portland..... 5 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—5

DEMPSEY WORKS OUT IN BLISTERING SUN

TOLEDO, Ohio, May 28.—Blistering rays of the sun beat down fiercely on Jack Dempsey's training camp yesterday and caused him to send his men through his pace during the cool hours of the morning. It was so hot at the challenger's camp on the shores of Maumee bay yesterday afternoon that Dempsey and his trainers took a swim in an attempt to cool cooled off.

After DeForest sent Dempsey through his first vicious workout. The challenger boxed six rounds, four with Terry Keller, a light heavyweight, and two with a heavier man. Dempsey was on top of Tate from the start and the giant negro received a punishment that he did not expect. On the right hand uppercut nearly lifted him off his feet. After the boxing Dempsey showed boxed for 15 minutes and then punched the bag until the rope broke.

Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey, plans to graduate which his protege's hours of working so that he will become hardened to the heat of midday. Kearns realizes that when Dempsey and Willard get into the ring July 4 the day may be burning hot and that Dempsey will be obliged to stand up under the heat. He said that

BILLY LUYSER PASSES AWAY

Bill Luyter, the former Lawrence outfielder, and famed throughout the old New England league as an extraordinary hitter, died suddenly in New York city on May 27. He was on his way to join the New Haven team of the Eastern league when he was stricken in the Grand Central station in New York with a hemorrhage and died shortly after. Luyter captained a shipyard team in New Jersey last season, but started to fail in health near the close of the year and was sent to a sanitarium. He gained considerable strength during the winter months and this spring felt strong enough to accept position with the New Haven club.

BRITTON AND AHEARN ARE IN GOOD FORM

Matchmaker Moore of the Crescent A. has received word from both Champion Jack Britton and Young Ahearn that they are in perfect condition for their 12-round bout here on Friday night. Both men look upon the match as one of great importance, and will take no chances at not being in tip top shape when they enter the ring.

Ahearn calls it the greatest opportunity in his career, and avers that he will bring a surprise on those who consider him a "set up" for the championship. The coming match is the talk of New England, and indications point to the attendance being the largest in the history of the club.

The other bouts are in line with the main event. Young Drow of Lawrence, a high class performer, who has many friends here, will tackle Frankie "Young" Walsh of Lowell, who is still a member of the U. S. navy, in the semi-final. Both boys are in fine form and confident of putting up a whale of a bout.

The preliminaries, too, will be furnished by good fighters.

The management has issued a warning against accepting tickets from anyone but agents of the club. A report that speculators, who recognize the quality of the bout, would try to corner the tickets, brought the warning from the directors. Only members will be admitted.

The Call-em

Barrow juggled and shifted his lineup against Cleveland Monday, but with the same results—decidedly negative. He benched Jack Barry, field captain, and placed Dave Shean at second, replaced Hooper by Gilhooley and with Ruth getting the pitching assignment, sent Del Gainer to left field. Ruth lasted three innings as a pitcher and then took Gainer's place in the outfield. Babe was followed to the slab by Bill James, Caldwell and Pennek. Cleveland won 12 to 7. Why? Gainer's pitching is a pretty fair answer. Whether or not there is dissension in the ranks of the Boston Sox doesn't matter for the moment, but, why, if Barrow wants to strengthen his cracked hurling arm, doesn't he pull Ruth out of left field and let him rest on the bench when he isn't pitching? As an outfielder he is only fair, as an every-day hitter he is unreliable, but as a pitcher, he used to be on a par with Leonard, Shore, Johnson, Morton, or, in fact, the best the league afforded. He has played in practically every game on the western trip and his terrible but has won only one game for his club, in St. Louis, when he cracked a homer with the bases full. We contend he would win more games for Barrow as a pitcher than as a batter and outfielder. The team, as a whole, is rickety, but the main line of the Sox and there is one way to help it. Keep the Babe a hitting-pitcher. He can't play two positions and make a success of either one.

Oh, What a Disposition!
We quote the Lawrence Sun-American:

"That fight card of the Unity club looks mighty good and there should be a big crowd. Many Lowell fans will come to this city with Boyle as they ought to have an idea that the bout between Britton and Young Ahearn will be a joke as Ahearn has no more chance against Britton than the proverbial snowball. If Lowell fans are wise they will come down and see a good scrap.

How do you get that way? Gee, what a friendly guy that fellow is, always boosting, never knocking. Clean up your own backyard, old boy; that fight club of yours doesn't stage one good scrap every six months. The Crescent has a whole section reserved for Lawrence fans Friday night. How do you like those apples?

A Sign of the Times
A bright eyed kid of about 11 years just stuck his head in the door of our private sanctorium and bellowed: "Hi, mister, is this where you put in your stuff? What d'yer mean, stuff?" we paired. "Amateur baseball dope," he laughingly replied. "Surest thing you know," we told him. "All right, put it in the paper that the Dodgers would like to play the Pawtucket Stars Saturday mornin'." will yer, please? "I'll say we will, and for just as many more like him as happen to blow around."

Moxie Fitzpatrick umpired his usual good game, and he gave a nice exhibition of umpiring.—Lawrence Sun-American.

Moxie was the umpire? Kindly speak a little louder.

CONGRATULATE CREW OF SEAPLANE NC-4

NEW YORK, May 28.—Vice Admiral Albert Gleaves, commanding the cruiser and transport force of the Atlantic fleet, today sent the following cablegram to Lieut. Commander A. C. Read, commanding the NC-4:

"The cruiser and transport force congratulates you and your crew on your great achievement, which has added another brilliant page to the history of the navy. We remember that your first flight was from the flagship Seattle."

The Seattle is the flagship of Admiral Gleaves.

The Manufacturers' Aircraft association today sent the following cablegram to Lieut. Commander Read:

"Congratulations to you and your gallant crew on the successful completion of the first transatlantic flight. The honor you have won in the NC-4 is all the greater because it inspires America, where the airplane had its birth, to redouble her efforts to lead the world in civil aerial transport."

WRESTLING CHAMPION HERE TOMORROW NIGHT

Ed "Strangler" Lewis, who recently won the world's championship by defeating Zbyszko in two straight falls at Chicago, and who has been signed to assist Jack Dempsey, to get into condition for his championship boxing bout with Willard, will meet Mort Henderson, the original "masked marvel" at the Crescent rink tomorrow night. Henderson will appear without the mask. The men have agreed to wrestle to a finish, best two out of three falls, only pin falls to count, with the strangle hold barred.

This bout will be one of the last that the champion will appear in, until after the big fight at Toledo on July 4. Henderson weighs about 200, but is exceptionally fast. He has defeated Mr. Rolier and many other notables. He realizes the importance of a match with the holder and will do his utmost to secure a fall on the "strangler." The semi-final will introduce Peter Plourde, the Lowell nightwatchman, and Paul Duchene, Fall River grappler.

LOCAL HOME BUILDING CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED

A campaign of home building, the outcome of which is hoped to be augmented civic pride and more universal personal ownership of homes was launched at a meeting of representative men and women last evening in the board of trade rooms. The medium by which this is to be accomplished is the proposed formation of a housing corporation for Lowell with a capital of $300,000. This corporation will manage itself and have its own officers. Its money will be loaned on second mortgages to families already living in complete new homes. The first mortgages are to be assumed by the savings banks, 60 per cent. of the cost of home being thus cared for. The new corporation will place 40 per cent. as the second mortgage and the home builder is to deposit the first 10 per cent. of the total cost. The monthly rental plan will include enough to repay the mortgages in a long period of years and pay the interest as well.

There is a distinct shortage of homes in Lowell and this fact is vital in connection with the proposed scheme. Daniel F. Carroll is chairman of a committee of the board of trade which has had this matter under close study for some time. Last night's meeting was attended by about 70 persons and the principal speaker was K. B. Haymaker of Washington, representing the bureau of housing. He spoke of the advantages accruing to a city which is made up of family-owned homes. Mr. Carroll outlined the Lowell situation. It was voted to appoint a committee to test out the financing of the plan. The following being appointed:

Daniel F. Carroll, master plumber, chairman; Lucius A. Derby, electrician; Rene J. B. Heys, chemist; Frederick P. Meley, contractor; John J. Hanlon,

FORCED SALE OF LIBERTY BONDS

Congressman Rogers Takes Up Matter of Personal Loss With Treasurer Glass

Says Many Subscribed Beyond Their Means—The Unemployment Question

(Special to The Sun.) WASHINGTON, D. C., May 25.—Congressman Rogers has taken up the matter of personal loss on forced sale of Liberty loan bonds by small holders, who having subscribed beyond their means, through patriotic zeal, now find it necessary to make a quick transfer of bonds. In many cases this need is the result of unemployment. Mr. Rogers has taken up the matter with Secretary of the Treasury Glass in hope some remedy may be found. His letter, which is self explanatory is as follows:—

"My Dear Mr. Secretary: During my recent weeks at home in Massachusetts a situation was repeatedly brought to my attention about which I should like your advice. Thousands of my neighbors of small means invested, wholly for patriotic reasons, in the various Liberty loan bond issues beyond their financial ability so to do. Business in my part of Massachusetts is much less prosperous than during the war period. Unemployment is increasing. I am credibly informed that 2000 to 15000 men and women are out of work in the city of Lowell, my home, at the present time. This condition is largely attributable to the fact that the United States Cartridge company of Lowell, which was employing about 15000 in November, is now employing only about 10000."

The result of all this is that many families and individuals and their savings are dwindling or exhausted. To have them sell their Liberty bonds when they undertake to do this, even if they avoid the loan shark and go to a bank, they are offered $15 or $16 for their $20 bond, or $22 or $24 for their $30 bond. This shrinkage in a bond of the United States, which they were taught to believe the best investment in the world, represents a loss to them which they cannot afford to bear, and which they feel they ought not to bear. It is no solace to them to be told that at the maturity of the bond, many years hence, they would receive the face value of the bond. They must have their money now. In the event of a discount, and even a distrust of the government, it is understood, which, especially in our great industrial centers, we are striving to avoid. I am sure you have repeatedly been advised of this condition and that I need not elaborate what I have said. My inquiry is whether there is any

LEMON JUICE FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost. Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates.—Adv.

method which occurs to you to meet and overcome the difficulty; whether there is any way by which the holders of Liberty bonds, and especially the small holders, can get par for their bonds in case the necessity for parting with them arises. Could the government wisely establish a fund to make up the difference between the market value and par? Or could legislation properly be passed which would make so much more attractive the bonds now selling for well below par that a rise to approximately their par value would result? I refer to provisions extending their tax free features, for instance. The fact is, I suppose, that whereas the government in war time bought every other commodity it needed at a considerable advance over the market—in some cases, doubtless, at several times the normal market—it bought its money at a price considerably below the market. Should it not, properly and in fairness, make up the difference? I do not desire to advocate or sponsor unwise or unsound legislation. But if there is any way out, I believe the Congress and the administration should adopt it. Will you give me the benefit of your opinion on this very important question? If legislative action seems to you feasible and desirable, I should be most happy to sponsor and urge congressional action upon any plan which you may recommend. Mr. Rogers is waiting a reply from Secretary Glass and if a solution of the difficulty is advocated which means congressional action he will lose no time in introducing it. RICHARDS.

NEW YORK, May 28.—The Wall street district was the scene of a $25,000 holdup and robbery yesterday afternoon, when Denis Forest, an 18-year-old bank messenger, was attacked and beaten as he was entering the rear door of a Pine street building. The assailants seized securities he was carrying and escaped.

Dairy Products 12 to 18 months old—perfect in form and flavor!

NOTE:—The same remarkable new process that keeps milk, butter and eggs sweet and fresh for months, is used in making Kovar Beverages.

Every technical statement approved by H. C. M. Franks, the inventor of the process, which for the purpose of this advertising is called the Kovar Process. Address care of American Beverages' Conservation Company, Mechanics' Bank Building, East New York, New York City, N. Y.

Piel's Kovar—a foaming, cereal beverage with the delicious tang of real Saazer hops! Two beverages, light and dark in color.

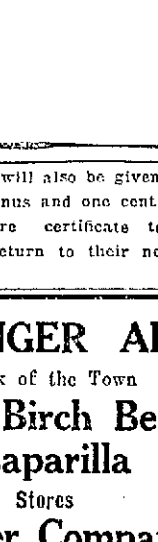

Piel's Kovar Ale—a rich, light, creamy cereal ale. Round and full in flavor!

"Piel Ale"—Mellow and light in color, with a distinctive malt flavor and a tang all its own! An ale type temperance beer for "wet" territories.

Piel's Orangeade—a natural, sparkling orangeade. Made from oranges and pure cane sugar only.

Piel's Ginger Ale—Sparkling, delicious! The exquisite flavor of the old Irish formula enhanced by the Kovar Process.

What kills the natural flavor in ordinary beverages?

THE real tang of Saazer Hops! The full rich taste of cereals! The fresh aroma of oranges and apples!

Do you get these natural flavors in the beverages you drink?

In ordinary beverages the natural flavor is lost. Most manufacturers do not know how to protect the original flavor of cereals and fruits.

Chemical preservatives—heat treatment—cold storage—these are the ordinary methods of "preserving" foodstuffs and beverages. And invariably these old-fashioned methods injure the true flavor.

A wonderful new process that protects natural flavors

The chief reason that foodstuffs and fruits do not keep fresh indefinitely is the free oxygen which they contain, which gives the bacilli of decay and putrefaction their opportunity to destroy them for purposes of human consumption. It is to counteract the effect of this oxygen that all the old-fashioned methods of "preserving" are used.

Today an eminent scientist has perfected a remarkable new process, which eliminates free oxygen and substitutes a harmless inactive gas.

By this process foodstuffs or cereals can be kept fresh for years with their natural full flavor absolutely unchanged. In our laboratory, we have butter, eggs and milk in their natural form—put up from one to five years ago—all perfect in form and flavor today.

This wonderful new process—the Kovar Process—is patented. Piel Brothers, internationally famous for fine beverages for 35 years, are its first American licensees. It is used in preparing the Kovar Beverages.

In each one of our beverages this process protects the full, natural flavor of the cereals and fresh fruits.

That is why the Kovar Beverages have a sparkle and a tang all their own. They are a new kind of soft drinks—delicious drinks that really satisfy your thirst.

Eight beverages—each one with a full, delightful flavor

Sight Kovar Beverages are already offered for sale. Each has the delicious, natural flavor of its ingredients.

Piel's Kovar (light) and Piel's Kovar (dark)—foaming and delicious with the true tang of real Saazer Hops!

"Piel," a rich amber malt beverage, with the piquant hops flavor.

"Piel Ale" is a rich malt ale—an ideal, healthful temperance drink.

Piel's Apple Ale—a temperance Champagne—with the delicious taste of fresh apples.

Piel's Orangeade—made with best fresh oranges and pure sugar—a delightful drink.

Every one of these drinks is absolutely a temperance drink by any test and is so guaranteed by Piel Brothers.

Drawn-from-the-wood

You can get these drinks—by the bottle or glass—all-the-year-round at almost any place beverages are sold.

We supply special half and quarter kegs and handsome "drawing cabinets", so you can get your favorite Kovar Beverage "drawn-from-the-wood" at drug stores, soda fountains, restaurants, cigar stores, etc.

The Kovar Beverages, bottled, are packed in cases of 2 dozen bottles and in casks or drums of 10 and 12 dozen bottles. In bulk we put them up and ship them in our specially sterilized kegs—"halves" and "quarters".

The popularity of these drinks grows daily. Dealers who have started to sell them, are now re-ordering the different Piel Beverages—in car-load lots. Try any of the Piel drinks today—and you'll see why millions of Americans enjoy their individual tang and flavor.

BATTERY F CLUB NEW ORGANIZATION

Members of Battery F of the 102nd Field Artillery, Lowell's own artillery unit, met last evening and formed a permanent organization to be known as Battery F club. Fred Gleason was chosen chairman of the organization and various plans discussed. Other officers appointed were: Committee on quarters: Edward J. Maher, Harry A. Cole, Roland G. Patterson; committee on by-laws and rules: Walter J. Scannell, chairman; Wallace L. Guernsey and Adella C. Jean.

The next meeting will be held Thursday evening, June 5, at Gray's barber shop in Bridge street. The members voted to take part in the Memorial day parade in uniform and will report at the state armory at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. Capt. W. C. Macbrayne was present, spoke briefly and urged the soldiers to keep politics out of their organization. He was chosen a member of an advisory committee.

ENLISTMENTS AT CAMP DEVENS

CAMP DEVENS, May 28.—Enlistments for the regular army at this cantonment to date total $10, reported

Captain John C. Macdonald, recruiting officer, today. "Provided the present rate of enlistments continue at this camp we should pass the 1000 mark before the next ten days," added Capt. Macdonald. The enlistments for the entire country have passed the 40,000 mark, latest figures from the war department show.

Excellent work is being accomplished by the recruiting parties from this camp at Lowell, Lawrence and Haverhill. Owing to the high standard of the physical test a number of prospective candidates for the army among civilians are finding it difficult to enlist.

It is interesting to note that many recruits are volunteering for service in Hawaii, Alaska, Philippines, China and France. Men may volunteer for Siberia also.

A number of regulars are taking advantage of the opportunity to re-enlist. Regulars who volunteered before April 2, 1917, and have served four years of their enlistment, may now re-enlist for one year or three years. They will also be given a furlough, $60 bonus and one cent a mile furlough fare certificate to their homes and return to their new stations.

TRIAL OF FORD LIBEL SUIT

Thirteen Former Soldiers Testify They Got Their Jobs Back

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., May 28.—Thirteen former soldiers took the witness stand to testify for Henry Ford in his $1,000,000 libel suit against the Chicago Daily Tribune in Judge Tucker's court yesterday.

Their testimony was all to the same general effect in refutation of charges made in the body of the alleged libellous editorial headed, "Ford is an Anarchist." The editorial stated that Mr. Ford would not pay his employees who went with the national guard to the Mexican border, would not care for their dependents, nor hold their positions open for them until they returned.

The plaintiff admits that he did not pay salaries of his men while absent, but denies that he deserted their dependents, and asserts that the positions of the guardsmen were held open just as positions were held for any other employees who left the factory for causes beyond their control.

Those who testified yesterday all had been in Mr. Ford's employ when the national guard was mobilized in 1916; all joined the colors and all testified that they were reinstated in their old positions or better ones without discrimination when they returned.

Sergt. Floyd Burgraw, who has been 17 years in the Ford employ, and is a veteran national guardsman, has a wife and three children, he said. He got half way into a statement that Ford paid his family half his salary while he was away, but was cut short by an objection that he had the information on hearsay from his wife.

Sergt. Jacob D. Bunting, who is still taking hospital treatment for a wound received in France, testified that an agent of Mr. Ford's had offered financial help to his mother and father, but that it was not needed.

OCTOGENARIANS FIGHT FOR BUTTER IN ROME

ROME, May 28.—(By mail)—Octogenarians of both sexes participated in spirited melees for butter at 6 o'clock each morning and 7 o'clock each evening.

Butter is so scarce in Rome that when any is put on sale at a creamery, the place is stormed by buyers. Aged men and women, girls, boys, persons of all ages, engage in a scramble for it.

Women have part of their clothing torn off and scream from pain in the pressure of the mob. They emerge with dishevelled hair and raging countenances, fiery mad at the roughness of others. If a woman is successful, she receives two ounces of butter for which she pays 39 cents.

THE CITY OF LOWELL AS A CORPORATION

How often have you seen aspiring office-seekers mount their soapbox rostrums, assume a Daniel Webster pose and glibly waltz into the sonorous strains of oratorical composition in which they persistently referred to "that grand and glorious corporation—the city of Lowell?"

How often have these same gentry proclaimed that the city of Lowell was a business firm which should be managed on a business basis, and that if they were put in office, etc. Perhaps you have wondered just what sort of a business house this city of ours was and have speculated on its comparison with other business houses, how many people it employs, etc.

Then again you have probably mused for many an hour and oft as to how the city paid its employees—that is, if you were not an employee yourself of this same corporation—and whether city pay compares favorably with that received outside municipal limits. Well, a few facts and figures round out from the mass of payrolls that go to make up a week's business at the Merrimack street office of this corporation under the artistic direction of Chief Grind Charles D. Paige may be interwoven into a most pleasing and easily digested pattern which will show just how many people the city of Lowell keeps on its payrolls to have the municipal mill wheel constantly turning week in and week out, year after year.

Take the week of May 21, for instance. (You'll have to take it any way, because that's the one Mr. Paige picked out.) The payrolls of the various departments show that there were 1426 people on the city's payroll drawing out the money that hardworking taxpayers previously had deposited in the city treasurer's office. This does not include the higher salaried officials. Just the rank and file of those that keep the city's business in a healthy condition and see to it that none of the mass of details connected with running such a huge organization are lost. Some weeks there are more people on the payroll than others; it varies with the needs of the various departments. But 1426 may be considered an average figure.

At the present time the city pays out about $30,000 a week to its employees. How is this divided? On an average, what does each employee get?

To get a fair average, one must consider the various classes of employees. There are the outside workers which may be generally termed laborers, even though firemen and policemen may take exception to such designation. A little algebraic figuring shows that the laborers receive on an average $3.50 per day. Their foremen get an average of $1 per day. So much for the outside workers. How about those inside?

The male clerks at city hall draw down about $27.14 per week, if they should all "pol" their pay and each draw out an equal portion of it. The female clerks do not fare as well. On an average they receive $20 a week, although many of them are far below this figure. However, that's what the figures show, and figures don't lie. No city hall figures, at any rate.

BIG RIOTS AT NEW HAVEN

Outbreak Kept City in Uproar All Night—Attributed to Bolshevik Elements

Clash Between Ex-Soldiers
and Yale Students Started
Trouble—Many Injured

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 28.—The riot which kept this city in an uproar most of last night was attributed today by Mayor Fitzgerald to Bolshevik elements which had taken advantage of a minor clash between the discharged service men and Yale undergraduates. Throughout the night the college authorities had complete control over the students. Those of the latter who figured in fights were such as were caught upon the street by the mob. Many of them had been at theatres or dances. Although the police were spread out they could not for hours prevent clashes, nor could they fathom the reason for the semblance of organized attack. Once a platoon of officers with drawn revolvers was stretched across Elm street and the Green, between the Graduate club and the public library. Chief Smith afterwards said that this was done for effect. Officers guarded the theatre exits to protect men who left who might have been mistaken for students.

The police reports showed five young men hurt, two by bullets, none seriously, and about a dozen detained pending inquiry. Considerable window glass in college buildings was broken, and a few store windows were shattered. Many citizens were either knocked down or roughly jostled. For several hours the mob, broken up into groups, rushed through the streets. The police were unable to reach those among the disturbers who were seen to carry sticks and clubs. There were several reports that black-jacks were used. Captain Braden of the Yale track team was confident that he was hit with a loaded club. The Allington hospital sent over a military police detail and this aided the city police. The report was made that few ex-service men appeared to be among the disturbers. As the Yale campuses are fenced in, it is known that most of the students were behind the gates or in dormitories.

The student council today, in a statement after expressing admiration of Yale men for the man who served under the colors, especially the 102nd men, expressed the opinion that neither service men nor students were responsible for last night's outbreak. It believed that other elements planned and controlled the affair.

Students in Court
In court two students charged with having revolvers, and another charged with breach of the peace had their hearings continued until June 3. One man charged with breach of the peace was given 15 days in jail and another for injury to private property was fined $80. The students with guns were taken by officers who went to a shelf dormitory after two lads on the street had been shot, it being claimed that bullets came from the direction of the dormitory windows. The man sent to jail was caught throwing stones at Powers hall windows. The bill for window glass at Yale will be considerable. Osborne hall and Byers hall had most of their street windows broken. Attack on the tower was made after a man from the steps had harangued the crowd, saying that students had insulted the soldiers.

DISCUSS MOREY SCHOOL PLANS

The school committee held a brief session last evening and the principal business taken up was a discussion of plans for the Morey school addition and the approval of the same. The resignation of Violet Stocks Proctor of the high school was accepted and a vote of thanks extended. Donald R. McIntire was elected physical director in the high school, his salary to be $1800.

William P. Boland was elected an instructor in the high school of Americanization in this city, was voted $800 as compensation for his work this season.

It was voted to order the High School regiment to take part in the Memorial day parade.

ELM STREET HOUSES CHANGE HANDS

An important real estate transaction took place today when the property at the corner of Elm and Chapel streets, containing six tenements and a store was sold to Samuel Silverblatt. This block was owned by Patrick F. Kane and is assessed for several thousand dollars. Mr. Silverblatt has bought for an investment and will expend several thousand dollars on exterior and interior alterations.

ATTACHMENTS FILED

MASS MEETING

Rabbi Jurman of Boston will be the principal speaker at the mass meeting of local Jews which will be held in the Colonial theatre in Old Fellows building at 7.30 o'clock this evening. The meeting is held as a protest against the atrocities which have been committed against the Jews in Poland and the Ukraine. Other speakers will be Mayor Thompson, Rabbi Wilens of this city and Rev. Herbert E. Benton of the Grace Universalist church.

COMPLETE DRAFT OF
AIR CONVENTION

PARIS, Tuesday, May 27.—The aeronautical commission of the peace conference has agreed to a complete draft of an air convention and its annexes subject to some small amendments. The convention itself deals with the following matters:
The nationality and registration of aircraft.
General principles governing the right of international flight.
Certificates of air worthiness and competency.
Principles governing flight over foreign territory.
Rules to be observed on departure or landing and when under way.
Prohibition of the carriage of certain objects.
The international-commission for air navigation.
Final provisions.
Technical details are relegated to annexes in the following order:
The marking of aircraft.
Certificates of air worthiness.
Log books.
Rules as to lights and signals and rules of the air.
Certificates of competency, including medical requirements.
International maps and ground marks.
Meteorological information.
Customs.
The aeronautical commission of the peace conference grew out of the international convention on aerial navigation which was called by the French government in March, 1918, independent of the peace conference itself. The convention drawn up by it will be submitted to the supreme council as part of the peace conference work and, in the case of the United States to its diplomatic representatives for presentation to the senate for ratification. The convention goes through much the same procedure as those drawn at the league, must be ratified within one year's time, and becomes effective between the separate nations as rapidly as they ratify it. The American representatives on the commission were Brig. Gen. Mason M. Patrick, chief of the air service, A.E.F., and Read Admiral D. S. Knapp, representing the navy.
SUPERIOR COURT
The case of the city of Lowell vs. Frank Hanchett, an action for the recovery of taxes for poll and personal property for the year 1916, which was started at the jury valued session of the superior court a couple of days ago, Justice Hammond presiding, was resumed this morning with Mr. Hanchett on the witness stand. It is expected the case will be brought to a close sometime today, after which divorce cases will be taken up.
Postmaster Gates of Merrimack, Vt., picked a lemon from the plant in the postoffice window which measured 15 by 3 inches and weighed one pound and six ounces.

LEGAL NOTICES

Tewksbury, Mass., May 1919.
To the Middlesex County Commissioners:
Respectfully represent the undersigned inhabitants of the town of Tewksbury, in said County, that Chandler Street, in said town, from the state road to Whipple road is in need of reconstruction.
Wherefore we pray that you will relocate said street.

JUDGE PICKMAN HOLDS INQUESTS

Two inquests were held by Judge Pickman today, in connection with the deaths of Daniel Emery and Mrs. Daninah Rapson.
Emery, it is alleged, was struck by an automobile driven by Herbert Harris on the night of May 12, receiving injuries which resulted in his death at St. John's hospital the following day. The accident occurred on Middlesex street.
Mrs. Rapson is alleged to have died as the result of an automobile accident on the Lawrence boulevard, in which she was struck by a machine driven by Raymond A. Otis of Lawrence. The accident occurred on May 3, and the woman died shortly afterwards at St. John's hospital.

AT THE BOSTON LADIES' OUTFITTERS

Today and tomorrow the Boston Ladies' Outfitters are offering for special holiday sale unusual values in every department of their large store. The sale, coming as it does, is especially timely as it gives the public an opportunity to purchase at low prices before the holiday. The goods and values offered are many as they include practically every garment in the entire establishment. No better time than the present to buy at a saving. One would have to visit the store and inspect the offerings to fully appreciate what can be bought there at such low prices. The store is making an exceptionally fine showing of feather boas at greatly reduced prices, which are so popular among the feminine element of Lowell. These special bargains are limited to tomorrow noon, so take advantage of them one must shop quickly.
RALPH N. SMITH, Asst. Clerk.

BERNARD F. GATELY,
Deputy Sheriff.

EDMONTON TIED UP BY GENERAL STRIKE

CALGARY, Alberta, May 28.—Business was not noticeably disturbed today by the general strike. Street cars were operating and lighting plants, theatres and hotels were conducted as normally.
Volunteers were at work in the post-office. About 200 government employees are on strike.
Conditions at Edmonton were reported as more serious. The street cars had stopped, restaurants and hotels were closed or badly crippled, and the electric lighting system was shut down. Police and firemen were said to be on duty under orders from the strike committee.
At a regular meeting of the license commission held last evening the following minor licenses were granted:
Hawker and Peddler: Cesar Gallenau, 46 Acton street; Nick Camroux, 364 Market street; Alphonse J. Sampson, 1 Webster street.
Hawker and peddler for fruit and vegetables: Ruben N. Myers, 4 Lincoln street; John A. Young, 1276 Bridge street; Junk collectors: Sam Blank, 198 Grand street; Morris Goodman, 159 Howard street; Lodging houses: Charles H. ## DECORATION FOR DARING AIRMEN

Hawker and Grieve Received by King and Given the Air Force Cross

"Had To Laugh When Big Wave Lifted Them Up and Smashed Plane"—Hawker

LONDON, May 28.—Harry G. Hawker and Lieut. Commander MacKenzie Grieve were received by King George at Buckingham palace today and given the air force cross, a new decoration for devotion to duty of which they are the first recipients.

An immense crowd cheered their arrival at and departure from the palace.

Lieut. Commander MacKenzie Grieve said today that, in his opinion, the future of aerial navigation was in the perfection of directional wireless.

"It was like being in a small motor boat in a heavy sea when we flew down to look for a ship," Hawker is quoted by the Daily Mail. "We were between high waves and were bumped about quite badly."

When the plane alighted, Hawker and Grieve said that they were in water up to their knees and the waves were close to the upper plane at times. The nose of the machine was turned into the wind and now and again a big wave dashed over it.

"Had to laugh" when wave hit plane, "I had to laugh," said Hawker, "when one big wave, a real big one, came up under the top plane, which up to that time had been dry and shining. It lifted us right out and I saw the trailing edge of the top plane break clean away."

Hawker said they spent their time discussing how the Mary was handled, and whether she could save the machine and its appliances. All this time the little boat carried by the Sopwith machine was afloat beside the plane, dancing about like a cork.

"When the ship's boat reached the plane," said Hawker, "she banged right into the machine and we hopped on board. The ship slung a rope out and hauled the boat back and we climbed aboard the Mary."

Jolly Good Feeling

"We had been waiting so long that we felt cautious to the whole thing. We had a jolly good feeling when we saw the ship messing about. Looking for a ship for two hours and being seasick the whole time wasn't very merry and bright."

"We certainly had a feeling of thankfulness and relief when we saw the ship," said Grieve. "After that we were all right. The machine was floating well on her general buoyancy. Even the engines held air and there were, of course, also air spaces in the planes and petrol tanks."

"We were rescued at 8.30 o'clock, Greenwich time, and lost everything. We went aboard the Mary without caps or boots. All my log had been washed out of my pocket, except one small page of rough notes."

Both men were reluctant to describe their feelings at the time but summed them up as follows:

Felt It Was 100 to 1 Chance

Grieve—"I didn't feel excited in the slightest, either at the start or when rescued."

Hawker—"It seemed a very uneventful affair. When we started we felt it was a 100 to 1 chance for us."

Describing the weather conditions at the start and how the airplane ran into strong northerly winds, Hawker said:

"The weather was, no hindrance, and we should have made the flight but for the trouble occasioned by the water boiling in our cooling system. We could have got through the worst of the weather in a couple of hours."

Grieve said that the wireless was not a success, and from a navigating point of view he placed no reliance on it. They saw no vessel during the flight. He added: "We preferred to navigate chiefly by celestial observations and my position, as I worked it out by the stars, was virtually correct. I found, when picked up, I used a cloud horizon instead of a sea horizon as the sea was hardly visible any of

The Many Mysteries of Nature

BY L. W. BOWER, M.D.

You can take an onion seed and a paucy seed, and plant them side by side in the same spot of ground. In one case, you get an onion, with its peculiarly strong odor, and in the other you get a flower of rare beauty. You can plant a poppy seed and get opium (a dangerous, habit-forming drug), or you can plant a rhubarb seed and get something that helps constipation. No scientist, living or dead, can explain these mysteries of Nature. Behind the invisible life germ in each seed is hidden the deep secret that nobody understands. Everything growing out of the ground seems intended for some use in establishing natural conditions. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found out what is naturally best for women's diseases. He learned it all through treating thousands of cases. The result of his studies was a medicine called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is made of vegetable growths that nature surely intended for backache, headache, weakness, bearing-down pains, periodical irregularities, pelvic inflammations, and for the many disorders common to women in all ages of life. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is made of lady's slipper root, black cohosh root, unicorn root, blue cohosh root and Oregon grape root. Women who take this standard remedy know that in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they are getting a safe woman's tonic so good that druggists everywhere sell it.

Favorite Prescription should have the full confidence of every woman in America because it contains no alcohol and no narcotic. Dr. Pierce knew, when he first made this standard medicine, that whiskey and morphine are injurious, and so he has always kept them out of his remedies. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial pkgs. Tablets—Adv.

the time we were in the air, I obtained some idea of the drift of the machine by noting the breaking waves through the drift indicator."

Hawker May Try Again

LONDON, May 28.—(By the Associated Press).—Upon his arrival in London last night, Harry G. Hawker, asked whether he would make another attempt to fly across the Atlantic, replied:

"I don't know. It depends on the Sopwith firm."

Hawker's Plane Picked Up

ST. JOHNS, N. F., May 28.—The Sopwith biplane in which Harry Hawker and MacKenzie Grieve attempted to fly across the Atlantic was picked up in latitude 49.40 north, longitude 29.03 west, by the American ship Lake Charlotteville, according to a radio message received by the Furber liner Sachem and relayed here last night.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS WILL MEET TO TAKE ACTION ON DEATH OF GEORGE ENWRIGHT

At tomorrow evening's meeting of Lowell council, Knights of Columbus, action will be taken on the death of George J. Enwright, a popular young member of the order whose untimely death has cast a gloom over the council. A delegation representing the council will be appointed to attend the funeral and a committee on resolutions will be named in accordance with the time-honored custom. Bishop Delany, General Assembly, Fourth degree, K. of C., of which the late Mr. Enwright was an active and popular member, will likewise hold a meeting and make preparations for the funeral and attendance of the members. Grand Knight Robert R. Thomas will preside at the meeting of Lowell council and Faithful Navigator Thomas R. Delaney will preside at the meeting of Bishop Delany's assembly.

If you want to reach the people who spend their money in Lowell advertise in The Sun, Lowell's greatest newspaper.

HIGH SCHOOL FIELD DAY

Usual Brilliant Exercises Will Mark the Observance Tomorrow Afternoon

Fair skies are prophesied for tomorrow afternoon to further enhance the brilliant scene which the high school field day exercises invariably produce. Field day is the goal set each year for the boys and girls of the school during their long periods of military drill and physical education and the achievements of this year's organizations will be reproduced tomorrow at Spalding park. That they will rank with those of past years is assured.

As has been the custom, the boys' regiment and girls' battalions in gala dress will march through the downtown streets prior to the exercises at the park. The units will form in the neighborhood of the school at 12.30 o'clock and the line of march will take them past city hall where they will be reviewed by Mayor Thompson and the other commissioners. The marchers will then go to Merrimack square where the girls will take special electric cars to the park, but the boys' regiment will proceed to the drill grounds in usual doughboy style.

The exercises are due to start at 2 o'clock. Each year's program is featured to a great extent by the drills of the girls. Tomorrow members of the third and fourth battalions will execute a combination waltz and dumb bell drill. The first and second battalions will present free arm exercises and the freshmen girls will do an aesthetic dance. The girls will wear designating colors as follows: First and second battalions, black ties, with the members of the first battalion wearing gold arm bands and those in the second battalion, purple arm bands; third battalion, green ties; fourth battalion, red ties and the freshmen girls, pink and blue ties.

The boys' regiment will present a line program of drills and marching, including battalion and company maneuvers, with a competitive company drill by the three outfits already selected, and individual prize drill by a score of crack performers. Regimental dress parades will close the exercises.

No tickets admitting to the grandstand will be given this year and it is a case of first come, the better served.

AMBULANCE CASES

Edward Mahoney, an employee of the Boston & Maine railroad, was injured about the head while at his work in East Bleachery street at 8.55 o'clock this forenoon. The ambulance was called and he was taken to St. John's hospital.

At 12.20 o'clock this afternoon Mrs. Mary Goodno, a resident of Cross st., was struck by a bicycle in Merrimack street near the library and received cuts about the head, face and shoulders. She was taken to the Lowell Corporation hospital in the ambulance.

THE "DRY" AMENDMENT

If Ohio Fails To Ratify It, Operation Will Be Suspended Till Sept. 1920

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—If the electorate of Ohio refuses to ratify the national prohibition amendment at its general election next November, the operation of the amendment will be suspended throughout the United States at least until the Maine election in September, 1920, according to Theodore A. Bell, attorney for the California Grape Protective association. "The referendum to place the measure on the ballot has been started in 10 states," he said today. "Forty-five states ratified the amendment though three declined to do so. That means that the measure is held up in 10 states by the referendum, leaving but 35 where final ratification has been effected where 36 are necessary to make it operative."

Six Members Elected at Joint Session of Council and School Committee—Commissioner George E. Marchand To Serve as Member Ex-Officio—Sixteen Candidates Were Voted Upon

Dr. Joseph E. Lamoureux, Timothy P. O'Sullivan, Arthur T. Safford, John F. O'Sullivan and Dr. John H. Lambert were elected in the order named, by the municipal council and the school committee in joint session at city hall this morning to serve as members of a commission to build Lowell's new high school. In addition, Commissioner George E. Marchand of the public property department, will serve as a member ex-officio, in accordance with the terms of the legislative act which provides for such a commission. He will have a vote in the body.

None of the members was chosen unanimously, although Dr. Lamoureux and Dr. Lambert each received nine out of 19 possible votes. Mr. O'Sullivan received eight votes, Mr. Safford six, and Mr. Marchand six. The election took only three-quarters of an hour and 12 votes were taken. In all 16 candidates were voted upon.

In addition to the five men chosen, the following received votes at one time or another during the session: Joseph H. Guillet, James O'Sullivan, William H. Wilson, Peter W. Reilly, Francis A. Warnock, John J. Carroll, Daniel S. O'Brien, John A. Stevens, Frank J. Warren, Samuel Scott and John C. Leggat.

The commission was elected in accordance with chapter 173 of the special acts of 1919 of the state legislature. In 1917 a similar commission was elected consisting of Dr. Lamoureux, Frederic A. Fisher, Daniel S. O'Brien, Arthur T. Safford and Peter W. Reilly. Later this was declared illegal and this spring another act was passed by the legislature which provided for the election of a new commission. The original legislative act gave the city the right to borrow $700,000 for the project and of this $300,000 has already been borrowed. The new commission will have the remaining $400,000 to spend, together with a balance of the $300,000 amounting to $27,774.33, or a total of $127,774.33.

ALLIES ANNOUNCE PLAN OF ACTION IF GERMANS FAIL TO SIGN TREATY

LONDON, Tuesday, May 27. (British wireless service.)—Immediately after a failure of the Germans to sign the treaty, Germany will be given 72 hours' notice of the termination of the armistice. On the expiration of this period, the British, French and Americans will advance into Germany. Simultaneously, the blockade will be enforced as tightly as possible.

The allied blockade council at Paris has completed all arrangements for the blockade. Plans have been worked out for the fullest co-operation between the military and economic forces.

All the arrangements perfected during the war to protect as far as possible the interests of neutral nations, while preventing the entry of food or raw material into Germany, will again be brought into play and Germany will find herself absolutely cut off from the rest of the world.

CARS ARE STILL TIED UP IN LAWRENCE

LAWRENCE, May 28.—Lawrence, Andover and North Andover were again without street car service today as a result of the strike of Bay State Street Railway Co. employees, which began yesterday. The men demand the reinstatement of a motorman recently discharged and the company officials refuse to comply. Transportation in Lawrence is also affected, but a portion of that city is served by the Massachusetts Northeastern.

After a meeting of the striking employees today a statement was given out in which it was claimed that an attempt on the part of the Bay State management to disrupt the union was responsible for the present state of affairs. The statement follows:

"The statement given out by the Bay State Street Railway Co. is not in accord with facts. It is given with the intention to influence the public in the belief that the employees are striking for a drunken motorman. The incident is said to have occurred at midnight when the man was off duty.

"The employees of the Bay State would be the first to condemn and the last to uphold such action. It is believed by the 270 members of the association that the motorman was deliberately framed by representatives of the company for personal reasons, who, under the guise of discipline, have resorted to third degree methods which could no longer be tolerated by the self-respecting employees. It was the last straw to break the camel's back. The Bay State street railway, like all other corporations, is very considerate of the public when it has a dispute with its men and in regard to the union has as much consideration as policy and necessity demand.

"The membership believes that the policy of the company adopted in the recent past to disrupt the organization of the union has brought about the present state of affairs."

"DIXIE KID" KILLED IN PARIS

PARIS, May 28.—The newspapers report the death of a negro boxer known as "Dixie Kid," from the effects of a blow received outside a Paris cafe Sunday evening. Having been drinking, he bumped into an American officer. It is declared that the officer hit the negro, whose head struck the pavement when he fell. He was picked up unconscious and died soon afterward.

WILSON'S CANDIDACY

Third Term Will Be Determined by Fate of League, Says Cummings

CHICAGO, May 28.—President Wilson's candidacy for a third term will be determined largely by the fate of the League of Nations, in the opinion of Chairman Homer S. Cummings, who came to Chicago today to preside at a two days' session of the national committee.

He said: "If the League of Nations should by any chance be defeated, and this to my mind is unthinkable, the pressure brought to bear on the president to run again would be very great and I feel certain that he would be re-elected.

"If the League of Nations is successful, I do not think the pressure would be nearly as great."

Mentioned for the presidential nomination by delegates today were William G. McAdoo and A. Mitchell Palmer. The latter will address the committee tomorrow night.

ESTHONIAN TROOPS ARE ENTERING PETROGRAD

NEW YORK, May 28.—Esthonian troops are entering Petrograd in order to relieve the suffering population, according to a statement issued today by the American Esthonian league.

ALLIES NOT TO PARLEY LONG

All Set For Advance if Germans Fail To Sign—Time Up Tomorrow

Germans Expected To Present Counter Proposals Today

Although there has been no official announcement, it is expected that the German peace delegation will present its counter-proposals to terms of peace at Versailles today. The time fixed for the reply expires tomorrow noon. Despatches indicate that the Germans will base their proposals on the claim that they accepted the offer of the allies to conclude peace on the basis of President Wilson's 14 points and other assertions by allied representatives that the peace would not be one of violence.

ALLIES NOT TO PARLEY LONG

There are reports which seem to reflect a disposition on the part of the allies not to parley long if the Germans refuse to sign. It is reported that the Belgian frontier has been closed, that all Belgian soldiers have been recalled from leave, and that general mobilization of the Belgian army will be ordered as soon as it is definitely known that the Germans will not sign. Allied commanders along the Rhine, where the British, American and French armies hold strategic bridgeheads, are reported to have held conferences.

PARIS, May 28.—(Havas) Henri Landru, who was arrested in April in connection with the disappearance of 12 women whom he had either married or promised to marry, was given a preliminary hearing yesterday. He said he knew nothing about their disappearance.

LAST CHANCE TO HELP SALVATION ARMY

Have you subscribed to the "Salvo" fund yet? If not, today is your last chance to show whether you believe the angel messengers are worthy of your support.

Lowell needs over $2000 to place the city in the ranks of the communities who remembered the doughty girl with a full quota.

The drive comes to a close at the final meeting in Memorial hall this evening. Every member of the local police force has pledged an additional dollar for the "Salvo." Don't wait for the solicitor to come and get you. Send or bring in your donation to the headquarters committee, 119 Merrimack st., and see to it that the Spindle City, which has never yet failed to go over the top in all the campaigns of the past, does not fall down when called upon to do its bit for this great organization which stood behind the boys from Yankee land while they upheld Old Glory on the battlefields "over there."

GRADUATION EXERCISES

The annual graduation exercises of the girls' department of the Lowell Vocational school will be held from 10 a. m. to 12 on June 24 at the school. Mayor Perry D. Thompson has been invited to present the diplomas.

LOWELL AND HAVERHILL AT SPALDING PARK

Jesse Burkett and his Haverhill club made their first appearance of the season here today, meeting Mike Hardin's charges at Spaulding park before a good sized crowd.

Henry Sullivan of North Billerica, who recently returned from overseas, and who previously to joining the colors, was one of the most prominent semi-professional cut-throats in this vicinity, was sent in behind the bat for the Lowell club.

Jack O'Day, also a local boy and a world war veteran, made his initial appearance here as a league umpire, giving the decisions on balls and strikes. Umpire Malone made the decisions on the bases.

COSTA RICAN TROOPS

In Charge of Man Who Ordered Execution of Americans 10 Years Ago

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The Nicaraguan legation in a statement issued today charged that Costa Rican troops mobilized on the border of Nicaragua are commanded by Julian Irias, who as premier of Nicaragua under President Zevala, ordered the execution of two American citizens, Cannon and Groce, without trial, more than 10 years ago. The statement reiterates the contention of Nicaragua that no assistance has been given the Costa Rican revolutionists.

RIGHT OF LABOR TO ORGANIZE

BUENOS AIRES, Tuesday, May 27.—The Catholic Labor congress passed a resolution today calling upon the state and employers to recognize the right of labor to organize defensively. The congress also recorded itself as in favor of organization along parallel lines of employers and employees to act under a third superior organization to consider questions affecting both sides.

American Seaplane NC-4 Reaches Portugal After Fast Flight From Azores

Actual Flying Time in Crossing Atlantic, 36 Hours and 41 Minutes

Crew Decorated

LONDON, May 28.—The crew of the American seaplane NC-4, which made the first transatlantic aerial passage, landing in Lisbon last evening from the Azores, has been decorated with the Grand Cross of the Order of the Tower and Sword, says a message to the wireless press from Lisbon. The decoration was presented by the Portuguese foreign minister.

The Order of the Tower and Sword awarded members of the NC-4 by Portugal was founded in 1808 in Brazil by the regent, who afterwards became King John VI of Portugal, as a revival of the Order of the Sword, founded by Alfonso V in 1459. It was again remodeled in 1832. It is a general order of military and civil merit and has five classes.

The badge is a five-pointed star in white on the center of which is imposed a sword surrounded by laurel wreath and words signifying merit, valor and loyalty. A laurel wreath connects the points of the star and at the top is a tower in gold. The ribbon is blue.

A PAGEANT OF THE NATIONS

Young Women of St. Michael's Guild Present Brilliant Spectacle

Associate Hall Taxed With Admirers of Dancers in Patriotic Numbers

Associate hall was a chameleon of colors for about an hour last evening when the young women of St. Michael's parish under the auspices of St. Michael's guild held a pageant of nations party whose novelty and brilliancy combined to form an evening of exceptionally enjoyable entertainment for the several thousand people, young and old, who taxed the capacity of the hall. The affair was staged under the direction of Miss Mary C. Joyce of the high school faculty, who was ably assisted in her efforts by Miss Helen C. Hickey and Miss Agnes Dudley. Not only was St. Michael's parish fully represented but every section of the city sent its quota of admirers to witness the dancing of the young women whose careful tutelage under Miss Joyce made them letter-perfect in their difficult efforts.

The program consisted of a series of group dances by companies of young women in the costumes representing each of the allied nations. Intermingled with these numbers were several solo dances by exceptionally capable performers.

The setting of the evening's entertainment was all that could be desired. The stage background of white was broken here and there with the national colors. On the side was the flag of Ireland and on the other the emblem of the new Irish republic. Banners of the various allied nations were also conspicuous and Broderick's orchestra was partially concealed by lattice work in the foreground.

To accentuate the beauty of the dancing, light and shadow arrangements had been made and the synchronization of the illumination with the spirits of the various numbers proved one of the evening's most enjoyable features.

The program opened with a group dance in the center of the hall by a dozen young women in Japanese costume who stealthily danced out into the bedimmed hall, hiding their faces beneath the folds of Japanese parasols. Gradually they became less elusive and their number developed into very pretty dancing effects.

Following their exit there came a series of thumps and a group of Holland ladies pounded their way to the front in typical Dutch costumes and with all the mannerisms of the people of the land of dikes and windmills. Their dance was well received, although necessarily less graceful in its nature than that of their predecessors.

Scotland was next to command attention when a dozen tartan-clad lassies Harry lauded forth to the stirring strains of a bonny Scotch pipe number. And the wee things got a big hand before their part of the entertainment had been concluded.

Miss Mary Gallagher and Miss Marion Dowd, clad in the vibrant colors of Corsican peasants, appeared in a duet executed in perfect rhythm and harmony. They, too, received much applause.

But 'twas when the blooming-cheeked colleens of Erin meandered into the spotlight via the intricacies of an Irish jig and with the entourage of a variety of Irish costumes that the house began vibrating with enthusiasm and applause. Dainty little capes did some of the misses wear and others had other costumes of as bewitching a character. And couldn't they dance! It was hard for them to return to the ante-rooms so great was their reception.

Then came the heroine of the evening—little Miss Helena Connors, no

Good Health—A Supreme Law Good Teeth Mean Good Health

Everybody knows that neglect of the mouth inevitably results in a series of evils of which TOOTHACHE is only one—others are decayed teeth, loose teeth, sore, ulcerated pus-discharging gums, the loss of a few teeth and finally—worst of all—loss of all the teeth.

Recent investigations have proven that unclean mouths, with diseased, or missing teeth, exercise an alarming influence on the general health; physicians and dental specialists all agree that clean mouths and sound teeth are essential to GOOD HEALTH.

I have a specialist for every branch of work. I claim that I can give you better dentistry without pain, for less money than any other Lowell dentist.

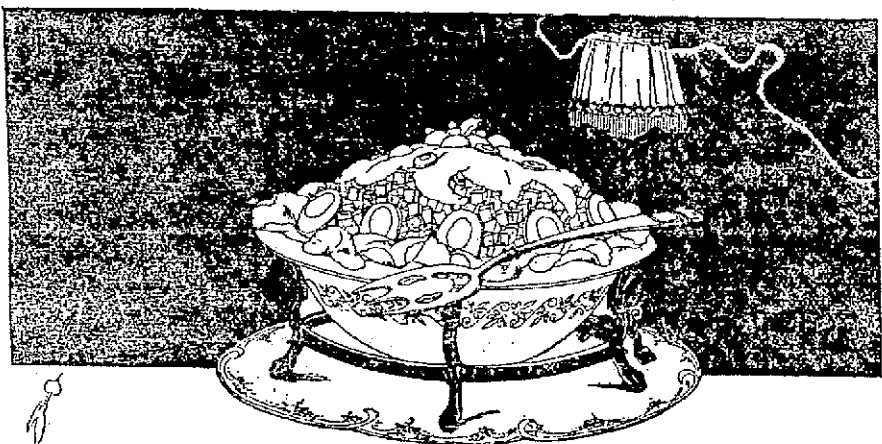

Come in. I will examine your teeth free and give you hundreds of references as to the character of my work and if you are then convinced of my staff's integrity and skill we shall be pleased to serve you.

Could one possibly be fairer?
NAP-A-MINUT MEANS "NO PAIN."

A "Wake-Up" flavor for Salads

Of course your palate can't taste the wholesome nourishment in COVO. But we doubt if there exists a single sleepy appetite which won't say, when introduced to the delightful flavor of this new salad oil,—"Hello, here's something new and mighty good." One New York hostess says Covo chicken salad is always "the life of the party."

Try it on your guests. Here's the recipe:

COVO WITH CHICKEN

Cut chicken into half-inch cubes. Add an equal amount of tender white celery cut into small pieces. Mix thoroughly together with a little finely chopped onion. Moisten with French dressing. Line salad bowl with lettuce. Pile salad in mound. Mask with Mayonnaise a la Covo, and decorate with sliced hard boiled eggs or delicately cutted beets. Olives, too, may be used for a garnish. Use this recipe for cold veal.

MOST of your cooking recipes call for shortening. Try Covo in cakes, cookies, in fact, wherever a fine shortening is needed. When you taste the results, you'll understand why the managing chef of the Waldorf, the McAlpin and the Claridge recommends Covo.

Your National Parks

With All Their Wonders

MAKE this a summer of vacation travel. Glorious out-of-door playgrounds beckon you. Heed the call. Get away and know the scenic beauties of your own land. Summer excursion fares.

Every American should visit the National Parks. They are the nation's playgrounds. Not only do you see peaks and canyons, glaciers and geysers, big trees and volcanoes, prehistoric ruins and Indians—you here see the old wilderness places of this country—the Far West and the Old West—practically unchanged.

In this vast region you can "rough it"—can camp out, climb high peaks, go fishing and ride horseback. Around the corner, so to speak, are miles of auto boulevards, modern resort hotels, and comfortable camps.

Private Benjamin W. Bernard, of 104 White street, a member of Sixth Battery, 41st Division, has received his discharge and is home again.

Plans for the establishment of a reserve officers' training corps in the local high school were informally discussed yesterday by Capt. Charles W. Fairfax, a regular army officer and instructor of the R.O.T.C. at the New Bedford high school, and Headmaster Herbert D. Dixby of the local school.

Miss Jessie S. Smith of Bathurst, N. B., and a graduate of the Lowell General hospital in 1911, has returned to her home after nearly four years' overseas service.

It has been learned that the woman who found the $195 lost by a Massachusetts mill operative on Monday is Miss Margaret Dolan of 149 East Merrimack street, employed at the D. L. Page Co. At the time the story was obtained by The Sun Monday afternoon, the finder's name could not be learned, but it is with pleasure that it may now be recorded.

Mrs. Bridget Coakley of 194 Suffolk street has received word that her son, Daniel Coakley, arrived in Boston yesterday from overseas. Priv. Coakley saw service with old Co. M on the Mexican border and went across with the 26th Division and was gassed. After leaving the hospital he was transferred to the general headquarters train with which he saw duty, until his return. His brother, John Coakley, was discharged from the service about two months ago.

Eugene Beaulieu, a former resident of this city and a former officer of the C.M.A.C. who is now residing in Montreal, Que., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Thomas Beaulieu of Dracut Centre. Mr. Beaulieu holds a responsible position in Montreal, that of clerk of the criminal court known as the King's bench, a position he was appointed to a couple of years ago by Sir Lomer Gouin. Prior to the appointment he was a professor at the Jesuit college in Montreal. Mr. Beaulieu paid a brief visit to Clerk Edward W. Trull of the police court this morning.

NEWS OF THE DAY
IN POLICE COURT

Selling a phonograph he had bought on the installment plan to an acquaintance before the machine was half paid for was the cause of George Kalsides' appearance in police court today on a charge of larceny of $29 from Solomon Nicholas. He drew down a month in jail and appealed.

According to Solomon's story, he had bought the machine from George last January for $29. George having assured him that it was fully paid for and that he had a right to dispose of it as he saw fit. Shortly afterwards Solomon was visited by the F. E. Nelson Co. and informed that George had only paid $25 of the phonograph, which was valued at $29.

So Solomon agreed to pay the balance of $4 and keep the machine. In the meantime he looked around for George, but as the latter had left town he was unable to find any trace of him. He heard of George's return a short time ago, and decided that he

(Special to The Sun.)

STATE HOUSE, Boston, May 28.—After deliberating over the matter for four hours yesterday afternoon, the ways and means committee of the house decided to follow the line of least resistance, and reported the service bill back to the house with a provision that the yeomen shall participate in the distribution of the state's gratuity, and another provision that every man who was actually inducted into service, even though for only a day, shall receive the full $100 contemplated by the bill.

While the purpose of the committee was undoubtedly to avoid debate in the house, the result of its action will be quite the opposite, for members declare they will move to include Red Cross purses within the bounty, on the ground that they volunteered for service at the front, while the yeomen carefully kept away from the fighting lines. Still another amendment to be offered will include every farmer who raised food products for the boys, it being contended that they were fully as patriotic as those who were drafted three days before the armistice was signed.

Sunday Sports Bill
The question of permitting amateur sports Sunday afternoon again occupied the attention of the house for a long time yesterday, the long debate resulting in a second defeat for the measure, but by the narrow margin of 13 votes, the vote being 57 to 110. Several days ago the same measure was defeated 101 to 128, but when the adverse report accepted by the house went to the senate for concurrence, the upper branch substituted the bill, and it was for that reason it came before the house a second time today. Following today's defeat, the measure can be revived again only through reconsideration by the house.

Most of the speakers in yesterday's debate dwelt upon the alleged inconsistency of permitting autoing, the playing of golf and other similar diversions on the Lord's Day and at the same time barring the one great outdoor sport which appeals more than any other to the American people.

Anti-Anarchy Bill
The opposition to the so-called anti-anarchy bill carried its fight to the last ditch yesterday, when it made an effort to prevent the adoption of a resolution declaring the measure to be an emergency one, which should become law immediately. It was able, however, to muster only four votes in opposition, while 153 members recorded their belief that the operation of the law is urgently needed at once. This probably marks the end of the fight against the measure, and it should receive the approval of Governor Coolidge by the end of the present week.

Other Measures
By a vote of 41 to 32, the house ordered to a third reading a bill requiring the use of a reflector on every motor truck, and regulating the use of spotlights on all motor vehicles.

The senate, by a vote of 11 to 25, killed the bill extending to pupils of private schools the law which now requires the vaccination of pupils in public schools. During the debate it was charged that the bill is part of a scheme, fostered by manufacturers of vaccine, to bring about general vaccination, and this argument, together with the assertion that the passage of the bill would compel senators to be vaccinated if they should seek to improve their education by attending a private school, led to the defeat of the bill.

Speaker Warner directed the attention of the house to the fact that on the corresponding day of last year's session only eight matters remained unreported from the committees, and as a result prorogation was reached on June 5. This year, he said, several hundred matters remain in the committees, but by proper attention to business he thought the legislature might complete its labors before the end of June.

FORTY ALLIED SOLDIERS KILLED, SAYS BERLIN

LONDON, May 28.—A building used as a barracks by the occupation troops at Ludwigshafen has been destroyed by fire. Forty soldiers perished and 100 were injured, according to a Central News despatch from Berlin via Copenhagen.

Ludwigshafen is in Rhenish Bavaria, on the Rhine, opposite Mannheim, 40 miles south of Aachen. The army of occupation is stationed much farther north with the central point at Coblenz.

form of France, with its cloak of bright red lining, the jaunty French cap, and each bearing the tri-color, made this group exceptionally pleasing to look upon. Their dancing was equally enjoyable.

Climactically came the group representing America clad in the national colors, with here and there a young woman adorned in drapery representing the field of blue in the flag. "Yankee Doodle" the orchestra played, and the American maids were surely sweet to behold. Then America and France united in a group dance, and finally the entire personnel of the pageant appeared in the grand finale consisting of a series of intricate passages and intertwinings which ended in the young women forming eight lines facing each other and in unison with the spectators singing "The Star Spangled Banner." It was a fitting and enthusiastic climax and was generously appreciated by those present.

The pianist of the evening was Miss Mary Hunt and her excellent work aided greatly in the success of the evening. Credit must also be given Rev. Francis J. Mullin, who was actively interested in the pageant from its very inception and who aided those in charge last evening very materially. Following the pageant, general dancing was enjoyed from 9:30 until well after midnight.

The young ladies who represented the various nations in the group dancing were the following:
Japan—Catherine Burns, Ruth Keenan, Mary Carney, Agnes Casey, Margaret Casey, Katherine Nerney, Margaret Shea, Lillian Shea, Catherine Callahan, Ethel Meyers, Helen McEann, Beatrice McDonald, Alice McEadden.

Holland—Loretta Ready, Agnes Sullivan, Della Cox, Josephine Murphy, Clara Farrar, Margaret Hart, Sadie McKenna, Gertrude Ready, Louise Egan, Catherine Hackett, Mary McCarthy, Madeline Muldoon, Catherine Dowd.

America—Margaret Tobin, Marion Tobin, Mary F. Riley, Winnie Coleman, Winnie Hart, Alice Canley, Dora Dubois, Alice Mawn, Alice Tweed, Nora Carroll, Rose Carroll, Alice Carney, Rose Heath, Bridget Kiernan, Winifred Fleming, Helen Sullivan, Agnes Mahoney.

The officers in charge of the affair were: General manager, Miss Margaret McCusker; assistants, Miss Sarah Smith and Miss Annie Duffy; floor director, Hugh Donnelly; assistant floor director, Miss Mary Reed; chief aid, Patrick Nevin; aids, William H. Galla-

The Luncheon That Proved a Success

"Mary," exclaimed Mrs. Gordon to her new maid, in dismay, "what is the world we are going to do! Miss Redfern has come for lunch. You might be sure she'd hit upon the very day we had planned on just a pick-up lunch. We might manage, but there isn't a thing we can have for dessert at this short notice."

"I can manage, Mrs. Gordon," replied Mary, confidently. "Just you leave it to me."

Luncheon time arrived, and Mary brought in a delicious smooth mould of rich chocolate blanc mange. She had saved the day!

"How in the world did you do it?" said Mrs. Gordon. "Your dessert was delicious."

"Why," replied her maid, "I made it with Pudding."

"Pudding?" questioned Mrs. Gordon. "Do tell me about it."

"It's a dessert that always turns out right, and isn't a bit of trouble to make. All you have to do is to add milk, either fresh or condensed, and sugar, and boil for three minutes, and then when it is cool, you have a rich, creamy mould of dessert."

"Does it come in more than one flavor?" asked Mrs. Gordon.

"Oh, yes, indeed—chocolate, rose, vanilla, orange, lemon and in several flavors. And it only costs 15c for a box which will serve 15 people."

"Well," said Mrs. Gordon, "it certainly is delicious."

"I use it for cake and pie fillings, too," said Mary, "and it makes ice cream smooth and rich."

"Well," exclaimed Mrs. Gordon, emphatically, "there is one thing sure. In the future, we will never be without Pudding!"

ly, vigorous affairs that has great entertaining power to it.

George Walsh, athlete, sprinter, baseball player and motion picture actor will be one of the attractions at The Strand beginning with matinee tomorrow. He will be seen in the new Win Fox comedy drama entitled "Help! Help!" which is a great deal of fun. It is a new version of the "elephant triangle" said triangle in this case being composed of business, love and politics. The business—that of the manufacture of safety razors—ends in frequently on the love affair and the police do likewise, both seeming to have been edged cases of jealousy. Eventually, however, the love affair establishes itself on a business basis and the villainous police become disgraced interlopers. George's pungency for getting into scrapes and his remarkable facility of getting out of them provide a great deal of the action of the play. At one time the police are holding him on seven charges ranging from speeding to burglary and abduction, but he fights himself through them in a most interesting manner and comes out thoroughly vindicated. The girl in the case is Alice Mann and as a new Walsh leading lady is reported to be a pronounced success.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE:
Bestock's Riding School at the B. F. Keith theatre this week is unquestionably the best equestrian act on the vaudeville stage. The real tang of the circus is contained in the act, and the riders and splendid horses, except an unusual appeal. The demonstration of how circus riders are developed is illuminating, and at the same time, full of good hearty laughter. Ward and Van, the street musicians, likewise contribute an act of good things. Their harp and violin playing are good, while the little violin playing edly running through all is much liked. Wright and Dietrich, who entertained our soldiers in France, have an act of prettiness. It is all very carefully done. Then there are Murray and Neff, blackface funsters, who have many odd things to say; El Clevel, the little violinist, who has pep galore; La Emma and Boyd, dainty melodists, and Conway and Fields, in music and talk.

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE MEETS

CHICAGO, May 28.—The democratic national committee today began a two days' session to plan the campaign of 1920. Chairman Homer S. Cummings arrived today and every state was represented either by a member or by proxy.

After the close of the meeting, Chairman Cummings and a party which is to include J. Bruce Kremer of Montana, the vice chairman; Mrs. George Bass, chairman of the women's bureau; W. R. Hollister, executive secretary and W. S. Jamieson, director of finance, will begin a tour of the west. They expect to spend two months west of the Mississippi for the purpose of communicating to leaders in various states the plans made at the meeting here.

There is no greater prisoner than the man or lady who is chained to their chairs in their own home by rheumatism.

Don't remain a volunteer sufferer. Hundreds in Lowell have found freedom and have tried to show you the way. Dr. Pierre Messier, 61 Carolyn street, Lowell, says:

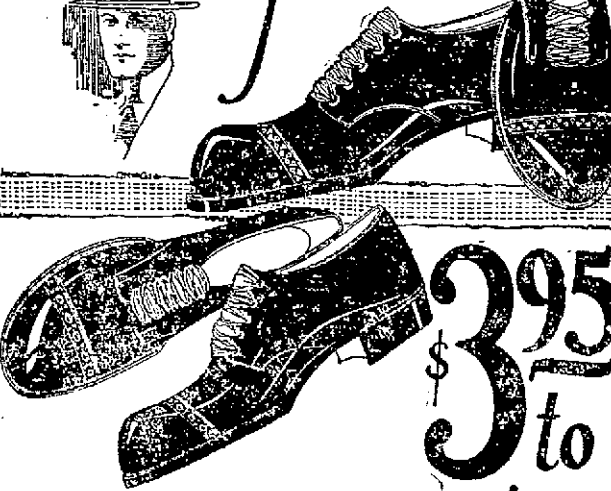

"For six or seven years I suffered the tortures of rheumatism, and I don't believe there is anything worse. The pain seemed to begin at my hips and run down to my knees. My ankles were swollen and felt as though they were held in a vise. I was virtually a prisoner in my own home for I could hardly do anything at all. My hands felt numb and dead. My back ached and I had to get up three or four times a night on account of my kidneys. My head ached and there were times I was very dizzy.

"I felt that I would give anything in the world if I could walk with the

Memorial Day

This year takes on a different meaning, for added to the list of those to whom we consecrate this day, are hundreds more who fought that the world might be safe for democracy. We are none the less grateful to those dear ones remaining since the civil strife—rather we feel a heartier respect, a more sincere gratitude since our experience has taught us what they suffered for right. Let us all join together in paying this day fitting tribute to those who are still among us as well as those, who for Liberty, have passed beyond.

REPORT EXPLOSIONS IN PETROGRAD DENIED

LONDON, May 28.—A Russian wireless message today denies the report that explosions have occurred in Petrograd due to its approaching evacuation. The despatch declares there is no intention of abandoning the city and that reinforcements sent to the Gatchina front, south of Petrograd, are succeeding in driving back the enemy.

LEAGUE CLAUSES IN AUSTRIAN TREATY

PARIS, May 28.—The Austrian peace treaty, the newspapers say, will include clauses on the League of Nations similar to those which were a part of the German peace terms. The treaty will be presented at noon Friday.

DEATHS IN PETROGRAD EXCEED 1000 DAILY

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Official health reports show that deaths in Petrograd now exceed 1000 daily, according to Swedish press advices received today at the state department. Further reductions in the food rations, even for workers, have been made and it is estimated that no worker is able to live even in a modest way on less than 500 rubles a day.

MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

Big Turn Out Expected—Formation on South Common—Route of Parade

The time set for the Memorial day parade next Friday is 4 p. m. The formation of the parade will be on the South common and the route covered will be Thordike to Middlesex, to Central, to Merrimack as far as Mount square, where services will be held; Moody street to Aiken, to Merrimack as far as Dutton street, where the parade will be dismissed. The parade will be reviewed at city hall by the members of the municipal council.

It was learned this morning that all the members of the police department, with the exception of those who will be on duty, will turn out, while there will also be a large delegation from the fire department. The Community Service club, composed of some 200 young women, will participate in the parade as will also the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, State Guard, Sons of Veterans, Spanish War Veterans, High School regiment, and the German War Veterans. Several local semi-military organizations have also replied favorably to the invitation to take part in the parade and it is believed that this year's event will be one of the best in a long time. The Salvation Army will have a special feature in the turnout.

Another feature with the parade will be that Miss Smith, a resident of the Highlands, who is the only living Civil War nurse in this city, will be a guest of the G.A.R. and will ride in a carriage. Chief Marshal D. L. Page and Chief of Staff W. C. MacBrayne are now busy on the roster and final general orders and it is expected they will be ready for publication tomorrow.

GETTING WHAT THE PRICE DEMANDS

Every year we spend a large proportion of money earned and lately the proportion has been increasing by leaps and bounds. This money spent may include purchases for clothing, shoes, food, furniture, garden seeds, seasonal wants—any number of things in short.

Money comes so hard and goes so quickly that these two things should be well considered. Know beforehand what you want to buy. Decide what you can afford to pay. Decide what you ought to pay for it. Form an opinion before the shops are visited.

What aids all this? Nothing better than newspaper advertising. Newspaper advertising saves time, trouble and annoyance for the reader who is to buy. Newspaper ads furnish the means of comparing prices and quality.

Just one more thing. No one has time to read newspapers in the morning in an industrial city. The time to read papers is in the evening, say the workers. That is why the evening paper is the paper par excellence for the advertiser. In this city that means

SENATORIAL PERVERSITY

The irate senators who are wasting valuable time at Washington in an effort to promote the interests of the republican party, may well heed the demonstration of discontent that took place in London on Monday afternoon, when soldiers and sailors armed with missiles of various kinds, marched upon the house of parliament and were restrained only by a large body of police. The great crowd then directed its steps towards Buckingham palace and again was stopped in its progress only by military force. Is such a thing possible in this country? Yes, even probable if the senators much longer indulge in this empty talk.

The men who are conducting a campaign against the League of Nations for political capital are in dangerous business. They do not seem to realize the temper of the people at the present hour. They will find that the soldiers and sailors alone will be sufficient to force a ratification of the League of Nations, whether the republican senators like it or not.

Senator Lodge in his debate with President Lowell on the League of Nations, made the statement that if the people wanted the League of Nations they would certainly get it. It appears, however, that certain senators, chiefly republicans, with one or two democrats like Reed, are, for some reason or other, determined to obstruct and oppose every step towards ratification of the league. With the republicans, the movement seems to be political. Originally, those who suggested amendments allowed that the covenant would be acceptable if so amended. The amendments offered by Senator Knox and former Senator Root have practically been adopted, and yet the howl against the League of Nations is as boisterous as ever.

Certain senators have expressed indignation that the treaty of which the covenant is a part has not been submitted to them. Senator Lodge and others who are prominent in the debate know full well that the treaty is not completed, inasmuch as up to the last minute, before its being signed by the German delegation, it will be subject to change. In a similar case, Mr. Lodge made this statement in the senate:

"We have no possible right to break suddenly into the middle of a negotiation and demand from the president what instructions he has given to his representative. That part of the treaty making is no concern of ours."

In the present situation, the senate has no right to demand a copy of the tentative treaty, even if it be in Washington. Yet, the fact that the treaty is not before the senate seems to be one of the main causes of the outbreak in the senate on Monday.

It is now apparent that President Wilson understood what would happen if the republicans should secure control of congress while the treaty of peace was being considered. He knew that he could not rely upon congress for any loyal support with republicans in control. His appeal for a democratic congress was unusual, but in the light of recent events, it appears that the president foresaw just what is happening now at Washington.

The obstruction offered by certain senators is paralleled only by that which was offered against the Union in the troublous days of secession. The republican senators at the present time are fighting against a movement to prevent what to overthrow militarism and to preserve peace and harmony among the nations of the earth. Furthermore, they are doing so in the name of liberty. Secession was advocated similarly in the name of "liberty and independence." It seems that if the obstruction to the League of Nations goes much farther, it may be necessary to seek the verdict of the people. We surmise that even the soldiers and sailors would be practically a unit in supporting the league covenant, and as for the laboring masses, they can be relied upon to vote against a continuance of the old state of affairs in which the United States would be liable at any time to be drawn into a devastating war. The republican threats and predictions of the evils that would result from the ratification of the League of Nations are not more serious than those that were hurled at the present constitution of the United States when patriotic men sought its adoption. Now as then, however, we believe the patriotism of the country can be relied upon to overcome those who, in the name of liberty, would give militarism a new lease of life and subject this nation to dangers similar to those that embroiled us in the world war just concluded.

TRANSATLANTIC FLIGHT

The NC-4 is the first airplane to cross the Atlantic and Capt. Read wins the honor of being the first aviator to accomplish that wonderful feat. It is true that the task was made less dangerous by the manner in which the navy department arranged its warships 50 miles apart along the route, first from Newfoundland to the Azores and then similarly on the second leg of the voyage to Lisbon. Nevertheless, the achievement is one that will mark the beginning of a new era in aviation. The next event to be looked for will be a non-stop flight across the Atlantic. This, too, will doubtless be made in the near future. British aviators are ambitious to win in this contest and although Hawker and Grieve made a gallant attempt and failed, their effort proved that under more favorable conditions and with a better machine, it is entirely practicable to cross the Atlantic in one continuous flight.

So many strange things are done nowadays that the people have ceased to wonder at achievements that in other days would be regarded as miraculous.

The socialist paper, Appeal to Reason, now comes out and solemnly nominates Eugene V. Debs for president, and must do so knowing that Gene is incarcerated for quite some time in the federal prison at Moundsville, W. Va. That poor old Appeal to Reason must be having a hard time with its printers and they are getting the joke stuff set in over where the news would ordinarily be found.

They must be going and coming awfully in that dear old New York. A while back it was reported wholesale evictions were in order, but the latest news is to the effect that New York now has 21,000 vacant tenements—"undesirable tenements," the report adds. Undesirable from the New York point of view or undesirable from the average person's point of view?

Lawrence for the second time has had to battle with agitators who tried to make it the centre of a social revolution. The second attempt was less successful than the first. Should a third be made in the future, the leaders should be run out of town on a rail "a la vigilantes."

The British say India may be given home rule by "degrees." The Irish, of course, wonder if they are not as worthy by virtue of their civilization and loyalty, to have home rule too, as are the Hindus.

Is Boston the effete and esthetic city she is reputed to be? We read an account of the big circus which is exhibiting there this week, and in describing the parade the Boston newspaper became real personal about the hippopotamus and alluded to it as a "blood sweating beast." Why not have been as refined as Boston usually thinks she is and said "the hippo perspired blood?"

One of the curiosities of the family of nations it took the war and its aftermath to uncover, is the state of Liechtenstein, third smallest state in Europe. Liechtenstein's peace delegate has just started for the peace conference as a belated representative and says he hopes the peace conference can help the troubles of his country which he affirms has been in a state of war with Germany for 53 years.

The Germans called themselves supermen. That is, they did for a time. Judging from the peace terms given them, they are now very much in the soup. But for erstwhile supermen, they show a lamentable lack of knowledge of how to swim out.

The demonstration by the soldiers and sailors in London, and their menacing attitude to the law-making authorities, bears an important suggestion to the political hushhacker at Washington.

The Salutes being perforce occurred. If the woman suffrage question were settled, what would the militant feminist take up as a medium for keeping her in the limelight? Possibly the cruelty of holding men in prison for offences less grave than uxoricide.

Paragraphers the world over will welcome the possibilities involved in the name of Sidney Pickles, the latest announced contestant for transatlantic flight honors. Let us hope this aerial pickle will not fall into the brine!

What may be the most unpleasant journey ever undertaken by mortal man may be that of the ex-kaiser on the way from Holland to Geneva, passing through France, on his way to be tried for wholesale murder.

Greeks who landed at Smyrna had to kill off a few hundred Turks who had radical notions about self-determination. This is the only kind of persuasion that appeals to the followers of Mahomet.

Investigations by this congress will be for two purposes: to find proof of blunders or worse, and to find campaign thunder for use in 1920.

We wept with Italy over her lost children, but she must give us a little time to understand the righteousness of her claim to Greek and Slav children.

It is well to remember that anything a Hun statesman says about the peace terms is said for home consumption, and has nothing to do with the affixing of signatures.

The league constitution could have been more immediately useful if it had provided for the compulsory arbitration of quarrels between capital and labor.

Poland gets only one-eighth of the Hun's territory, but the arrangement occasions about nine-tenths of his howling.

The value of the Hun's signature to the peace treaty depends wholly upon the size of the force kept on the job by the allies.

Heinic practiced 40 years for his dance. It is only fair that he should devote the next 40 to paying the fiddler.

Doubtless you have noticed that "liberty-loving" nations manage to stifle their yearning to liberate their own subjects.

The allies have definitely decided to keep food supplies out of Russia and let Lenin work out his own damnation.

The boys in northern Russia would swap any amount of glory for a view of Archangel from the rear end of an out-bound steamer.

Any community where everybody is related to everybody else and quarrelling about it affords a miniature of the European problem.

No doubt you have noticed that the man who talks much about his rights does very little talking about his duty.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT WALK

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her to Health.

Perth Amboy, N.J. — "For three years I suffered with a severe female trouble, was nervous, had backache and a pain in my side most of the time. I had dizzy spells and was often so faint I could not walk across the floor. The doctor said I would have to have an operation."

I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in my newspaper, and tried it. Now I am better, feel strong, have no pains, backache or dizzy spells. Every one tells me how well I look, and I tell them to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—that is what makes me feel well and look well. I recommended it to my sister and she is using it now. You can use this letter if you wish, for it is certainly a grand remedy for a woman's ills." — Mrs. MARTHA STANISLAWSKI, 524 Penn St., Perth Amboy, N.J.

For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been overcoming such serious conditions as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, dizziness, and nervous prostration of women, and is now considered the standard remedy for such ailments.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

Something connected with the water supply is generally of interest to the citizens of a city and when the municipal chemist and sanitary engineer, Clifton Rice told me the other day that the hygienic purity of Lowell water was 98.5 and the hygienic purity of Boston water was only about 70, it seemed a rather surprising fact. Most people think of the water supply of greater Boston coming as it does from the Metropolitan basin at Clinton, as being the purest water in the state.

But according to Mr. Rice, it does not so work out. Of course in this city there has often been severe criticism of the cost of maintaining a filtration plant, but lacking any other supply of water for the present except our useful Merrimack river, apparently nothing remains to purify our water except the filtration process. At that we may not be in a position to criticize the filtration process to any great degree for Mr. Rice says that the demands on Clinton reservoir are becoming so great that it is only a matter of a short time when a costly and elaborate filtration plant for Clinton water will have to be installed. This of course will make the cost of water for Greater Boston people higher.

There is no doubt but that this trolley sprinkler system is one of the best things we have ever had in Lowell and when you see one sprinkler trolley passing through Merrimack square right behind one that has already gone along—both of 'em industriously sprinkling the street, one gets the idea that it must be true that two trolley sprinklers are twice as efficient as one, even if they do work procession style. But I have a suggestion to offer in regard to street sprinkling that may be worthy of the street commissioners' notice. When these cars go over their cleansing sprays of water along the street there is usually a considerable stream of water courses along the space close to the sidewalk curbing. It would be my idea to have a sweeper follow the sprinklers on smooth paved streets to wash the gutters. That is especially necessary where a large number of men stand on the sidewalks as on Merrimack square.

One of the local theatre managers is of the opinion that the moving picture theatres not only in Lowell but all over the country will soon have to get away from the "double feature program" idea that has been the vogue for the past several years and instead the movie houses will follow the New York trend and concentrate on one big motion play at each performance. The manager in question tells me it is only a matter of time when this will come to pass because the producers are confining their energies to getting out better and fewer productions monthly. For some time past everything has been keyed at top speed with the aim in mind of getting quantity. Very often the quality of the productions has suffered. One doesn't expect two or three performances when he goes to a legitimate theatre to enjoy a stage play and the movie men are coming around to the idea that the silent drama is fast assuming all the earmarks and idiosyncracies of the legitimate.

I heard a funny story today about a Lowell autoist who dodged paying a profiteering farmer $5 for an ancient hen he had run over with his machine. The collision occurred near Chelmsford.

and the hen took the count for 10. The autoist went back to the farmer and said, "How much do you want for the hen?" "Five dollars," replied the indignant farmer. The Lowell man balked at this price and said he'd be blown if he'd pay it. "There's my number," he said to the farmer. "Take it and do what you want to about it," and he drove off. A few yards down the road he met a friend autoist from Lowell and related the story of the hen that was waving him to dodge poultry in the road. "I'll fix that for you," said the friend and he drove up the road after talking the autoist to wait a few moments for him. Presently he drove back and presented the dead hen to the waiting Lowellite. Then he told of his interview with Friend Farmer. He had gone up to him and asked him for how much he could buy a hen. "Seventy-five cents," said the farmer. "And here's one a blamed automobile just killed. You can take that one." He took it.

SEEN AND HEARD

It's a pleasure to do work which produces instantaneous results—cutting lawns, for instance.

If you don't happen to know—that is a five-bar Liberty loan flag stretched across the square.

We happened in Lawrence last evening and immediately noticed something strange and unusual about the city. What in the world can he the matter here—we soliloquized. The streets are filled with people and automobiles are thicker than flies in haying time. But there's a something familiar missing. What is that something we miss? And thus we were missing when a newsy hollered "all about the carmen's strike." And then we knew that the thing we missed was the street car. Nary a one was running.

Listen, young feller. If you're thinking of filing those marriage intentions, don't be afraid of the young women in the city clerk's office. It's all in the day's work for them, and they're quite accustomed to meeting young fellows who feel just as foolish about it as you feel. Funny, isn't it? A guy would fight his weight in wildcats any day if anybody said anything about his girl, but when it comes to going to the city clerk's office and declaring himself to a young damsel, when you might say, it's none of her business, he'd rather take a licking. But we repeat, those young women are really busy young women and while your declaration, to you, is a matter of the most delicate consideration and surcharged with significance, to them it is no more than the order for Sunday's dinner which the grocer jots down in his little book. So, cheer up, young feller, and bear in mind it was Congressman Mann who introduced the woman's vote amendment.

Mary's Little Lamb

To Miss Bertha Brown: We know very little about farm life. However, if you are going "down on the farm," we would respectfully call your attention to the following lines: "Mary had a little lamb. With her it would frolic. One day it kissed her on the cheek, and died of painter's colic."—From the Arkansas Thomas Cat.

By O. B. Joyful

Where do they get that stuff about English having no sense of humor? Sir John Foster Fraser, who spent a year of the war in the United States, says when he was in an Indiana town, on his speechmaking tour, a little boy slid up to the chairman of the meeting and asked:

"Who is this that's going to talk?" "Oh," said the chairman, "he's an English knight."

The chairman explained that a man kneel before a king, the king put his sword on his shoulder, and so the man became a knight.

"Gee," said the boy, "that's nothing. There was an Indian chief put a battle-axe on my grandfather's head and made him an angel."

The Tennis Fibber

All the zoos are changing the monkeys to the outdoor summer cages. So the tennis season is formally opened. Tennis the jazz of sports. To begin with, you have to be balmy to take it up, and faster than a cricket's stutter to play it. Same principle as playing a xylophone. If it were given serious thought, barefoot dancing might be traced back to tennis. When the sun works the pop valve on the thermometer, and all other sports hop to the waves, you'll find a flock of tennis cuckoos hopping all over the broiling sun slants on a clay gridiron. What makes 'em get that way? It's a long wait with the squirrels for the autumn nut harvest, but they content themselves during the bake months watching the tennis fibbers!

JOBS FOR SAILORS AND SOLDIERS

WASHINGTON, May. — Doubling their re-employment forces throughout this country, leaders of the National Catholic War Council today began an intensive drive for jobs for soldiers, sailors and marines, that is to be continued in full force until an opening has been found for every fighter from France. As director-general for the United States, P. J. Hanley, an employment expert from Portland, Ore., has just been appointed to command the two hundred field agents who will within a week be covering the country to put into most effective action the every agency in every one of the eleven thousand Catholic parishes in the United States.

Radiating from sixty divisional headquarters, located in every large city on the continent, the redoubled efforts of the National Catholic War Council are already yielding results showing six hundred service men placed each day, according to reports recently turned in by the twenty thousand men and women who are enlisted in this re-employment service. From headquarters in this city, scores of expert agents are now being hurried to every industrial centre in the nation to speed this record job hunt until it opens a thousand places a day to idle men in uniform.

State directors, to push every effort to land work for discharged soldiers and sailors throughout their territory are being established in headquarters all over the country. William J. Carey, whose employment accomplishments for returned soldiers at Rochester have been marked, has been made the director for New York state, and P. J. Rigney, an expert from the U. S. employment service, has been placed in charge of an unusually active campaign that will be pushed by the National Catholic War Council about the port of New York.

The New High School Commission Elected This Morning

ARTHUR T. SAFFORD

DR. JOHN H. LAMBERT

High School Commission

monreux is a successful practicing physician. Timothy F. O'Sullivan is president of the Broadway Social and Athletic club and prominently identified with the shoe business. Arthur T. Safford is chief engineer of the Locks and Canals. John J. Mullaney is a well known plumber. Dr. John H. Lambert is a practicing physician, a veteran of the world war and a former chairman of the school committee.

How They Were Chosen

Mayor Perry D. Thompson called the joint meeting of the council and school committee to order in the aldermanic chamber at 10:15. All members of both branches were present.

The mayor said that in accordance with chapter 178 of the special acts of 1919 of the state legislature it was the duty of the two bodies to elect a commission to build a new high school in joint session. The first business, he said, was the election of a chairman for the session. Richard Brabrook Walsh, chairman of the school committee, moved that the mayor be chosen the chairman. Commissioner James E. Donnelly seconded.

the motion and the mayor was unanimously chosen.

Stephen Flynn, city clerk, was then unanimously chosen clerk for the meeting on motion of Commissioner Marchand, seconded by Commissioner Morse.

Mr. Walsh then moved that the meeting proceed to the election of a high school commission in accordance with the terms of the legislative act. The motion was carried unanimously.

In instructing the city clerk to put the motion Mayor Thompson used the term "ballot" instead of "vote," and the clerk used that term when formally putting the motion. Exception was taken to the term and the motion once more put with the word "vote" substituted for "ballot."

In all, 13 votes were taken. The results of each were as follows:

First vote: School Committeeman Crowley, Joseph H. Guillet; Commissioner Donnelly, School Committeeman Keyes, Commissioner Marchand, Commissioner Morse, Commissioner Murphy, School Committeeman Pearson, School Committeeman Thompson, Mayor Thompson and School Committeeman Walsh, all for Dr. Joseph E. Lamoureux. Mr. Guillet received one vote and Dr. Lamoureux nine. The latter was declared elected.

F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Donnelly, James O'Sullivan; Mr. Keyes, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Marchand, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Morse, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Murphy, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Pearson, Arthur T. Safford; Dr. Thompson, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mayor Thompson, James O'Sullivan; Mr. Walsh, Arthur T. Safford. Timothy O'Sullivan received five votes, Arthur T. Safford three, and James O'Sullivan two. No choice.

Third vote: Mr. Crowley, John J. Mullaney; Mr. Donnelly, Timothy O'Sullivan; Mr. Keyes, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Marchand, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Morse, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Murphy, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Pearson, Arthur T. Safford; Dr. Thompson, William H. Wilson; Mayor Thompson, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Walsh, Arthur T. Safford. Timothy F. O'Sullivan received four votes, Arthur T. Safford four, John J. Mullaney one, and William H. Wilson one. No choice.

Fourth vote: Mr. Crowley, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Donnelly, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Keyes, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Marchand, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Morse, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Murphy, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Pearson, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Dr. Thompson, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mayor Thompson, Timothy F. O'Sullivan; Mr. Walsh, Arthur T. Safford. Timothy F. O'Sullivan received eight votes and was declared elected.

Fifth vote: Mr. Crowley, John J. Mullaney; Mr. Donnelly, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Keyes, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Marchand, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Morse, John J. Mullaney; Mr. Murphy, John J. Mullaney; Mr. Pearson, John J. Mullaney; Dr. Thompson, William H. Wilson; Mayor Thompson, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Walsh, Arthur T. Safford. Arthur T. Safford received five votes, John J. Mullaney four and William H. Wilson one. No choice.

Sixth vote: Mr. Crowley, William H. Wilson; Mr. Donnelly, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Keyes, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Marchand, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Morse, John J. Mullaney; Mr. Murphy, William H. Wilson; Mr. Pearson, Arthur T. Safford; Dr. Thompson, William H. Wilson; Mayor Thompson, Arthur T. Safford; Mr. Walsh, Arthur T. Safford. Arthur T. Safford received six votes, William H. Wilson three and John J. Mullaney one. Mr. Safford was declared elected.

Seventh vote: Mr. Crowley, John J. Mullaney; Mr. Donnelly, Peter W. Reilly; Mr. Keyes, Peter W. Reilly; Mr. Marchand, John J. Mullaney; Mr. Morse, John J. Mullaney; Mr. Murphy, John J. Mullaney; Mr. Pearson, John J. Mullaney; Dr. Thompson, John J. Mullaney; Mayor Thompson, Peter W. Reilly; Mr. Walsh, Peter W. Reilly. John J. Mullaney received six votes and Peter W. Reilly four. Mr. Mullaney was declared elected.

Eighth vote: Mr. Crowley, Francis A. Warnock; Mr. Donnelly, John J. Carroll; Mr. Keyes, Dr. John H. Lambert; Mr. Marchand, Daniel S. O'Brien; Mr. Morse, John A. Stevens;

Mr. Murphy, William H. Wilson; Mr. Pearson, William H. Wilson; Dr. Thompson, William H. Wilson; Mayor Thompson, Daniel S. O'Brien; Mr. Walsh, Dr. John H. Lambert. Francis A. Warnock received one vote, William H. Wilson three; John J. Carroll one, John A. Stevens one; Daniel S. O'Brien two, and Dr. John H. Lambert two. No choice.

Ninth vote: Mr. Crowley, William H. Wilson; Mr. Donnelly, Daniel S. O'Brien; Mr. Keyes, Daniel S. O'Brien; Mr. Marchand, Daniel S. O'Brien; Mr. Morse, John A. Stevens; Mr. Murphy, William H. Wilson; Mr. Pearson, Francis A. Warnock; Dr. Thompson, William H. Wilson; Mayor Thompson, Francis J. Warren; Mr. Walsh, Daniel S. O'Brien. Daniel S. O'Brien received four votes, William H. Wilson three, Francis A. Warnock one, Francis J. Warren one and John A. Stevens one. No choice.

Tenth vote: Mr. Crowley, Samuel Scott; Mr. Donnelly, Samuel Scott; Mr. Keyes, Dr. John H. Lambert; Mr. Marchand, John C. Leggat; Mr. Morse, Samuel Scott; Mr. Murphy, Francis J. Warren; Mr. Pearson, Dr. John H. Lambert; Dr. Thompson, Francis J. Warren; Mayor Thompson, Francis J. Warren; Mr. Walsh, Dr. John H. Lambert. Samuel Scott received three votes, Dr. John H. Lambert three, Francis J. Warren three and John C. Leggat one. No choice.

BIG PLANES PLAN RACE
ACROSS THE ATLANTIC

ST. JOHN'S N. F., May 28.—Vice Admiral Mark Kerr, with his big Handley-Page plane, and Capt. John A. Alcock, with his Vimy bomber, expect to get away on their transatlantic flights from the same field at Harbor Grace at the same time. It was announced here last night. Both aircraft, respectively the largest and second largest now making ready for the "big hop," will have their first trial flights about June 1.

Work of assembling the two planes has progressed rapidly. The Handley-Page, erected in the open at Harbor Grace, is ready for installation of its four engines, with its great 125-foot wings already "sprouting."

Capt. Alcock himself is ripping open packing cases in the high-speed uncrating and assembling of his Vimy bomber. He said yesterday that he would fly "light" to Harbor Grace after his craft is assembled.

The Vimy plane has five 140-gallon tanks in its body, with another barrel forming its nose. The top center section is also a fuel receptacle and an additional 70-gallon tank designed to be emptied first in fuel consumption when the motors are started is fitted for quick release and subsequent use as a life raft.

Continued

Associated Press.—The Atlantic ocean has been crossed in an aerial passage, the American navy winning the honor. The American seaplane, NC-4, accomplished the feat by winging its way to Lisbon yesterday from the Azores, whence it had already flown from the shores of Newfoundland.

The arrival of the NC-4 at Lisbon marks the completion of the first transatlantic air flight in history, with the coveted honors won by an aircraft built and manned by Americans.

Commander Wortman at Ponta Delgada has received a radio message relayed from the plane, saying:

Great Crowds Welcome Crew

Back on Job in Two Weeks After Taking New Remedy—Weldona

"You can say for me that this Weldona is truly a Wonder Worker for rheumatism," said James Buote of 24 Florence street, Lawrence, Mass.

"I have suffered all the agonies of rheumatism a man can endure, and I guess I know what rheumatism is for I have had it for eight years. My shoulders, hips and knees were stiff and sore, the pain was terrible, unable to get my hand to my head, and at times I was unable to use my hands in any way."

"When I started to take Weldona I was in pretty bad shape, unable to work, and just able to stand up under the terrible torture. In two weeks after taking Weldona, which was recommended to me, I was back on the job at the Pacific mills and am gaining every day. My friends are surprised how quickly this medicine helped me for I can now use my hands in any way, the pain in my shoulder and arm has gone and I feel like a new man."

"I think this is wonderful after taking so much medicine from doctors as well as remedies recommended, and Weldona helped me from the first dose."

Weldona is daily helping hundreds of Lowell people who know what relief from rheumatism means. Are you continuing to suffer needlessly? Why continue to suffer needlessly when Weldona is ready to help you the very first day you start to take it?

Weldona is a compound of herbs, roots and medicinal ingredients which does not harm the heart, the stomach or any other organ, but it certainly knocks rheumatism from the system, and puts life and vigor in the joints and muscles. The Weldona man will continue to meet the public at Dows, the Druggists, Merrimack St., every day to explain more about this preparation and to give out the free booklets, "Germs of Rheumatism—How They Live—How They Die"—Adv.

there was no untoward incident of any kind.

The NC-4 was greeted by the cheers of great crowds on the waterfront, the shrieking of whistles and the ringing of bells. The plane covered the distance at a speed of more than 50 miles an hour.

As soon as the news was received here, Admiral Jackson ordered all the warcraft in the harbor to blow their whistles and sirens. This was kept up for five minutes, the sailors and officers, meanwhile, cheering the great American triumph.

Crossed Ocean in 26 Hours

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The American naval seaplane NC-4 arrived at Lisbon, Portugal, at 4:01 p.m., Washington time, completing the first transatlantic flight. The ship made the distance from Ponta Delgada to Lisbon in nine hours and 44 minutes, making her actual flying time in crossing the Atlantic from Newfoundland, 26 hours and 41 minutes.

LISBON WELCOMES
NAVAL SEAPLANE

LISBON, May 28.—(By the Associated Press).—The achievement of the first transatlantic air flight with Lisbon as the first European stopping place has aroused the enthusiasm of Portuguese as no event has stirred them for many years. When the American seaplane NC-4 came over the Tagus river last evening, the populace, crowding all places of vantage, gave full expression to their enthusiasm by cheers of welcome, the booming of guns and the ringing of bells.

For days the people of Lisbon had been awaiting the completion of this momentous voyage over the Atlantic, and though disappointed from day to day because of the inability of Commander Read's craft to continue its flight from the Azores because of unfavorable weather conditions, yet each day, they looked hopefully towards the west, for the coming of the Americans. Now they are able to say that they never doubted that the NC-4 would wing its way safely across the intervening 300 miles of water.

Early in the day word was flashed that the NC-4 had started, and at intervals there were bulletins of the progress made. The whole city was on feet, and during the latter hours of the day virtually all business was abandoned by those who crowded everywhere to witness the arrival.

Guided by skillful hands the American plane, which had covered the distance between the protecting destroyers along the route with clock-like regularity, swept in over Lisbon and settled down gracefully near the cruiser Rochester.

It was not forgotten by many of those who witnessed the triumph of the American commander that another man, equally stout hearted, the Australian Hawker, was being welcomed in England on his return from a wonderful transatlantic flight, more spectacular but not so successful in its ending, and there was praise for both.

MRS. REED VERY
HAPPY OVER NEWS

WASHINGTON, May 28.—"That is perfectly grand; I expected him to succeed, but how happy it makes me to feel that he has landed safely."

These were the joyful words of Mrs. Bess Burdine Read, wife of Lieut. Commander Albert C. Read, commander of the NC-4, when told yesterday that her husband had successfully crossed the Atlantic.

Making success out of an apparent failure is a characteristic of her husband, says Mrs. Read. She and her 6-months-old son Albert are making their home in Washington with Mrs. Albert S. Barker, widow of Rear Admiral Barker, who was an uncle of Commander Read.

"Mr. Read's letters from Chatham, Mass., after he had been forced to descend on the first leg of the flight, breathed no word of discouragement," Mrs. Read said. "They were all eagerness to be up and going with the two other planes. I knew he would succeed if determination could carry him through. I had letters from Chatham, Halifax and Trepassay, and all of them expressed confidence in his success."

"Of course I was uneasy during the night he spent on the water off Chatham. I could not understand then why the ships didn't go right out and pick him up. I talked with an officer at the navy department next morning and expressed that view to him. He

"Then it was I felt for the first that there must be great danger to him before the flight was finished. Mr. Read had told me, though, of the minute preparations for safeguarding the whole route, and I felt that no harm could come to him."

"When did you first learn of his safe arrival at the Azores?" Mrs. Read was asked.

"O, that was wonderful," was the reply. "They phoned me from the navy department late at night that they had started. Then about midnight they told me he had passed a station ship far out at sea. I retired then and slept with one ear open, expecting to hear some more at any time. At 8 o'clock Saturday morning I called the department and they told me they were having trouble keeping direct communication with the fliers. Then I had visions of sitting by the telephone for a long time waiting for some definite news."

"It was only a little while then before they called me again and told me he was in sight of Horta. It was a great relief and I can't begin to tell you what joy it was to me. They had told me shortly before that the planes had got separated from each other and that was not the most encouraging news at all. So, naturally, I was surprised at learning so quickly that he had landed safely at Horta."

RUTH LAW TO ATTEMPT OVERSEAS FLIGHT

CHICAGO, May 28.—Ruth Law today announced that she would attempt a transatlantic flight within six weeks. She will use a new Curtiss biplane equipped with two Curtiss Kirkham motors of 400 horse power each, and will be accompanied by James Lamont, her mechanic. The machine is now being built by the Curtiss Co., she says. She expects the navy to assist her.

LOWELL'S WATER SUPPLY

Is the water supply of Lowell hygienically pure at the present time? "97.8 so," answers the municipal chemist and sanitary engineer, Clifton L. Rice.

So now we know where we stand. "Our water supply here in Lowell," says Engineer Rice, "may be said to be second to none. The city of Springfield is credited with having the purest and best water in the state. She gets her water supply from a sheet of water whose watershed is uninhabited, up in the Berkshire mountains. It cost her several million dollars to perfect her water supply but even on top of this she filters her water. Although Springfield is thus credited with having the best water in the state, I claim that Lowell water does not need to run second to Springfield water. Ours is as good water as hers."

A story on the Lowell water supply may be said to be rather timely now for the time approaches at which, in every other year for a number of years past, it has always been the habit of Lowell citizens to draw long faces, complain of the city's summer water and to go about audibly wondering if the water supply will be such as to make business good for the undertakers.

What Mr. Rice says therefore, may be of a reassuring nature. Lowell does not drink Merrimack river water only very indirectly. Persons going by the pumping station up on the boulevard or passing it on trains the other side of the river, generally think of the pumping station as pumping the water for municipal use directly from the river itself. This is not so. The Lowell water supply is pumped out by this plant from 525 wells.

It is an undeniable fact that the water supply of these wells is the water which seeps through the earth to them from the river but this of itself is nature's manner of filtering water; and of course the water as taken out of the wells is much purer and colder than river water. Counting the natural filtration process, the water we turn into the bath tub or into the teakettle, had undergone two other filtration processes besides being aerated. One filtration process is through sand and one is through coke.

This filtration business is not so much to remove organic matter as it is to remove two mineral elements, iron and manganese. The water that is pumped out of the wells has hardly any organic matter in it but it has plenty of mineral matter to which fact the filtration plant owes its existence and the sanitary engineer his job.

Samples Are Analyzed

Suspicious citizens often ask what check there is against the city receiving impure water. There are two. Every month four samples of water are sent to the chemist of the state board of health. One is a tube of water taken direct from the river. The second is taken direct from the wells, the third is of sand filtered water and the fourth of coke filtered water. Of course Mr. Rice is required to make frequent tests of the water and has a chance to compare his analyses with those furnished him by the state board of health.

The state board of health makes what might be termed a therapeutic test of the water, i. e., test for disease germs, only once a year. In answer to the observation made by The Sun man that if this were known it might cause some concern in the community Mr. Rice answered by saying that the water left the filtration plant in such a pure state as to certify beyond doubt that it positively did not contain any disease germs. One safeguard for the water is, that it does not get to the air but once between the time it is pumped into the filtration plant and when it comes out of the faucet in the home. This is when it is aerated in the plant's famous "water gardens" as they are called—the high walled compartments surrounding the plant of which there are 12, each one of which is studded with beautiful liquid sprays of water which flare out like a flower.

over the fact that the staff of chemists at the filtration plant does not get time to make the extreme test of the water hunting for disease germs. Mr. Rice says that the present scale of its purity, 97.8, is so high as to preclude possibility of disease germs being in the water and further, as a matter of fact, in all the time since he has been filtration chief, coming here in 1912, there has never been any disease epidemic traced to bad water and no disease germs found in the water.

As compared with Boston water, the story in one to please Lowell people very much. With Lowell's water purity registered at 97.8, Mr. Rice says Boston's water registers a purity of only 78. Boston and all the metropolitan district in fact, has a water which comes from the big artificial reservoir at Clinton, Lake Wachusett. This water, according to Mr. Rice, is inferior to Lowell water in point of palatability, turpidity, color and temperature. To be sure, Boston water is not dangerous and may be said to be hygienically pure but it lacks the little fancy frills of well flavored water, such as taste, color, turpidity and bouquet, that make for a liquid that the true white ribboner will smack his lips over.

Extending Well Field

Mr. Rice has campaigned for a long time for the well field at the filtration plant to be extended. Last year the Merrill property near the plant, 14 acres, and a large supply of pipe were purchased by the city. The department could go no farther as money and labor were lacking. This year Mr.

Rice says Commissioner Morse has evinced a very great interest in the filtration part of the water system and already 25 new wells have been driven and 60 wells replaced. Twenty-five more wells will be driven before the season is over and then the total number of additional new wells will be 110, making a grand total of about 600 wells.

Of the wells already driven and replaced this season the additional supply of water made available now amounts to a million and a half gallons per day. When Mr. Rice came to the plant in 1913 the demand on the pumping and filtration plants was 5,800,000 gallons per day and now the demand has grown so that it is over 6,500,000 gallons per day. If need be a supply of 7,500,000 gallons is now available and with the addition of new wells Commissioner Morse hopes to be able to increase this amount to 10,000,000 gallons. In connection with this, Mr. Rice points out to persons who would be inclined to object to the recent increase in the water rate of 10 per cent., that in the last four years the cost of labor alone at the filtration plant where the average number of workers employed nine months of the year is 12, has increased more than 100 per cent.

BRAVES BLANKED AGAIN

Cubs Hit Hard Behind Fine
Pitching of Hendrix—
Score, 5 to 0

CHICAGO, May 28.—Chicago batted hard yesterday and defeated Boston, 5 to 0. Hendrix completely baffled the Boston batters, holding them to six scattered hits. Leslie Mann was put out of the game in the fifth inning by umpire Byron for objecting to a called third strike. The Boston club announced the sale of outfielder Al Wickland to St. Paul and outfielder Joe Kelly to Toledo, both of the American association.

CHICAGO, May 28.—Starting his first game for Cleveland Tom Phillips, New Orleans recruit, assisted in making it three straight from Boston yesterday with three singles. The score was 5 to 4. Boston had 13 men left on bases. Ruth's triple to center field was the longest hit ever made on the local field. The score:

Batteries: Phillips and O'Neill; Jones, James and Walters.

DETROIT 3, PHILADELPHIA 1
DETROIT, May 28.—Leonard, pitching his first game of the season, allowed Philadelphia only five scattered hits and Detroit won the final game of the series yesterday, 3 to 1. After the second inning the visitors got only two men as far as second base. The score:

Batteries: Leonard and Almsmith; Johnson, Geary and Perkins.

CHICAGO 4, WASHINGTON 3
CHICAGO, May 28.—Walter Johnson lost his second game of the series yesterday when Chicago, playing an uphill game, came from behind and defeated Washington, 4 to 3. In the final contest, it gave the locals a clean sweep of the series and was the sixth consecutive game which Washington had lost by one run. The score:

Chicago ..... 0 0 0 1 2 1 0 ..... 4-6
Washington ..... 0 0 2 1 0 0 0 ..... 3-6

Batteries: Cleto and Schalk; Harper, Shaw and Plonch.

ST. LOUIS 5, NEW YORK 3
ST. LOUIS, May 28.—Batting opportunely and making the most of New York's misplays, St. Louis won its third straight game from the Yankees yesterday, 5 to 3. The victory puts the locals in third place. The score:

New York ..... 0 2 0 0 0 0 1 ..... 3-3

ST. LOUIS 4, BROOKLYN 1
BROOKLYN, May 28.—St. Louis knocked Maunox out of the box in the first inning of its game with Brooklyn here yesterday and won, 4 to 1. Three hits and an error, a sacrifice and a steal accounted for the three runs of Maunox. Marquard blanked the visitors in the next six innings and was taken out for a pinch hitter. Cheney, who recently recovered from a long illness, pitched the last two innings and yielded an earned run in the 9th. Deak held Brooklyn to four hits. When's triple and Myers' out saved them from a shut out. Brooklyn yesterday released Pitcher Miljus to Toledo. The score:

ROOKIE FOOLS RED SOX

Cleveland Makes Clean Sweep of Series—Dutch
Leonard Wins For Detroit

CLEVELAND, May 28.—Starting his first game for Cleveland Tom Phillips, New Orleans recruit, assisted in making it three straight from Boston yesterday with three singles. The score was 5 to 4. Boston had 13 men left on bases. Ruth's triple to center field was the longest hit ever made on the local field. The score:

Batteries: Phillips and O'Neill; Jones, James and Walters.

DETROIT 3, PHILADELPHIA 1
DETROIT, May 28.—Leonard, pitching his first game of the season, allowed Philadelphia only five scattered hits and Detroit won the final game of the series yesterday, 3 to 1. After the second inning the visitors got only two men as far as second base. The score:

Batteries: Leonard and Almsmith; Johnson, Geary and Perkins.

CHICAGO 4, WASHINGTON 3
CHICAGO, May 28.—Walter Johnson lost his second game of the series yesterday when Chicago, playing an uphill game, came from behind and defeated Washington, 4 to 3. In the final contest, it gave the locals a clean sweep of the series and was the sixth consecutive game which Washington had lost by one run. The score:

Chicago ..... 0 0 0 1 2 1 0 ..... 4-6
Washington ..... 0 0 2 1 0 0 0 ..... 3-6

Batteries: Cleto and Schalk; Harper, Shaw and Plonch.

ST. LOUIS 5, NEW YORK 3
ST. LOUIS, May 28.—Batting opportunely and making the most of New York's misplays, St. Louis won its third straight game from the Yankees yesterday, 5 to 3. The victory puts the locals in third place. The score:

St. Louis ..... 1 2 0 0 0 0 0 ..... 5-1
New York ..... 0 2 0 0 0 0 1 ..... 3-3

ST. LOUIS 4, BROOKLYN 1
BROOKLYN, May 28.—St. Louis knocked Maunox out of the box in the first inning of its game with Brooklyn here yesterday and won, 4 to 1. Three hits and an error, a sacrifice and a steal accounted for the three runs of Maunox. Marquard blanked the visitors in the next six innings and was taken out for a pinch hitter. Cheney, who recently recovered from a long illness, pitched the last two innings and yielded an earned run in the 9th. Deak held Brooklyn to four hits. When's triple and Myers' out saved them from a shut out. Brooklyn yesterday released Pitcher Miljus to Toledo. The score:

ONLY ONE HIT OFF JONES

Fitchburg Pitcher Holds Local Batters Helpless—Lawrence
Loses to Portland

Jones, Fitchburg pitcher, allowed Lowell but one hit yesterday afternoon and had no trouble setting down the locals, 5 to 1. A high fly to centerfield by Clark in the second inning, which Hilton momentarily misjudged, was the only blow registered against him, and for the last seven innings only one man reached first. He got nine of the Lowell batters on strikes, Gaboriault having three times.

Lowell played miserable ball in the field coupled with their inability to hit. Of the seven errors of commission charged against them, three were on easy fly balls, and as such were absolutely inexcusable for supposedly league players. The errors of omission were frequent. Clark in right field came in a few steps to get Gallagher's fly in the sixth and then let it drop and his feet and only a forearm at second saved Devon an error after he had dropped Schmidt's easy pop in the same inning.

Clark at first. Lowell pulled the feature play of the game in the first inning. Lyons drove a low, hard hit into Clark's right that looked safe beyond question, but the ball by some over and although he buried his head in the sand he came up with the ball clutched in his hands. He stepped over to the bag and doubled Loftus who had rounded second, thinking the drive safe. The score:

PORTLAND 4, LAWRENCE 1
LAWRENCE, May 27.—A home run over the left field fence by Corcoran, third baseman for the Portland team, won the game for the locals, 4 to 1. The factor in Portland's victory was the main factor in Lawrence's defeat. The score:

DEMPSEY WORKS OUT IN BLISTERING SUN

TOLEDO, Ohio, May 28.—Blistering rays of the sun beat down ferociously on Jack Dempsey's training camp yesterday and caused his handler to send him through his pace during the cool hours of the morning. It was so hot at the challenger's camp on the shores of Maumee bay yesterday afternoon that Dempsey and his trainers took a swim in an attempt to get cooled off.

Trainer DeForest sent Dempsey through his first vigorous work out. The challenger boxed six rounds, four furious sessions with Bill Tate, and two with Terry Keller, a light-heavyweight. Keller boxed the second and fifth rounds to give Tate a rest. Dempsey was on top of Tate from the start and the giant negro received a punishment that he did not anticipate. One right hand uppercut nearly lifted him off his feet. After the boxing Dempsey shadow boxed for 15 minutes and then punched the bag until the rope broke.

Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey, plans to gradually switch his protegee's hours of working so that he will become hardened to the heat of midday. Kearns realizes that when Dempsey and Willard get into their July 1st day may be burning hot and Dempsey will be obliged to stand up under the heat. He said that Dempsey should do all of his boxing under the same conditions. He believes that there will be plenty of time for him to become familiar with the effects of the sun. Boxing in the heat, trainer DeForest fears, will decrease Dempsey's weight too rapidly.

The army, navy and civilian board of boxing control, meeting among its members several governors, army and naval officers and representative citizens, yesterday answered the protest of the Federated Churches of Ohio against the match. The letter was addressed to Edward R. Wright, secretary of the organization, at Cleveland.

"The government made boxing an integral part of the training of soldiers for war, which resulted in a great revival of the sport," the letter reads in part. "For every single person opposed to boxing in Ohio, and in all parts of America, we are convinced that there are a thousand devoted followers of the sport to whom the proposed match will be a source of innocent and measurable entertainment and cannot see any reason why it should be denied them any more than we could see the justice of interfering with any of the religious or entertainment which you frequently organize in conjunction with your church."

If you will pardon our saying so, your opposition is a half a century behind the times. We consider that those who are opposing this match are incurring grave responsibility, as such opposition can only react to the detriment of religion in the minds of millions of men who can see no harm in two exponents of the highest skill in a given sport, engaging in a contest for supremacy."

BILLY LUYSER PASSES AWAY

Bill Luyster, the former Lawrence outfielder, and famed throughout the old New England league as an extraordinary hitter, died suddenly in New York city on May 15. Bill was on his way to join the New Haven team of the Eastern league when he was stricken in the Grand Central station in New York with a hemorrhage and died shortly after. Luyster captained a shipyard team in New Jersey last season, but started to fail in health near the close of the year and was sent to a sanitarium. He showed considerable strength during the winter months and this spring felt strong enough to accept a position with the New Haven club.

BRITTON AND AHEARN ARE IN GOOD FORM

Matchmaker Moore of the Crescent A. A. has received word from both Champion Jack Britton and Young Ahearn that they are in perfect condition for their 12-round bout here on Friday night. Both men look upon the match as one of great importance, and will take no chances at not being in tip top shape when they enter the ring.

Ahearn calls it the greatest opportunity in his career, and avers that he will spring a surprise on those who consider him a "set-up" for the championship. The coming match is the talk of New England, and indications point to the attendance being the largest in the history of the club.

The other bouts are in line with the main event. Young Drew of Lawrence, a member of the U. S. navy, in the semi-final. Both boys are in fine form and confident of putting up a whale of a bout. The preliminaries, too, will be furnished by good battlers.

The manacment has issued a warning against accepting tickets from anyone but officials of the club. A report that speculators, who recognize the quality of the bout, would try to corner the tickets, brought the warning from the promoters. Only members will be admitted.

AMATEUR BASEBALL
The Holy Cross nine would like a game with any 13-year-old team on Saturday, the White Eagles preferred.

The Carlisle Warriors defeated the Young Indians last Saturday, 12 to 6. The Warriors would like a game with the Cubs.

The Midgets will play two games Memorial day, meeting the Cubs in the morning, and the Wanderers in the afternoon. A game is wanted for Saturday with a fast 14 or 15-year-old team. Answer through this paper.

The Erie A.C. defeated the Ramblers last Saturday in a loosely played game, 25 to 12. The Erie team will play the Marion A.C. Memorial day.

The St. Peter's A.C. defeated the Sacred Heart nine last Saturday at Lincoln park by the score of 16 to 5. St. Peter's has an open date on the afternoon of May 30 and also on June 7. Strong local clubs are asked to reply through this column.

The Dodgers want a game with the Pawtucket Stars Saturday morning at 10 o'clock on the South common. Answer through this paper.

The Meadow A.C. has not yet suffered defeat and would like a game on Friday or Saturday with any 15 or 16-year-old team in this city, the Midgets or St. Peter's S.S. preferred. Will play on any grounds. Send all challenges through this paper.

The Call-em

Barrow juggled and shifted his lineup against Cleveland Monday, but with the same results—decidedly negative. He benched Jack Barry, field captain, and placed Dave Shean at second, replaced Hooper by Gilhooly and with Ruth getting the pitching assignment, sent Del Gainer to left field. Ruth lasted three innings as a pitcher and then took Gainer's place in the outfield. Babe was followed to the slab by Bill James, Caldwell and Penock. Cleveland won, 12 to 7. Why? Chastly pitching is a pretty fair answer. Whether or not there is discussion in the ranks of the Boston Sox doesn't matter for the moment, but why if Barrow wants to strengthen his cracked hurling staff doesn't he pull Ruth out of left field and let him rest on the bench when he isn't pitching? As an outfielder he is only fair, as an every-day hitter he is unreliable, but as a pitcher, he used to be on a par with Leonard, Shore, Johnson, Morton, or in fact, the best the league afforded. He has played in practically every game on the western trip and his terrible loss has won only one game for his club in St. Louis when he cracked a homer with the bases full. We contend he would win more games for Barrow as a pitcher than as a batter and outfielder. The team, as a whole, is rickety, but the main fault lies in the box, and there is one way to help it. Keep the Babe a hitting-pitcher. He can't throw positions and make a success of either one.

Oh, What a Disposition!
We quote the Lawrence Sun-American:

"That fight card of the Unity club looks mighty good and there should be a big crowd. Many Lowell fans will come to this city with Boyle as they ought to have an idea that the heat between Britton and Young Alcorn will be a joke as Alcorn has no more chance against Britton than the proverbial snowball. If Lowell fans are wise they will come down and see a good scrap."

How do you get that way? Gee, what a friendly guy that fellow is, always boasting he is kicking. Clean up your own backyard, old boy, that fight club of yours doesn't stage one good scrap every six months. The Crescent has a whole section reserved for Lawrence fans Friday night. How do you like those apples?

A Sign of the Times
A bright-eyed kid of about 11 years just stuck his head in the door of our private sanctum and holed: "Hey, mister, is this where you put in your stuff?" What d'yer mean, stuff? he asked. "Amateur baseball done," he laughingly replied. "Surest thing you know," we told him. "All right, put it in the paper that the Dodgers would like to play the Pawtucket Stars Saturday mornin', will yer, please?" "I'll say we will, and for just as many more like him as happen to blow around."

Some Umbrs
Moxie Fitzpatrick inspired his usual good game, and he gave a fine exhibition of umpiring. —Lawrence Sun-American.

Did we understand you to say that

CONGRATULATE CREW OF SEAPLANE NC-4

NEW YORK, May 23.—Vice Admiral Albert Gleaves, commanding the cruiser and transport force of the Atlantic fleet, today sent the following cablegram to Lieut. Commander A. C. Read, commanding the NC-4:

"The cruiser and transport force congratulates you and your crew on your great achievement, which has added another brilliant page to the history of the navy. We remember that your first flight was from the flagship Seattle."

The Seattle is the flagship of Admiral Gleaves.

The Manufacturers' Aircraft association today sent the following cablegram to Lieut. Commander Read:

"Congratulations you and your gallant crew on the successful completion of the first transatlantic flight. The honor you have won in the NC-4 is all the greater because it inspires America, where the airplane had its birth, to redouble her efforts to lead the world in civil aerial transport."

WRESTLING CHAMPION HERE TOMORROW NIGHT

Ed "Strangler" Lewis, who recently won the world's championship by defeating Zbyszko in two straight falls at Chicago, and who has been signed to assist Jack Dempsey, to get into condition for his championship boxing bout with Willard, will meet Mort Henderson, the original "masked" marauder, at the Crescent rink tomorrow night. Henderson will appear without the mask. The men have agreed to wrestle to a finish, best two out of three falls, only win falls to count, with the strangle hold barred.

This bout will be one of the last after the big fight at Toledo on July 4. Henderson weighs about 200, but is exceptionally fast. He has defeated Dr. Toller and many other notables. He realizes the importance of a match with the holder and will do his utmost to secure a fall on the "strangler."

The semi-final will introduce Peter Plourde, the Lowell lightweight, and Paul Duchesne, Fall River grappler.

LOCAL HOME BUILDING CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED

A campaign of home building, the outcome of which is hoped to be augmented civic pride and more universal personal ownership of homes was launched at a meeting of representative men and women last evening in the board of trade rooms. The medium by which this is to be accomplished is the proposed formation of a housing corporation for Lowell with a capital of $300,000. This corporation will manage itself and have its own officers. Its money will be loaned on second mortgages to families desiring to complete new homes. The first mortgages are to be assumed by the savings banks, 60 per cent. of the cost of home being thus cared for. The new corporation will place 30 per cent. as the second mortgage and the home builder is to deposit the first 10 per cent. of the total cost. The monthly rental plan will include enough to repay the mortgages in a long period of years and pay the interest as well.

There is a distinct shortage of homes in Lowell and this fact is vital in connection with the proposed scheme. Daniel F. Carroll is chairman of a committee of the board of trade which has had this matter under close study for some time. Last night's meeting was attended by about 70 persons and the principal speaker was K. D. Haysmaler of Washington, representing the bureau of housing. He spoke of the advantages accruing to a city which is made up of family-owned homes. Mr. Carroll outlined the Lowell situation. It was voted to appoint a committee to test out the financing of the plan, the following being appointed:

Daniel F. Carroll, master plumber, chairman; Lucius A. Derby, electrician; Rene J. B. Delys, chemist; Frederick P. Deloy, contractor; John J. Hanlon, laundryman; George Bowers, civil engineer; Perley F. Gilbert, architect; Henry L. Royke, architect; John F. Dwyer, master painter; George H. Russell, hardware; Edwin T. Shaw, real estate; John M. O'Donoghue, lawyer; James C. Reilly, lawyer; Henry Barnes,

VOTE TO ADOPT NEW HOUR SCHEDULE

Many of the men's wear stores in this city voted to adopt a new schedule of hours at a meeting held at the board of trade rooms this morning. Monday evening work will be done away with and the stores will be open every day from 8.30 to 6 with the exception of Thursdays and Saturdays. On Thursdays they will be open from 8.30 to 12 noon and on Saturday from 8.30 until 10 p. m. These hours will be in effect beginning next Monday. Fourteen clothing establishments were represented and the new schedule was applied to all of them.

The dealers also formed a permanent subordinate organization of the board of trade and elected Daniel S. O'Brien, president, Gardner Macarney, vice president and George Dickerman, secretary. They will meet the first Tuesday of every month and will be known as the Men's Wear Retail association. A communication from Congressman John Jacob Rogers in answer to a telegraphic request of the association that he vote for the repeal of the luxury tax of the new revenue bill was

Banish Pain

THERE is no use talking—no one can work or play when they are not feeling well and strong. Life, without health and strength, is a mere painful, purposeless existence.

One of the most important conditions of good health is to keep the kidneys active and active. When weak or deranged, they do not filter out of the blood the impurities that should be eliminated from the system. When these impurities remain, the blood stream is poisoned and pain and suffering result.

TRIAL OF FORD LIBEL SUIT

Thirteen Former Soldiers Testify They Got Their Jobs Back

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., May 28.—Thirteen former soldiers took the witness stand to testify for Henry Ford in his $1,000,000 libel suit against the Chicago Daily Tribune in Judge Tucker's court yesterday.

Their testimony was all to the same general effect in refutation of charges made in the body of the alleged libellous editorial headed, "Ford is an Anarchist." The editorial stated that Mr. Ford would not pay his employees who went with the national guard to the Mexican border, would not care for their dependents, nor hold their positions open for them until they returned.

The plaintiff admits that he did not pay salaries of his men while absent, but denies that he deserted their dependents, and asserts that the positions of the guardsmen were held open just as positions were held for any other employees who left the factory for causes beyond their control.

Those who testified yesterday all had been in Mr. Ford's employ when the national guard was mobilized in 1916; all joined the colors and all testified that they were reinstated in their old positions or better ones without discrimination when they returned.

Sergt. Floyd Burgraw, who has been 11 years in the Ford employ, and is a veteran national guardsman, has a wife and three children, he said. He got half way into a statement that Ford paid his family half his salary while he was away, but was cut short by an objection that he had the information on hearsay from his wife.

Sergt. Jacob D. Bunting, who is still taking hospital treatment for a wound received in France, testified that an agent of Mr. Ford's had offered financial help to his mother and father, but that it was not needed.

THE CITY OF LOWELL AS A CORPORATION

How often have you seen aspiring office-seekers mould their soapbox rostrums, assume a Daniel Webster nose and glibly waltz into the sonorous strains of oratorical composition in which they persistently referred to "that grand and glorious corporation—the city of Lowell?"

How often have these same gentry proclaimed that the city of Lowell was a business firm which should be managed on a business basis, and that if they were put in office, etc. etc. perhaps you have wondered just what sort of a business house this city of ours was and have speculated on its comparison with other business houses, how many people it employs, etc.

Then again you have probably mused for many an hour and oft as to how the city paid its employees—that is, if you were not an employee yourself of this same corporation—and whether city pay compares favorably with that received outside municipal limits. Well, a few facts and figures ground out from the mass of payrolls that go to make up a week's business at the Merrimack street office of this corporation under the artistic direction of Chief Grind Charles D. Paige may be interwoven into a most pleasing and easily digested pattern which will show just how many people the city of Lowell keeps on its payrolls to have the municipal mill wheel constantly turning week in and week out, year after year.

Take the week of May 24, for instance. (You'll have to take it anyway, because that's the one Mr. Paige picked out.) The payroll of the various departments show that there were 1425 people on the city's payroll drawing out the money that hardworking taxpayers previously had deposited in the city treasurer's office. This does not include the higher salaried officials. Just the rank and file of those that keep the city's business in a healthy condition and see to it that none of the mass of details connected with running such a huge organization are lost. Some weeks there are more people on the payroll than others; it varies with the needs of the various departments. But 1425 may be considered an average figure.

At the present time the city pays out about $30,000 a week to its employees. How is this divided? On an average, what does each employee get?

To get a fair average, one must consider the various classes of employees. There are the outside workers which may be generally termed laborers, even though firemen and policemen may take exception to such designation. A little algebraic figuring shows that the laborers receive on an average

$3.50 per day. Their foremen get an average of $4 per day. So much for the outside workers. How about those inside?

The male clerks at city hall draw down about $27.14 per week, if they should all "pot" their pay and each

BIG RIOTS AT NEW HAVEN

Outbreak Kept City in Up-
roar All Night—Attributed
to Bolshevik Elements

Clash Between Ex-Soldiers
Trouble—Many Injured

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 28.—The riot which kept this city in an uproar most of last night was attributed today by Mayor Fitzgerald to Bolshevik elements which had taken advantage of a minor clash between the discharged service men and Yale undergraduates. Throughout the night the college authorities had complete control over the students. Those of the latter who figured in fights were such as were caught upon the street by the mob. Many of them had been at theatres or dances. Although the police were spread out they could not for hours prevent clashes, nor could they fathom the reason for the semblance of organized attack. Once a platoon of officers with drawn revolvers was stretched across Elm street and the Green, between the Graduate club and the public library, Chief Smith afterwards said that this was done for effect. Officers guarded the theatre exits to protect men who left who might have been mistaken for students.

The police reports showed five young men hurt, two by bullets, none seriously, and about a dozen detained pending inquiry. Considerable window glass in college buildings was broken, and a few store windows were shattered. Many citizens were either knocked down or roughly justified. For several hours the mob, broken up into groups, rushed through the streets. The police were unable to reach those among the disturbers who were seen to carry sticks and clubs. There were several reports that black-jacks were used. Captain Braden of the Yale track team was confident that he was hit with a loaded club. The Allington hospital sent over a military police detail and this aided the city police. The report was made that few ex-service men appeared to be among the disturbers. As the Yale campuses are fenced in, it is known that most of the students were behind the gates or in dormitories.

The student council today, in a statement after expressing admiration of Yale men for the men who served under the colors, especially the 102nd men, expressed the opinion that neither service men nor students were responsible for last night's outbreak. It believed that other elements planned and controlled the affair.

Students in Court

In court two students charged with having revolvers, and another charged with breach of the peace had their hearings continued until June 3. One man charged with breach of the peace was given 15 days in jail and another for injury to private property was fined $50. The students with guns were taken by officers who went to a Sheffield dormitory after two had been shot, it being claimed that bullets came from the direction of the dormitory windows. The man sent to jail was caught throwing stones at Powers hall windows. The bill for window glass at Yale will be considerable. Osborne hall and Byers hall had most of their street windows broken. Attack on the former was made after a man from the steps had harangued the crowd, saying that students had insulted the soldiers.

DISCUSS MOREY SCHOOL PLANS

The school committee held a brief session last evening and the principal business taken up was a discussion of plans for the Morey school addition and the approval of the same. The resignation of Violet Stocks, principal of the high school was accepted and a vote of thanks extended. Donald R. McIntire was elected physical director of the high school, his salary to be $1800. William P. Boland was elected an instructor in the high school. James J. Mellen, supervisor of Americanization in this city, was voted $800 as compensation for his work this season.

ELM STREET HOUSES CHANGE HANDS

An important real estate transaction took place today when the property at the corner of Elm and Chapel streets, containing six tenements and a store was sold to Samuel Silverblatt. This block was owned by Patrick F. Kane and is assessed for several thousand dollars. Mr. Silverblatt has bought for an investment and will expend several thousand dollars on exterior and interior alterations.

COMPLETE DRAFT OF
AIR CONVENTION

PARIS, Tuesday, May 27.—The aeronautical commission of the peace conference has agreed to a complete draft of an air convention and its annexes subject to some small amendments. The convention itself deals with the following matters:

- The nationality and registration of aircraft.
- General principles governing the right of international flight.
- Certificates of air worthiness and competency.
- Principles governing flight over foreign territory.
- Rules to be observed on departure or landing and when under way.
- Prohibition of the carriage of certain objects.
- The international commission for air navigation.
- Final provisions.
- Technical details are relegated to annexes in the following order:
- The marking of aircraft.
- Certificates of air worthiness.
- Log books.
- Rules as to lights and signals and rules of the air.
- Certificates of competency, including medical requirements.
- International maps and ground marks.
- Meteorological information.
- Customs.

The aeronautical commission of the peace conference grew out of the international convention on aerial navigation which was called by the French government in March, quite independent of the peace conference itself. The convention drawn up by it will be submitted to the supreme council as part of the peace conference work and, in the case of the United States to its diplomatic representatives for presentation to the senate for ratification. The convention goes through much the same procedure as those drawn at The Hague, must be ratified within one year's time, and becomes effective between the separate nations as rapidly as they ratify it. The American representatives on the commission were Brig. Gen. Mason M. Patrick, chief of the air service, A.E.F., and Read Admiral D. S. Knapp, representing the navy.

SUPERIOR COURT

The case of the city of Lowell vs. Frank Hanchett, an action for the recovery of taxes for poll and personal property for the year 1916, which was started at the jury waived session of the superior court a couple of days ago, Justice Hammond presiding, was resumed this morning with Mr. Hanchett on the witness stand. It is expected the case will be brought to a close sometime today, after which divorce cases will be taken up.

Postmaster Gates of Morrisville, Vt., picked a lemon from the plant in the postoffice window which measured 16 by 8 inches and weighed one pound and six ounces.

HIGH COST OF BANANAS

"Rank Outrage," Declares
Cong. John F. Fitzgerald

in Speech in House

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The high cost of bananas was assailed yesterday in the house of representatives by Representative John F. Fitzgerald of Boston, who declared that the present price of 50 to 60 cents a dozen was a "rank outrage, due to the monopolistic control of importation by the United Fruit Co."

He said the price had more than tripled in two years, despite record crops in South and Central America. "The answer is simple," he declared. "The company is paying dividends of $10 a year on stock the par value of which is $100."

JUDGE PICKMAN
HOLDS INQUESTS

Two inquests were held by Judge Pickman today. In connection with the deaths of Daniel Emery and Mrs. Daniel Emery, it is alleged, was struck by an automobile driven by Herbert Harris on the night of May 12, receiving injuries which resulted in his death at St. John's hospital the following day. The accident occurred on Middlesex street.

Mrs. Emery is alleged to have died as the result of an automobile accident on the Lawrence boulevard, in which she was struck by a machine driven by Raymond A. Otis of Lawrence. The accident occurred on May 3, and the woman died shortly afterwards at St. John's hospital.

AT THE BOSTON
LADIES' OUTFITTERS

Today and tomorrow the Boston Ladies' Outfitters are offering for special holiday sale unusual values in every department of their large store. The sale, coming as it does, is especially timely as it gives the public opportunity to purchase at low prices before the holiday. The goods and values offered are many and they include practically every garment in the entire establishment. No better time than the present to buy at a saving. One would have to visit the store and inspect the offerings to fully appreciate what can be bought there at such low prices. The store is making an exceptionally fine showing of feather boas at greatly reduced prices, which are so popular among the feminine element of Lowell. These special bargains are limited to tomorrow noon, so take advantage of them one must shop quickly.

EDMONTON TIED UP BY GENERAL STRIKE

CALGARY, Alberta, May 28.—Business was not noticeably disturbed today by the general strike. Street cars were operating and lighting plants, theatres and hotels were conducted as normally. Volunteers were at work in the post-office. About 200 government employees are on strike.

Conditions at Edmonton were reported as more serious. The street cars had stopped, restaurants and hotels were closed or badly crippled, and the electric lighting system was shut down. Police and firemen were said to be on duty under orders from the strike committee.

To the heirs-at-law, next of kin, and all other persons interested in the estate of Thomas S. Pulsifer, late of Cambridge, in the County of Grafton, and State of New Hampshire, deceased.

Whereas a petition has been presented to said Court, by John Milton Pulsifer with certain papers purporting to be copies of the last will and testament of said deceased, and of the probate thereof in said State of New Hampshire duly authenticated, representing said deceased had died in the County of Middlesex, and praying that the copy of said will may be filed and public notice be given to all persons claiming to be heirs-at-law of said deceased, and that the said will be admitted to probate in said County of Middlesex, and letters testamentary be granted to him without giving a surety on the said will, and that he be appointed executor of said will.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Lowell, in said County of Middlesex, on the seventeenth day of June, A. D. 1919, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why the same should not be granted.

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for the successive weeks, in "The Lowell Sun," a newspaper published in Lowell, the first publication to be published on or before the first day of June, A. D. 1919, and thereafter on the first, third, fifth, seventh, ninth, eleventh, thirteenth, fifteenth, seventeenth, nineteenth, twenty-first, twenty-third, twenty-fifth, twenty-seventh, and twenty-ninth days of said month of June, A. D. 1919, and to file a copy of the said citation with the clerk of said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this seventeenth day of May, A. D. 1919, at and at nine o'clock in the forenoon, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen.

F. M. ESTY, Registrar.

James F. O'Donnell, Atty.

DECORATION FOR DARING AIRMEN

Hawker and Grieve Received by King and Given the Air Force Cross

"Had To Laugh When Big Wave Lifted Them Up and Smashed Plane"—Hawker

LONDON, May 28.—Harry G. Hawker and Lieut. Commander McKenzie Grieve were received by King George at Buckingham palace today and given the air force cross, a new decoration for devotion to duty of which they are the first recipients.

An immense crowd cheered their arrival at and departure from the palace.

Lieut. Commander McKenzie Grieve said today that, in his opinion, the future of aerial navigation was in the perfection of directional wireless.

"It was like being in a small motor boat in a heavy sea when we flew down to look for a ship," Hawker is quoted by the Daily Mail. "We were between high waves and were bumped about quite badly."

When the plane alighted, Hawker and Grieve said that they were in water up to their knees and the waves were close to the upper plane at times. The nose of the machine was turned into the wind and now and again a big wave dashed over it.

"Had to laugh," said Hawker, "when I had to laugh," a real big one, came up under the top plane, which up to that time had been dry and shining. It lifted us right out and I saw the trailing edge of the top plane break clean away."

Hawker said they spent their time discussing how the Mary was handled and whether she could save the machine and its appliances. All this time the little boat carried by the Sopwith machine was afloat beside the plane, dancing about like a cork.

"When the ship's boat reached the plane," said Hawker, "she banged right into the machine and we hopped on board. The ship slung a rope out and hauled the boat back and we climbed aboard the Mary."

Jolly Good Feeling

"We had been waiting so long that we felt callous to the whole thing. We had a jolly good feeling when we saw the ship messing about. Looking for a ship for two hours and being seasick the whole time wasn't very merry and bright."

"We certainly had a feeling of thankfulness and relief when we saw the ship," said Grieve. "After that we were all right. The machine was floating well on her general buoyancy. Even the engines held air and there were, of course, also air spaces in the planes and petrol tanks."

"We were rescued at 3.30 o'clock, Greenwich time, and lost everything. We went aboard the Mary without caps or boots. All my log had been washed out of my pocket, except one small page of rough notes."

Both men were reluctant to describe their feelings at the time but summed them up as follows:

Felt It Was 100 to 1 Chance

Grieve—"I didn't feel excited in the slightest, either at the start or when rescued."

Hawker—"It seemed a very uneventful affair. When we started we felt it was a 100 to 1 chance for us."

Describing the weather conditions at the start and how the airplane ran into strong northerly winds, Hawker said:

"The weather was no hindrance, and we should have made the flight but for the trouble occasioned by the water boiling in our cooling system. We could have got through the worst of the weather in a couple of hours."

Grieve said that the wireless was not a success, and from a navigating point of view he placed no reliance on it. They saw no vessel during the flight. He added: "We preferred to navigate chiefly by celestial observations and my position, as I worked it out by the stars, was virtually correct. I found, when picked up, I used a cloud horizon instead of a sea horizon as the sea was hardly visible any of

BY L. W. BOWER, M.D.

You can take an onion seed and a pansy seed, and plant them side by side in the same spot of ground. In one case, you get an onion, with its peculiarly strong odor, and in the other you get a flower of rare beauty. You can plant a poppy seed and get opium (a dangerous, habit-forming drug), or you can plant a rhubarb seed and get something that helps constipation. No scientist, living or dead, can explain these mysteries of Nature. Behind the invisible life germ in each seed is hidden the deep secret that nobody understands. Everything growing out of the ground seems intended for some use in establishing natural conditions. Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found out what is naturally best for women's diseases. He learned it all through treating thousands of cases. The result of his studies was a medicine called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is made of vegetable growths that nature surely intended for backache, headache, weakening drains, bearing-down pains, periodical irregularities, pelvic inflammations, and for the many disorders common to women in all ages of life. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is made of lady's slipper root, black cohosh root, unicorn root, blue cohosh root and Oregon grape root. Women who take this standard remedy know that in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription they are getting a safe woman's tonic so good that druggists everywhere sell it.

Favorite Prescription should have the full confidence of every woman in America because it contains no alcohol and no narcotic. Dr. Pierce knew, when he first made this standard medicine, that whiskey and morphine are injurious, and so he has always kept them out of his remedies. Send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package. Tablets.—Adv.

the time we were in the air. I obtained some idea of the drift of the machine by noting the breaking waves through the drift indicator."

Hawker May Try Again

LONDON, May 28.—(By the Associated Press).—Upon his arrival in London last night, Harry G. Hawker, asked whether he would make another attempt to fly across the Atlantic, replied:

"I don't know. It depends on the Sopwith firm."

Hawker's Plane Picked Up

ST. JOHNS, N. F., May 28.—The Sopwith biplane in which Harry Hawker and McKenzie Grieve attempted to fly across the Atlantic was picked up in latitude 42.40 north, longitude 29.95 west, by the American ship Lake Charlottesville, according to a radio message received by the Furness liner Sachem and relayed here last night.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS WILL MEET TO TAKE ACTION ON DEATH OF
GEORGE ENWRIGHT

At tomorrow evening's meeting of Lowell council, Knights of Columbus, action will be taken on the death of George J. Enwright, a popular young member of the order whose untimely death has cast a gloom over the council. A delegation representing the council will be appointed to attend the funeral and a committee on resolutions will be named in accordance with the time-honored custom. Bishop Delany, General Assembly, Fourth degree, K. of C., of which the late Mr. Enwright was an active and popular member, will likewise hold a meeting and make preparations for the funeral and attendance of the members. Grand Knight Robert B. Thomas will preside at the meeting of Lowell council and Faithful Navigator Thomas B. Delaney will preside at the meeting of Bishop Delany assembly.

If you want to reach the people who spend their money in Lowell advertise in The Sun, Lowell's greatest newspaper.

HIGH SCHOOL FIELD DAY

Usual Brilliant Exercises Will Mark the Observance Tomorrow Afternoon

Fair skies are prophesied for tomorrow afternoon to further enhance the brilliant scene which the high school field day exercises invariably produce. Field day is the goal set each year for the boys and girls of the school during their long periods of military drill and physical education and the achievements of this year's organizations will be reproduced tomorrow at Spalding park. That they will rank with those of past years is assured.

As has been the custom the boys' regiment and girls' battalions in gala dress will march through the downtown streets prior to the exercises at the park. The units will form in the neighborhood of the school at 12.30 o'clock and the line of march will take them past city hall where they will be reviewed by Mayor Thompson and the other commissioners. The marchers will then go to Merrimack square where the girls will take special electric cars to the park, but the boys' regiment will proceed to the drill grounds in usual doughboy style.

The exercises are due to start at 2 o'clock. Each year's program is featured to a great extent by the drills of the girls. Tomorrow members of the third and fourth battalions will execute a combination wand and dumb bell drill. The first and second battalions will present free arm exercises and the freshmen girls will do an aesthetic dance. The girls will wear designating colors as follows: First and second battalions, black ties, with the members of the first battalion wearing gold arm bands and those in the second battalion, purple arm bands; third battalion, green ties; fourth battalion, red ties and the freshmen girls, pink and blue ties.

The boys' regiment will present a fine program of drills and marching, including battalion and company maneuvers, with a competitive company drill by the three outfits already selected, and individual prize drill by a score of crack performers. Regimental dress parade will close the exercises.

No tickets admitting to the grandstand will be given this year and it is a case of first come, the better served.

AMBULANCE CASES

Edward Mahoney, an employee of the Boston & Maine railroad, was injured about the head while at his work in East Bleachery street at 3.55 o'clock this forenoon. The ambulance was called and he was taken to St. John's hospital.

At 12.20 o'clock this afternoon Mrs. Mary Goodno, a resident of Cross st., was struck by a bicycle in Merrimack street near the library and received cuts about the head, face and shoulders. She was taken to the Lowell Corporation hospital in the ambulance.

THE "DRY" AMENDMENT

If Ohio Fails To Ratify It, Operation Will Be Suspended Till Sept. 1920

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—If the electorate of Ohio refuses to ratify the national prohibition amendment at its general election next November, the operation of the amendment will be suspended throughout the United States at least until the Maine election in September, 1920, according to Theodore A. Bell, attorney for the California Grape Protective association.

"The referendum to place the measure on the ballot has been started in 19 states," he said today. "Forty-five states ratified the amendment though three declined to do so. That means that the measure is held up in 19 states by the referendum, leaving but 25 where final ratification has been effected where 35 are necessary to make it operative."

"If Ohio, which will be the first state
